GOVERNMENT GAZETTE,

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1843.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GIPPS, Knight, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS, by an Act of the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice of the Legislative Council, passed in the fourth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to provide for the making and repairing of Parish Roads in the Colony of New South Wales," after providing for the election of Trustees for any Parish Road, or intended Parish Road, and for the making and repairing of such Roads and the Bridges thereon, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that, when and so often as the Trustees of any Parish Road shall certify that such Road is in a state to permit and allow the safe and uninterrupted passage of the Public with their carriages and other vehicles, and horses and other cattle and stock," it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of the said Colony, for the time being, by a Proclamation to be published in the New South Wales Government Gazette, to appoint and direct Tolls to be demanded, levied, and taken upon such Roads; and that in such Proclamation shall be notified the rates of such Tolls which are to be collected and levied in the manner set forth and described in and by an Act of the Governor and Legislative Council, passed in the second year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repealing so much of an Act, intituled 'An Act to continue, until further provision shall be made, certain Duties, Tolls, Rates, Fees, and other sums of money, imposed by the Governors of New South Wales, and for other purposes,' as relates to the levying Tolls in New South Wales, and for raising a fund towards making, repairing, and upholding public Roads, Bridges, and Ferries, and for regulating the collection of the Tolls thereon;" and that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of the said Colony, for the time being, by any writing under his hand, to assign and direct the Tolls so to be collected or levied upon such

Parish Road, to be paid to the Trustees thereof, to be by them laid out, employed, and expended, in the making, fencing, and repairing, and keeping in repair such road, and the Bridges thereon, and in keeping in proper repair the Toll Houses and Bars, and in the payment of the Collector or Collectors of such Tolls, and of other necessary expenses: Provided, however, that no Turnpike shall or may be erected or established on such Parish Road, or any Toll collected or levied thereon, until it shall be made to appear, to the satisfaction of the said Governor and Executive Council, that a sum of money, not less than fifty pounds sterling for each and every mile of the whole length of such road, if not exceeding seven miles, or if exceeding seven miles, that at least three hundred and fifty pounds shall have been expended on such road, or that a sum of money, equal at least to that amount, shall have been raised and deposited in the hands of some one or more of the Trustees of such Road, or their Treasurer, ready to be expended in the making and repairing of the same: And whereas Trustees have been appointed for a Road, known as the Parish Road, leading from Sydney to the Dam at Cook's River, in conformity with the provisions of the Act aforesaid; and the Trustees so appointed have, in accordance with the twenty-first section of such Act, certified that the said Parish Road is "in a state to permit and allow the safe and uninterrupted passage of the public, with their carriages and other vehicles, and horses and other cattle and stock," and that the length of the said Road, commencing at the boundary of the City of Sydney, on the Parramatta Road, and terminating at the Dam at Cook's River, does not exceed six miles; and it has further been made to appear, to the satisfaction of the Governor and Executive Council, that a sum of not less than fifty pounds sterling for each and every mile of the whole length of such Road has been expended thereon;—Now, therefore, I, Sir George Gipps, the Governor aforesaid, in pursuance of the authority vested in me by the said recited Law or Ordinance, do, by this my Proclamation, appoint and direct Tolls to be demanded, levied, and taken, upon the aforesaid Parish Road, leading from Sydney to the Dam at Cook's River, in the manner prescribed by the before recited Acts, and at the rates specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and further, that the Tolls so to be collected or levied upon such Parish Road, shall be paid to the Trustees thereof, to be by them laid out, employed, and expended for the purposes stated in the aforesaid Law or Ordinance, passed in the fourth year of Her Majesty's Reign, of which, all parties concerned are hereby required to take due notice.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Sydney, this sixth day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-three.

(L.s.) GEORGE GIPPS.
By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.
