ADDITIONAL GRANTS.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR directs it to be notified that, by command of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Additional Grants of Land will be given, under certain limitations hereinafter defined, to those persons who, having obtained Primary Grants under the printed Regulations issued from the Colonial Office, Downing-street, in April 1826, and April 1827, shall establish their claim to such Additional Grants under the following clause of those Regulations, viz:—

“ Any Grantee who can shew an expenditure of capital upon his first Grant to the amount of five times the estimated value of that Grant at the time of its being made to him, will be entitled to a further Grant, with a reduction in his quit-rent at the rate of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on the estimated value of such Grant, on proving that he has sufficient capital to cultivate to advantage the additional Grant.” (s. 21 of Regulations, 1827.)

In carrying this order into effect, Lord Glenelg directs that the closest enquiry be instituted, both to ascertain beyond all doubt that the conditions required of the Settler have been actually performed, by the bonâ fide expenditure of capital in permanent improvements on his first grant, and that he is in assured possession of the capital required for the cultivation of the additional grant. “ Parties,” His Lordship observes, “ claiming as a right the fulfilment of an agreement on the part of the Government, involving as it does, a departure from a system which it is essential to the true interests of the Colony should not be deviated from, except for the most cogent reasons, must submit to the strictest scrutiny as to the performance of their own part of the conditions upon which alone that agreement originally rested.”

In order to avail himself of the indulgence now held out, each applicant will be required to furnish proof,

That he emigrated to this Colony on the faith of the Regulations in question.

That at the expiration of seven years from the date of possession he had bonâ fide expended in permanent improvements on his original grant five times its value, estimated at 3s. 4d. an acre, or such higher amount as had been specially affixed to it.

That at the expiration of the said period of seven years, he was in actual possession of the land.

That he had in hand on that date, sufficient capital to cultivate an additional grant to advantage.

That upon the date of preferring his claim, he is not indebted to Government on account of Quit-Rent.

All applications must be sent in within a certain period; those from persons who have already been seven years in possession of their original grants, on or before the 31st December next; and all others within six months after the expiration of seven years from the dates of obtaining possession of the original grants upon which they are respectively founded; otherwise the claims will be considered as abandoned.

The applications are to be addressed to the Colonial Secretary for submission to the Governor, when, if there appear no sufficient objection to the validity of the claim, on the face of the application, or on the Records of the Government, the case will be referred to the Commissioners of Claims appointed under the Act of Council, 5 Wm. IV., No. 21. Each application is to be accompanied by a statement shewing the following particulars, viz:—

Date of Applicant's arrival in the Colony.

All Grants of Land obtained from the Government with the respective dates, and, if any of them have been alienated, the dates of alienation.

Particulars and amount of capital in hand, and the proportion considered applicable to the additional Grant, if obtained.

The Commissioners will demand such proof of the fulfilment of the conditions upon which the original Grant was obtained, and of the possession of the capital required for the cultivation of the additional Grant, as to them shall seem necessary. They will adopt the same rule in allotting land for capital, as was observed by the former Land Board, in no case recommending an additional Grant exceeding the maximum allowed under the Regulations in question for an original grant, namely, 2560 acres. (s. 15 of Regulations, 1827.)

They will submit a separate report in each case, through the Colonial Secretary, for the approval of the Governor, and, if the several particulars and proofs have been established, to the satisfaction of His Excellency, the Applicant will receive an order to select within four months, and from lands open prior to July 1st, 1831, the number of acres to which he may be considered entitled.

The Lands so selected, will be held under an annual Quit-rent of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. upon 5s. per acre, or other higher estimated value, commencing on the date of possession, and all other conditions of ordinary Additional Grants.

As no claim for an Additional Grant can be admitted where the Original Grant has not been received under the Regulations of 1826 or 1827, it is evident that none can be admitted where the Original Grant was above the maximum of these Regulations (2560 acres), or below the maximum (320 acres.)

Such further general Regulations as may be found necessary, will be communicated to the Commissioners for their guidance and the information of those concerned.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 27th June, 1837.
