HARVEST.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR directs the publication, for general information, of the following copy of a Circular Letter, which has been addressed to the several Benches of Magistrates, intimating that it will be out of the power of the Government to afford any assistance in the shape of Convict Labour, in getting in the approaching Harvest.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

(CIRCULAR.)
Colonial Secretary's Office, Sydney, 13th September, 1841.

GENTLEMEN,—I am directed by His Excellency the GOVERNOR, to request that you will make known in your District, that it will not be in the power of the Government to afford any assistance, in the shape of Convict Labour, in getting in the approaching Harvest, and that you will point out to all persons in want of labour, the propriety of availing themselves of the means of procuring it by the arrival of numerous bodies of Emigrants in the Colony.

I have the honor to be,
 Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

TAHITI.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR has directed that the following Port Regulations for the Island of Tahiti, be published for general information.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

PORT REGULATIONS.

To Masters or Commanders of Vessels entering the Ports of Tahiti and Moorea.

1. A Pilot will go off to every Vessel duly displaying her Ensign or National Colours, and making the usual signal for a Pilot as soon as she approaches within a reasonable distance of the Ports to conduct her in; and on her departure, one day's notice being usually given, the Pilot will also take her to sea.

2. Any Vessel calling at the Port, the Captain must pay twenty-five dollars; ten for the Pilot, and fifteen for the Queen, for the anchorage, before she can be allowed to receive any water or other refreshment from the shore. In case of afterwards anchoring in any other parts of Tahiti or Moorea, every Vessel is to pay four dollars at each Port; and if the said Vessel come to anchor again in the first Port prior to leaving these Islands, she is to pay four dollars.

3. Should any Captain wish to ship Natives, two dollars must be paid for each man.

4. No Master or Commander of a Vessel is to discharge any Seaman, or any other person belonging to his Vessel, or to allow such person or persons in any way to leave the Vessel, without special permission from the Government, under a penalty of thirty dollars, twenty of which shall go to the Queen, six to the Governor of the Port where the Ship anchors, and four to the person who conducts the individual to his Ship, or makes known the circumstance to the proper authorities.

5. No Master or Commander of a Vessel is allowed to land any Passenger without special permission from the Queen and Governor.

6. Any person deserting from a Vessel shall be immediately apprehended, without waiting for orders to that effect from the Master or Commander of the Vessel from which he has deserted, for which the person apprehending him shall receive eight dollars, if apprehended within eight miles from the Vessel, and five dollars if apprehended at a greater distance. No Master or Commander is allowed to refuse taking back the deserter thus returned, under a penalty of thirty dollars. He can have him kept in prison till the Vessel be ready for sea, by paying one dollar per week for his board. Should the same person desert again from the Ship, the same sum will be demanded for taking him as in the first instance.

7. Any deserter found after his Vessel has sailed, shall be put in prison, and kept to hard labour for six months.

8. Any person who entices another to desert, or secretes him when he has deserted, or who in any way assists deserters, shall cut four whale boat loads of fire-wood and carry it to the place appointed.

9. No Ship's company, or any part of a Ship's company, to be on shore in the night. Any person belonging to a Vessel found on shore after 9 o'clock without a written pass, will be taken up and confined till morning, when he will be allowed to go on board his Vessel, by the Master or Commander of such Vessel paying two dollars, one for the Government, and one for the person who takes the Seaman into confinement.

10. Any person going about at night and taken by the watchman, must pay two dollars—that is, the person going about after the report of the second gun. Any person belonging to a Vessel, or being convicted selling, or in any way bartering with spirituous liquors of any kind, either on board or on shore, shall have no further trade or communication with the shore, but shall leave the Port immediately.

11. Any Native belonging to the shore, found working on board any Vessel or Boat on Sabbath days, to make fifty fathoms of public road.

12. In case of heaving a Vessel down, the Master or Commander shall pay to the Government sixty dollars, thirty for heaving down, fifteen for the hawse, and fifteen for the land on which he puts the casks.

13. Should the Master or Commander of any Vessel refuse to pay the Pilot his lawful fees, after the aforesaid service has been duly performed, or in any way maltreat the said Pilot, or refuse to comply with any of the above Port Regulations, a full statement of the facts, with a copy of these Regulations, will be transmitted to the proper authorities in the country to which the Vessel belongs.

QUEEN POMARE.
