MR. BLACKMAN begs to call the attention of the public to the sale of landed property in the above Estate, which has been fixed to take place on Thursday, 8th December, at 12 o'clock, at his Rooms, George-street, Sydney, by order of the Trustee.

Lot 1st. Are the premises known as the "Governor Gipps Arms," recently erected at a cost of upwards of £5000, with every consideration for luxury, or use, and with special reference to the neighbourhood of the Homebush Race Course, to which they are very conveniently attached.

These valuable premises, which from their contiguity to the City, must be familiar to almost every one, are in some respects superior, would in all others bear a comparison with any establishment of the kind in the Colony. They are situated on about 10 acres of land, and would together form a most favourable opportunity for the investment of capital.

Lot 2nd. Contains 3 acres, 1 rood, and 20 perches, at Five Dock Farm.

Lot 3rd. Consists of 113 feet frontage to the High-street, Maitland, on which is erected a Cottage in the occupation of Bourne Russell, and let for the weekly rental of twenty-five shillings.
