*Colonial Secretary's Office,

COUNCIL.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR is pleased to direct that the general objects of the following Bill, now under consideration of the Legislative Council, be published for general information.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

No. 1.—"A Bill to appropriate, for a limited time, from the General Revenue of New South Wales, certain sums in aid of the Sydney Police."

It is proposed by this Bill, that the Fees taken at all Police Offices, except the Water Police Office, shall be applied towards the maintenance of the Police Force, to be appointed for the Town of Sydney, under the Act incorporating the Inhabitants thereof.

That any sum, not exceeding Five thousand pounds in any one year, may be issued and applied from the General Revenue of the Colony, exclusive of the said Fees, towards the maintenance of such Police Force, on condition that an equal amount shall be levied by rates on the Inhabitants of the said Town; and that any sum not exceeding half the amount authorised to be so applied out of the said General Revenue in any year, may be issued and applied as aforesaid, notwithstanding that an equal amount shall not have been previously levied by rates on the said Inhabitants.

That the Colonial Treasurer shall pay and receive credit for such portions of the said sums, as he shall be authorised to pay by the Governor's Warrant.

That the management of the said Police Force shall remain in the hands of the Executive Government.

That the appropriation aforesaid, from the Police Office Fees and General Revenue, shall be continued for five years, unless, in the meantime, any Legislature, based wholly or in part, on popular representation, be granted to the Colony, in which case it shall cease at the expiration of twelve months from the date on which the Act of Parliament constituting such new Legislature shall come into force.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
