At each Sitting of the Court, a numerical list of the Cases shall be prepared by the Registrar of each Court respectively—such list to be kept according to the time and order in which the Summonses are taken out—and each Suitor shall be informed, (by a written memorandum if it be required) by the Registrar or Clerk in the Office, at the time of taking out the Summons, of the number of his Case, and such number shall also endorsed upon the Summons served upon the Defendant—and the Plaintiff shall be required to attend and prosecute his Suit, at the time and in the order in which his Case is called on for hearing, otherwise “nonsuit” shall be entered in the record book, and the Defendant shall not be bound to attend at any other time of the same Sitting of the Court; but the Plaintiff, if he seek to recover the sum claimed, must sue afresh, unless the Defendant consent to its being heard at such Sitting: Provided, that, by the mutual consent of the parties in all Cases, or of their Attorneys, in Cases above Ten pounds, any Cases of Debt or demand may be postponed to any future Session of the Court.

(Defendant making Default.)

attend at the hearing thereof, then the Commissioner shall, at his discretion, either postpone the hearing to another day then to be appointed by him, or else shall take the examination of such witnesses as appear, and suspend the further hearing of the Case to another day, which postponement or suspension, and the day appointed for the hearing, shall be forthwith noted by the Registrar or Clerk.

(Mode of suing Partners.)

XIV. If two or more Persons jointly sued are partners in trade, service of a Summons on either of them shall be sufficient.

(Amendments may be made, if Parties not prejudiced.)

XVI.
