PROPERTY AND INCOME TAX.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR is pleased to direct the publication of the following Circular Despatch, dated 19th December, 1842, from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, on the subject of the liability of persons residing in the Colonies to pay the Property Tax, in respect of that portion of their incomes which may be derived from English funds.

By His Excellency's Command, E. DEAS THOMSON.

(CIRCULAR.)

Downing-street, 19th December, 1842.

SIR,

I have the honor to acquaint you, that the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury have drawn my attention to the liability of persons residing in the Colonies to pay the Property Tax, in respect of that portion of their incomes which may be derived from the funds of this Country, and at their Lordships' request, I have to convey to you the following instructions, on the subject for your own guidance.

All salaries and personal allowances and emoluments, and all pensions and superannuations, retired or compassionate allowances, paid from funds derived from the Revenues of Great Britain, whether provided by Special Parliamentary Grant or otherwise, are liable to this Tax, from the 5th of April last, at the rate of Seven pence in the Pound, except in cases in which the party can shew that his whole annual income does not amount to £150. It will, therefore, be your duty on all occasions to make the proper deductions accordingly, (retrospectively from the 5th of April last, when the deductions may not have already been made,) from the amount of the Bills which you may have occasion in future to draw on the Treasury, whether on your own account, or for the salaries or allowances of other parties; and I have to request you to convey an intimation to the same effect to any Officers or Functionaries, within your Government, who may be authorised to draw Bills on the Treasury for any such payments.

In cases where exemption may be claimed from the Tax, an affidavit must be taken by the party, and transmitted with the Bill, to the effect that his income, including that on account of which the Bill is drawn, is less than £150 per annum, and such affidavit must have reference to the whole income of the party from whatever source derived, for, although emoluments derived from Colonial Revenues or property are not taxable, unless the recipients reside in Great Britain, they must be taken into account in considering a claim to exemption from the Tax on income derived from this Country.

When Bills are drawn on account of expenses or disbursements to other parties, a statement of the proportion of the amount applicable to salaries and allowances must accompany them, and the proper deductions be made therefrom, unless the parties shall claim exemption, when their affidavits ought to accompany the Bills.

You will distinctly understand, and cause it to be made generally known within your Government, that on the presentation at the Treasury of any Bill, drawn for salary or other allowance, becoming due on or after the 31st March, 1843, upon which the Income Tax has not been deducted, or claimed for remission, in conformity with the foregoing directions, such deductions will be made, including any arrear of the Tax, from the 5th April last, not previously retained or allowed for, and the parties by whom, or in whose favor, the Bill may have been drawn, will be alone responsible for any loss or inconvenience arising from the non-payment of the full amount drawn or.

when deductions are to be made, and of the affidavit to enable parties to claim exemption from the Tax.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) STANLEY.

Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c., &c.

To the Deputy Sheriff of New South Wales, for the District of Port Phillip, or his lawful Deputy. Greeting—

WHEREAS, upon the Petition to the Honorable William Jeffcott, resident Judge of our Supreme Court of New South Wales, for the District of Port Phillip, of John Cunningham M'Laren, Inspector for the time being, of the Union Bank of Australia, acting for and on behalf of said Bank, against Henry Ward Mason, of Great Collins-street, Melbourne, shopkeeper, it appears to us that the said Henry Ward Mason is justly and truly indebted to the said Bank in the sum of one hundred and two pounds, eight shillings, and two pence, upon and by virtue of a certain Bill of Exchange, drawn by the said Henry Ward Mason, upon, and accepted by Hugh Jamieson, Esq., of Melbourne, aforesaid, dated twenty-third July, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, payable four months after date, to the order of the said Henry Ward Mason, and duly endorsed by him, and that the said Henry Ward Mason, did, on or about the ninth day of December last, depart from his dwelling-house in Melbourne aforesaid, with intent to defeat and delay the said John Cunningham M'Laren, as such inspector as aforesaid, and others, the Creditors of him, the said Henry Ward Mason, in obtaining payment of their just debts to them due and owing, and did thereby commit an act of Insolvency, whereupon the said John Cunningham M'Laren, as such inspector as aforesaid, acting for and on behalf of said Bank, prayed that the Estate of the said Henry Ward Mason, might be Sequestrated, for the benefit of his Creditors: And whereas it further appears to us, in our said Court, that the Honorable William Jeffcott as resident Judge of our said Court, for the District aforesaid, did, by order under his hand, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July instant, place the Estate of the said Henry Ward Mason, under Sequestration in the hands of the Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates, at Melbourne aforesaid, until the same should be thereafter adjudged to be Sequestrated, or the said Petition should be discharged according to law: Now, therefore, we command you, that you summon the said Henry Ward Mason, that he be before our resident Judge of our Supreme Court, at Melbourne aforesaid, on the eighth day of September next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to shew cause, if he have any, why his Estate should not, by sentence of the said resident Judge of the said Court, be adjudged to be Sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors, and return you, then and there, this Writ, with whatever you have done thereupon.

Witness.—The Honorable William Jeffcott, our resident Judge of our said Court, at Melbourne, this twenty-eighth day of July, in the seventh year of our reign, A. D. 1843.
