ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th July, 1837.

PRESENT :—

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Report from the Lords of the Committee of the whole Council, in the words following, viz.—

“In pursuance of Your Majesty's order in Council, bearing date the 21st day of this instant July, directing a Committee of the whole Council to meet, and settle what alterations it may be necessary to make in the Royal Arms, in consequence of the demise of His late Most Sacred Majesty, whereupon the German Dominions of His late Majesty devolved upon His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, now Ernest Augustus, King of Hanover, the Lords of the Committee have this day met, and been attended by Deputy Garter King of Arms, and Richmond and York Heralds, who having submitted to Their Lordships a drawing of the Royal Arms, wherein the Shield or Inescutcheon of Pretence, representing the Arms of His late Majesty's German Dominions, and ensigned by the Royal Crown of Hanover are omitted, and the Shield left to contain the Armorial Ensigns of the United Kingdom only as the Arms of Dominion, as in the drawing hereunto annexed; and Their Lordships approving of the said drawing, do agree humbly to lay the same before Your Majesty, in order to receive Your Majesty's Royal pleasure thereupon.

And the Committee are further of opinion, that in the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, and in all the seals of office, stamps, coins, or instruments, where Your Majesty's present Arms are now used, the alterations above proposed should be observed; and also in Your Majesty's Standard, and in the badges, &c., for the Kings of Arms; and in the several ornaments of Your Majesty's State in Parliament, or elsewhere.

And the Lords of the Committee further submit their opinion, that it may be expedient that Your Majesty's pleasure, touching the same alteration, should be signified by Your Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department to the Captain General of all and singular Your Majesty's Land Forces; to the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain; the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain; the Lord Wardeh of the Cinque Ports; the Master General, and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance; to Your Majesty's Secretary at War, and to the Master of Your Majesty's Mint; and also to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Her Majesty having taken the said Report into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honorable Lord Glenelg, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonial Department, to receive Her Majesty's Royal pleasure upon such parts of the said Report as fall within the Department of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonial Department, and to signify the same within Her Majesty's Colonies and Plantations, and Settlements, and other Her Majesty's Dominions.

PORT OF LIVERPOOL.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Dock Office, Liverpool.
October 3, 1837.

THE Trustees of the Liverpool Docks and Harbour do hereby give Notice, that for the better guidance of the mariner into and out of this Port, the following alterations will be made in the Formby, Leasowe, and Bidston Lights, and exhibited on and after the evening of Saturday, the 11th of November next.

Formby Light.—This Light will be distinguished as a fixed red light, and in order to give a clearer berth to the north-western and south-eastern elbows of the banks of the new Channel, which have changed their positions, it is necessary when inward bound from the westward, to take the bar of that Channel with the Red Shore Light; open a sail's breadth to the southward of the Formby Floating Light, and after crossing the bar, which the soundings will show, open them as much to the northward, and thus nearing the Floating Light, instead of tacking up and preserving those Lights in one.

This alteration in the character of Formby Shore Light, will also afford a distinction for identifying it when approaching from the northward.

Leasowe Light.—This Light will be so masked as to give a defined light in the Rock Channel, within certain limits, and will suddenly disappear, bearing S. W. to vessels inward-bound; when off West Wharf Buoy, R. 3 red, and suddenly appear when outward-bound.

No. 322. February 28, 1838.

Bedston Light.—This Light will also be masked, so as to give a defined Light in the Rock Channel, within certain limits, and to vessels inward-bound will suddenly disappear on the bearing off S. S. W. when abreast of East Wharf Buoy, R. 4 red, and suddenly appear when outward-bound.

These lines of masking and unmasking intersect that spot in the Crosby Channel, where the course alters, so that in running up from the Formby Floating Light, the mariner must haul up from the S. S. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. to S. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. on losing Bedston and Leasowe Lights; and on running down keep away from N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. to N. N. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. on their opening out. All bearings by compass.

By Order of the Committee.

(Signed) JOHN DENHAM,
Captain, R. N. Marine Surveyor.

This land was located to George Clarke, on an order of Governor Macquarie's, dated 31st March, 1821. Clarke, it is alleged, conveyed to Gregory Blaxland, who sold to John Edge Manning, who sold to claimant.
