*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 27th February, 1837.*

QUARANTINE.

WHEREAS, by an Act of the GOVERNOR and Council of New South Wales, passed in the third year of the reign of His Present Majesty, entitled an "Act for subjecting Vessels coming to New South Wales, from certain places, to the performance of Quarantine," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make such orders as shall be deemed necessary and expedient, in any particular case or cases, with respect to Vessels arriving and having any infectious disease on board: and all such orders so made shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes, with respect to the Commander, Master, or other person having charge of any Vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as well as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Punishments, to which they may respectively become liable, as any order or orders concerning Quarantine made by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and notified by proclamation as therein mentioned; and whereas, information has been given to the Governor of the said Colony, and to the Executive Council thereof, that a contagious Fever has been, and still is, on board the ship Lady Macnaghten, lately arrived in the Harbour of Port Jackson, and it is necessary to prevent the spreading or communication of such infectious disease to the Inhabitants of the Colony.

Now, therefore, by Command of His Excellency, with the advice of the Executive Council, it is hereby notified that an infectious disease, known as Contagious Fever, prevails on board the said ship Lady Macnaghten, and it is hereby further ordered and directed that the said ship, together with the Master, crew, passengers, and contents of, or belonging thereto, shall immediately be placed in Quarantine at the usual station at Spring Cove, in the Harbour of Port Jackson, and such of the crew and passengers, and contents of the said ship, as may be deemed proper by the surgeon in charge, shall be forthwith landed and kept in Quarantine on the usual Quarantine Ground at Spring Cove, until further orders; and all persons are hereby prohibited from having any communication whatsoever with the said ship whilst under Quarantine, or from going under any pretext whatsoever into Spring Cove, whilst the said ship is lying there with the Yellow Flag flying; and all persons are also hereby strictly prohibited from having any communication whatsoever with the said Quarantine Ground at Spring Cove, or from going under any pretence whatsoever within the limits of the same, until the said ship, and the crew, passengers, and contents thereof, shall be duly released from Quarantine; of which all persons are required to take notice, under the Penalties and restrictions imposed by the said recited Act for any violation of the Regulations relating to Quarantine, therein particularly set forth.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

THOMAS H. JAMES,

TO be peremptorily sold before John Gurner, Esq., the Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court, by Messrs. James & Co., at their Auction Rooms, in George-street, Sydney, on Tuesday, the 4th day of April next, at Twelve o'Clock at noon, pursuant to a decree of that Court, bearing date the 17th day of June, 1836, made in a cause wherein William Henry Breton is Plaintiff, and Joseph Thompson and Thomas Horton James are the Defendants, the Estate belonging to the said Joseph Thompson, situate in Princes-street, Sydney, and containing by admeasurement 33 perches, and has erected thereon two elegant dwelling-houses, with out-houses and buildings, to the southernmost of which is attached a two-stalled stable, a coach-house, and hay-loft.

Each of the houses contains seven rooms, consisting of four bed-rooms, two parlours, and a store on one floor, together with a kitchen and butler's pantry below.

They are built of stone as far as the casement store, and the upper part of bricks, and are now let to Joseph Weller and George Weller, Esquires, as Tenants thereof, on a Lease which expires on the 8th day of April next, at rents amounting in the whole to £125 per annum.

The conditions of the Sale are twenty-five per cent. deposit upon the purchaser being declared the highest bidder, and the residue of the purchase money to be paid on the completion of the Title.

The Title begins with occupancy by one George Cribb, in the year 1821, and uninterrupted possession from that time confirmed by a Grant from the Crown to the Defendant Thomas Horton James, bearing date the 17th June, 1831.

The Purchaser therefore is not to object to the Title, for want of tracing it to an earlier period.

For particulars, apply to the Chief Clerk, at his Office, Court-house, King-street, Sydney, and to James Norton, the Plaintiff's Solicitor.
