ANNO QUARTO.

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. 9.

By His Excellency Sir George Gipps, Knight, Captain-General, and Governor-in-Chief, of the Territory of New South Wales, and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, with the advice of the Legislative Council.

An Act further to amend an Act, intituled, "An Act to provide for the Conveyance and Postage of Letters."

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend an Act of the Governor and Legislative Council of New South Wales, passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, King William the Fourth, intituled, "An Act to provide for the Conveyance and Postage of Letters;" and to make provision for the Conveyance of Mails, Letters, and Newspapers, by Steam Boats and other Vessels trading between Post Towns and other places situated on the Sea Coast, or on the Banks of Navigable Rivers in the said Colony, appointed for the receipt and despatch of Mails; and whereas Masters, or Commanders, or other persons having charge of Steam Boats, or other Vessels trading between the Ports or Harbours of the said Colony, and between Ports, Post Towns, and other places situated as aforesaid, appointed for the receipt and despatch of Mails, and having Post Office Mails on board, have, in some instances, neglected to deliver such Mails at the time of the arrival or passing of their vessels at or by such Ports, Post Towns, or other places situated as aforesaid, and it is expedient to provide against a recurrence of the same: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales, with the consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that all mails, bags, boxes, or packets of letters or newspapers, which are conveyed, or required by law to be conveyed, by post, and which, at the time of the arrival of any Steam Boat, or other Vessel, within the limits of any such Port, Post Town, or other place situated as aforesaid, shall be on board such Steam Boat, or other Vessel, shall be delivered, on demand, to any Port Officer or Postmaster of such Port, Post Town, or other place situated as aforesaid, or to any person duly authorised to act for them, or either of them; and any Master, Commander, or other person belonging to any such Steam Boat, or other Vessel having charge of such Mails, who shall refuse or neglect to deliver the same on demand as aforesaid, or shall detain or permit the detention of the same on board such Steam Boat or other Vessel, or shall not use due diligence in the delivery thereof, as well as for the secure and safe and dry custody of the same while they shall be in his charge, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a penalty or sum of not less than Ten Pounds nor more than Fifty Pounds.

II. And whereas Masters or Commanders of Steam Boats, or other Vessels trading as aforesaid, have sometimes prevented Postmasters and others from placing Mails on board such Steam Boats or other Vessels for transmission from one Port, Post Town, or other place situated as aforesaid, to any other such Port, Post Town, or other place: Be it enacted, That if any Master, Commander, or other person having the charge of any Steam Boat or other Vessel, shall refuse or neglect to receive any such Post Office Mail on board such Steam Boat, or other Vessel, or to give a receipt for the same, being thereto required, he shall forfeit and pay a penalty or sum of not less than Ten Pounds, nor more than Fifty Pounds.

(Steam Boats and other Vessels to give notice of their approach to any Post Office or other place appointed for the receipt and despatch of Letters.)

III. And whereas, in order to ensure the due receipt and despatch of such Mails, as well as to guard against unnecessary delay to such Steam Boats or other Vessels, it is expedient that Post-masters and others should have notice of the near approach of such Steam Boats or other Vessels to the Ports, Post Towns, or other places situated as aforesaid, at which such Post Masters or other persons may respectively be stationed: Be it therefore enacted, that the Master, Commander, or other person having the charge of any such Steam Boat or other Vessel shall give timely notice of the near approach thereof to any such Port, Post Town, or other place situated as aforesaid, either by the ringing of a bell, or by such other concerted signal as may reasonably be expected to be distinctly heard or seen by such Postmaster or other person a sufficient time before the actual arrival of such Steam Boat or other Vessel to enable him to be prepared to receive or despatch any Mail on board such Steam Boat or other Vessel; and if any such Master, Commander, or other person as aforesaid, shall refuse, fail, or neglect to give such notice, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a penalty or sum of not less than Ten Pounds nor more than Fifty Pounds.

(Allowance to Masters of vessels for conveyance of Mails)

IV. And be it enacted, That for the Conveyance of any Mails from one Port, Post Town, or other place, to any other such Port, Post Town, or other place, the Master, or Commander, or any other person having the charge of any such Steam Boat or other Vessel, shall be entitled to demand and receive at the rate of one penny for every Letter chargeable with Postage contained in such Mail; and such payments shall be made at such place, and time, and under such regulations, as the Post-Master General shall appoint: And every such Master, Commander, or other person as aforesaid, shall give a receipt for the amount so received by him, which receipt shall be to the Post-Master General, or to any Post-Master or other person as aforesaid, making such payment, a full and valid discharge for the same, and the said Post-Master General, and every such Post-Master and other person in passing his Accounts, shall receive credit for every such sum or sums which shall be therein mentioned, accordingly.

(Penalty for delaying such Mails.)

V. And be it enacted, That if any Port Officer, Post-Master or other person duly authorised to receive or despatch any such Mails as aforesaid, shall neglect, or fail to deliver, or shall retard the delivery of any Bag, Box, Mail, Letter, Packet, or Newspaper, at the place, or Post Office to which the same may be addressed, he shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a penalty or sum of not less than Ten Pounds, nor more than Fifty Pounds.

(Penalty for Offences by Persons in the Post Office.)

VI. And be it enacted, That any Post-Master or other person employed by or under a Post-Master, in the receiving, sorting, carrying, conveying, or delivering of Post Letters, or otherwise in the business of the Post Office, who shall offend against, or wilfully neglect, or fail to comply with any of the provisions of this Act, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a penalty or sum of not less than Ten Pounds, nor more than Fifty Pounds.

(Recovery and appropriation of Penalties)

VII. And be it enacted, That all Penalties imposed by, or under the provisions of this Act shall be recovered and applied respectively, in the manner directed for the recovery and appropriation of penalties by the said recited Act.

GEORGE GIPPS,

Governor.

Passed the Legislative Council, this twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty.
