*By His Excellency's Command,

THE following Address was presented to His Excellency the GOVERNOR, at Melbourne, on Monday, the 25th October, 1841 :—

We, the Inhabitants of Port Phillip, beg leave to address your Excellency with the assurance of our unfeigned loyalty towards our Sovereign, and of our sincere respect for your Excellency, Her Majesty's representative in New South Wales.

We hail, with the highest satisfaction, your Excellency's visit to this District, and we trust your Excellency's stay will be sufficiently prolonged to offer an opportunity for that full examination into the resources, improvements, and wants, alike of the town and province, which they would seem to deserve.

To this examination we respectfully solicit your Excellency's earnest attention; and should it result in your Excellency's conviction that we possess the true elements of prosperity, and that we are practically working them out, then we trust that your Excellency will afford us the aid which is essential to their more full and rapid development.

We sincerely hope that your Excellency's visit will have the happy effect of firmly establishing that respect and confidence which it is so desirable should exist in our mutual relations; and it is our ardent desire that your Excellency may bear with you, on your return to the seat of Government, no ungrateful recollections of Australia Felix.

The following is his Excellency's reply :—

GENTLEMEN—I am happy at length to find myself in the District of Port Phillip; I feel greatly obliged to you for the very kind and cordial reception which you have given me, and I thank you particularly for this Address.

My stay, gentlemen, amongst you must necessarily be shorter than I could desire it to be; but it will be, I trust, sufficiently prolonged to enable me to form an opinion of the resources of your province, and of the improvements of which it is susceptible, as also of its immediate wants.

To become better acquainted with these latter is one of the chief objects of my visit; to satisfy them, as far as the means at my disposal will permit, I trust I need not say is my very anxious desire.

Favoured as you are with a District of exceeding beauty and fertility, I cannot doubt that the onward course of your prosperity will be as steady as the first development of it has been striking; and I shall, indeed, gentlemen, bear away with me a grateful recollection of Australia Felix, if I may permit myself to hope that my visit has in any way tended to advance your interests, or to confirm and strengthen those feelings of unanimity and mutual confidence, which are no less necessary for the happiness of individuals, than for the prosperity of states.

GEORGE GIPPS.

Melbourne, 25th October, 1841.

THE following Address was presented to His Excellency the GOVERNOR, at Geelong, on Wednesday, 27th October, 1841:—

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY—We, the undersigned Inhabitants, residing in the District of Geelong, respectfully crave permission to present to your Excellency our sincere congratulations on this your first visit to Australia Felix, and cordially unite in expressing our respect to your Excellency's person and government, as well as loyalty and devotion to our beloved Queen.

The long expected visit of your Excellency to this remote portion of the Colony, revives the hope that our wants of every kind, when brought respectfully before your Excellency, will meet with that consideration which our numbers and respectability, as well as the wealth and importance of the District, require.

We further beg to express our earnest and heartfelt wishes for your Excellency's personal and domestic happiness and prosperity, and our fervent prayers to the Author of all Good, that you, Sir, and Lady Gipps, may be blessed and cheered through the anxious cares of your high and exalted station.

In conclusion, we earnestly hope that your

Excellency's administration may be distinguished by such wise and equitable legislation as shall secure equal rights and immunities to all Her Majesty's loyal subjects.

To this Address His Excellency returned a verbal answer, thanking the Inhabitants of the District for the kind welcome which they had given him to their District, and promising to attend to the wants of it. His Excellency also expressed his regret that the time did not allow of his returning a written answer to their Address.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following CLAIMS for DEEDS of GRANT of LAND and TOWN ALLOTMENTS, will be ready for the examination of the Commissioners appointed for the purpose, under the Act of Council, 5th William IV., No. 21, at the expiration of two months from this date, before which day any Caveat or Counter Claim must be entered at this Office. This land was located on an order of Governor —dated— in favor of Owen Meehan, who, it is alleged, sold to claimant, but by some inadvertence a deed of grant was made out in pursuance of the advertisement of 14th September, 1831, in favor of Meehan. As, however, it has never been delivered, it is to be cancelled and a fresh deed prepared for claimant, on his proving of his title.

Case No. 1069.—Henry Ellison, of Parramatta, and Richard Hunt, of Prospect, by their attorney, J. Armitstead, Esq.

This allotment was leased by Sir Thomas Brisbane, for 21 years, from 30th of June, 1823, to John Ellison, now deceased, who, it is alleged, devised to claimants, in trust, for the benefit of his children. A deed of grant is prayed for on proposing to pay a fine of 21 years quit-rent, as provided for by a clause in the lease.

Case No. 1070.—Henry Ellison, of Parramatta, and Richard Hunt, of Prospect, settler, by their attorney, John Armitstead, Esq.

This allotment was leased by Sir Thomas Brisbane, for 21 years, from 30th June, 1823, to John Ellison, now deceased, who, it is alleged, devised to claimants, in trust, for the benefit of his children. A deed of grant is prayed for on proposing to pay a fine of 21 years quit-rent, as provided for by a clause in the lease.

Case No. 1071.—Henry Ellison, of Parramatta, and Richard Hunt, of Prospect, by their attorney, John Armitstead, Esq.

Twenty-nine and a-half perches, county of Cumberland, parish of St. John, Town of Parramatta, allotment No. 18, on the east side of Charles-street, in section No. 23; and bounded on the north by a line 1 chain; on the east by a line 1 chain 77 links; on the south by a line to Charles-street 1 chain 5 links; and on the west by that street 1 chain 76 links, reserving a convenient passage of sufficient width to admit a horse and cart, to such of the adjoining allotments as may be deemed necessary by the proper officers.

This allotment was leased by Sir Thomas Brisbane, for 21 years, from 30th June, 1823, to John Ellison, now deceased, who, it is alleged, devised to claimants, in trust, for the benefit of his children. A deed of grant is prayed for on proposing to pay a fine equal to 21 years of the quit-rent, as provided for by a clause in the lease.

Case No. 1072.—Dr. James Mitchell, of Sydney.

Nine hundred and fourteen acres, county of Northumberland, parish unnamed, at Lake Macquarie; commencing at the eastern extreme of the south boundary line of James St. John Ranclaud's 2560 acres grant; and bounded on the north by 58 chains of that boundary line bearing west; on the west by a south line of 118 chains to a small creek; on the south by that creek downwards to the waters of Lake Macquarie; and on the east by the waters of Lake Macquarie, northerly, to the eastern extreme of the south boundary line of Ranclaud's grant aforesaid.

This allotment was authorised by Governor Darling to Madame Rens, by an order dated 1st February, 1830, being in lieu of land given up by her in George-street, and a deed of grant thereof was promised to Captain Ranclaud, now deceased, from whom, it is alleged, it passed to claimant.

Case No. 1073.—Sarah Burnside, of —, and Mary Ann Myers, wife of Emanuel Myers, of Castlereagh-street, Sydney, by their solicitor, D. Poole, Esquire.

This land was located on an order of Sir Thomas Brisbane, dated 28th October, 1823, in favour of Ambrose Burnside, who, it is alleged, is deceased, leaving the claimants, his daughters, his heirs at law. The description was inserted in the Gazette notice of 30th November, 1839, No. 760, page 1356, in the name of the promisee.

Case No. 1074.—Richard Dawson, of George-street, Sydney, Ironfounder.

Two and a half perches, county of Cumberland, parish of St. Philip, town of Sydney, allotment No. 7, of section No. 68; bounded on the north by allotment No. 8, bearing west 18 degrees 15 minutes, north 52½ links; on the west by allotment No. 1, bearing south 16 degrees, west 32¼ links; on the south by allotment No. 2, bearing east 18 degrees 15 minutes, south 52½ links; and on the east by allotment No. 6, bearing north 15 degrees 30 minutes, east 32¼ links.

The above description was inserted in the Gazette notice of 15th December, 1834, page 887, preparatory to the making out of a deed of grant in favour of Messrs. Castle and Dawson, who were reported as the proprietors. Castle, it is alleged, has sold to Dawson, and left the Colony. There is registration of a deed of grant of this and the conterminous land, to Henry Kable, made during the Rebel Government, but all such deeds were declared null; and as the one in question, if ever prepared, is not forthcoming, the Government will issue fresh deeds.
