LOOSE LETTERS BY SHIPS.

WHEREAS, their being reasonable grounds for believing that a great number of Letters which should properly be passed through the Post office are transmitted by vessels independent of the post, the following notice is republished here for general information.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 21st September, 1840.

POST OFFICE.

The Postmaster-General having brought under notice the practice which is understood to prevail of bags or mails of letters being made up by merchants and others for despatch, by vessels sailing for Great Britain or elsewhere, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that under the provisions of the Act of the Governor and Council, 5th William IV. No 21, section 22, any person sending letters or packets chargeable with postage, otherwise than by post, is liable to a penalty of not less than £5, nor more than £20, for every such letter or packet so sent, and that orders have been given for strictly enforcing the penalty in future. His Excellency at the same time directs it to be notified, that masters of vessels tender themselves liable to the same penalty, by receiving any letter or packet on board, except through the Post Office; but that they will be entitled to receive one penny for each letter, or packet sent to them by the Postmaster-General, or Postmaster of the place from which they may be about to depart.

By His Excellency's Command.

E. DEASTHOMSON.

To afford every facility for despatch of letters by vessels leaving the Colony, mails will at all times be kept open until the latest hour possible, yet leaving time for transit to the Harbour for shipment. But it must be evidently to the interest of Merchants themselves and of ship agents to afford information to the Postmaster as early as possible, of any intended additional delay in the departure of vessels, that his arrangements may also be altered, to meet the same where practicable.

By order of His Honor the Superintendent.

HENRY D. KEMP,

Post Office, Melbourne,
11 February 1843.

Clerk of Works Office,
Melbourne, 17th February, 1843.

- 99
- 100
- 101 } Parish of Jika Jika
- 106
- 102
- 105 }

And the frontages of }
 These valuable properties, from their vicinity to town, the substantial and extensive improvements that have been effected thereon, are too well known to require comment.

On the homestead has been erected the most extensive country house in the district, with stables, coach-house, sheds, &c., and a garden in a high state of cultivation.

On the Sydney Road are three substantial brick cottages, one let as a public-house for 3 years at £60 per annum.

Intending purchasers are requested to inspect these properties previous to the day of sale. The distance from town is only two and a-half miles.

A plan of these grounds may be seen every day at the mart.

Titles—now unexceptionable.
 Terms—20 per cent. cash, the residue at 2, 6, 9, and 12 months.
 16 February.

TO THE
BENEVOLENT
And Charitably Disposed.

It is earnestly hoped that the following statement, the authenticity of which is vouched for, will be deemed worthy of serious consideration.

Bridget Shannon, a poor and industrious woman, who has lately lost her husband by falling from a dray, finds herself and her numerous young family reduced to a distressing state of destitution in consequence thereof. Under this circumstance, considering the misery of want, in her present situation, the case of Bridget Shannon is submitted to the notice of such charitable persons as are able to afford relief.

The smallest donation will be received with grateful thanks; because, however trifling, it will assist in procuring for the petitioner and her numerous offspring the means of subsistence during her recent delicate and incapacitated situation.

I CERTIFY that the above statement is correct and that the poor woman is also in a very advanced state of pregnancy. She and her young family are indeed great objects of commiseration.
