In the Insolvent Estate of THOMAS HARPER.

By Order of the Trustee.

HARPER'S WHARF, SUSSEX-STREET.

MR. SAMUEL LYONS is instructed to sell by Auction, at his Mart, George-street and Charlotte-place, on Monday, 5th September, at 11 o'clock precisely.

The lease having 19 years unexpired, of those spacious Premises and Wharf, in Darling Harbour, known as Harper's Wharf, commencing from 1st January, 1842, at a yearly rent of £500; payable by quarterly instalments.

The Premises consist of a Dwelling House, containing 19 rooms, viz:—on ground floor, 2 kitchens, bakehouse, and store-room, 30 feet by 18 feet; on first floor, 2 front parlours, 1 back parlour, 1 dining-room 30 feet by 18 feet, small store room, and pantry; second floor, 11 excellent bed rooms; in yard a never failing well of excellent water, a poultry house, two stall stable, and coach house; for the above house and premises £300 a year of rent has been offered.

A store, a strong stone building, 3 floors 30 feet by 18 feet broad each; £100 a year rent has been given for this building.

A blacksmith shop with an allotment of ground 40 feet by 18 feet, being an excellent situation for an Engineer or shipping smith, for which £78 a year rent has been given.

Also,

A Cottage of 2 rooms, and four stall stable, with loft above; the cottage situated on the side of the gateway, in Druiit-street, is reserved for the use of Mrs. Batten, during her natural life, and is specified in the covenant of the lease; of the above immediate possession can be given.

A Chapel let to the Wesleyans for 5 years, from the 1st January, 1842, expires on 1st January, 1847.

A plan of the property lies for inspection at the Auction Mart, from which it may be seen that 28 allotments can be advantageously laid in building leases, three of which are wharfs in Darling Harbour. But it is particularly worthy of notice that the whole will be sold in one lot.

It would not be doing justice to this truly valuable waterside property, were the Auctioneer to omit soliciting attention to the numerous advantages which must accrue to the purchasers, he therefore invites the attendance at the sale, who by competing for the same, will consult their own interest.

It is not generally known, that land in Druiit-street was let about 8 years ago, in building leases for fifteen years at £4 per rod, per annum, consequently, the purchaser of this property is insured a return well worthy of attention.

Mr. L. would further add, that the immense value of wharfage property being so well known, it would be superfluous in his making any further comment, except, merely stating that this lease comprises no fewer than 3 wharfs, which will return a very large yearly income to the purchaser who will also have the power to extend these wharfs to deep water.
