TO AUCTIONEERS.

NOTICE is hereby given that a strict compliance with the provisions of the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Sections of the Act of Council 9, Geo. 4th, No. 13, intituled "An Act to regulate the Licensing of Auctioneers and the Collection of Duties on Property sold by Auction," will henceforth be enforced.

For the information of those Auctioneers who appear to be unacquainted with this Act, the Sections particularly referred to above are subjoined:—

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Rate and Duty, by this Act imposed, shall be, and is hereby declared to be, a charge upon every Auctioneer or Seller by Commission, immediately from and after the knocking down of the hammer, or other closing the bidding, at every Sale by way of Auction, and that the Rates and Duties so charged shall be paid by every such Auctioneer, or Seller by Commission, in manner and at the times hereinafter mentioned.

VII. And be it further enacted, That each and every person, so acting as Auctioneer as aforesaid, shall, and he is hereby required, within Fourteen Days after the expiration of every Calendar month, to deliver or cause to be delivered, to the Collector of Internal Revenue for the time being, or at his Office, or to such other Person as shall, from time to time, be authorized to receive the same, an exact and particular account in writing, of the total amount of money that shall have been bidden at each and every Sale, and of the several articles, lots or parcels, with the price at which every such article, lot or parcel shall have been sold, at each and every Sale, which shall have been had and holden by such Auctioneer, during the said month, together with the time or times when, and the place or places where, such sale or sales, shall have been had and holden; and every such Auctioneer shall, at the same time, make payment to the said Collector of Internal Revenue of all such sum and sums of money as shall be due and payable to His Majesty, in pursuance of, and according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, which sum or sums of money such Auctioneer is hereby authorised and empowered to retain out of the produce arising by such Sale or deposit made at such sale, or otherwise, to recover the same by action at law, against the person or persons by whom such Auctioneer shall have been employed, or on whose account such goods shall have been so sold. And every person so acting as Auctioneer, at such Sale or Sales, if any, shall make oath to the truth of each and every such account, before the said Collector of Internal Revenue, or such Person as shall be so appointed as aforesaid, or before any Justice of the Peace, who are hereby respectively authorised to administer the same. And in case any such Auctioneer shall neglect to deliver in his account, at the time, and in manner aforesaid, or to make payment of the Rates and Duties as herein directed; or if it shall appear that the account delivered in, by such Auctioneer, is not a true and just account, or that the said Auctioneer hath acted contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Collector of Internal Revenue, or other person so to be appointed as aforesaid, to cause the Bond or Bonds of such Auctioneer and his Sureties, to be put in suit and in case of a Judgment being thereupon had against the Defendant, such License shall thenceforth become void to all intents and purposes; and such Auctioneer shall be, and he is hereby declared to be for ever after disqualified for holding any License as an Auctioneer, unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court, or Judge before whom the trial of such bond shall have been had, that no fraud or wilful delay, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, was intended by such Auctioneer, and a certificate to such effect shall be granted by such Court or Judge respectively.

VIII. And whereas it may sometimes happen, that Sales at Auction of Estates of Goods may be rendered null and void, by reason that the person or persons, for whose benefit the same shall be sold, had no title to, or no right to dispose of the same: Be it therefore enacted, That if any Sale by Auction of any Estate, Goods, or Effects, shall be rendered void, by reason that the person for whose benefit the same was sold, had no title to the same, or no right to dispose thereof, then, and in every such case, it shall and may be lawful for the Auctioneer who paid the duty for Estates, Goods or Effects so sold, or for the person or persons for whose benefit the same was so sold, to apply to the said Collector of Internal Revenue, or to the person who shall be appointed as aforesaid, for a return of the duty so paid; and the said Collector or the person so appointed as aforesaid, shall, and is hereby required to hear and investigate all such applications, and examine the witnesses upon oath, who shall be produced on the part of the party or parties making such application, which oath the said Collector of Internal Revenue, or other person appointed as aforesaid, is hereby empowered to administer, and thereupon to report the case to the said Governor or Acting Governor, who upon being satisfied as to the justice of the application, may order the amount of duty, which shall have been so paid as aforesaid, to be refunded and paid to such Auctioneer, or such other person, on whose behalf the same shall have been originally paid to such Collector of Internal Revenue, or other person appointed as aforesaid, anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.
