This is a portion of the land originally occupied by Patrick Reilly, of which he was to have received a lease, but the location was converted into a grant No. 60. JULY 29, 1842.—3 by Governor Darling, on the 19th May, 1830, a part having been resumed by the Government, compensation has been awarded adjacent. Reilly is now deceased, and the claimants are executors under his will, by which the land is variously devised.

Case No. 1134.—George Furber and Thomas Dee, both of Maitland.

Five acres and nine perches, County of Northumberland, parish of Maitland; commencing at the southern extreme of the west boundary of Mitchell's (now Muir's) land, and bounded on the north by 4 chains and 80 links of the south boundary of that land, bearing east; on the east by a north line of 8 chains and 10 links, to the street leading to the Green Hills; on the south-east by 6 chains and 90 links of that street, bearing south, 45 degrees west; and on the west by 13 chains, to the east boundary of Patrick Reilly's 64½ acres grant, bearing north, to the southern extreme of the west boundary line of Mitchell's Land.

This land was located to the late Patrick Reilly, on an order of Governor Darling, dated 10th April, 1835, as compensation for a like area, taken from his original occupancy, by the Crown; he is now deceased, and claimants are the executors under his Will, by which the land is devised.
