NEW WINE ESTABLISHMENT.

COLLINS-STREET,
(Opposite the Bank of Australasia.)

THOS. COSBY RIDDLE solicits the patronage of the public of Port Phillip in the supply of the undermentioned articles.

His claim for support is an intimate connexion of twenty years with several of the most eminent wine houses in Dublin, under whose auspices he has opened the present establishment. Those houses are engaged to him for a regular supply of such wines, spirits, porter, &c., as he points out to be most suited for this climate. Under his directions they have made large consignments, which he believes cannot be surpassed in quality, and will now be disposed of on the most advantageous terms;—

Melbourne, February 22.

TO THE WORSHIPFUL THE MAYOR, AS-SESSORS AND INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF GIPPS WARD.

GENTLEMEN,—In returning my most sincere thanks for the very honourable conduct I have experienced from all parties in my recent election to the office of Common Councilman of this Ward, I cannot refrain from alluding to the manly conduct of my most respectable and worthy opponent, so much at variance with the treatment I and my friends received on former occasions, when calumny and misrepresentation were the order of the day. I am a man of few words, but by my acts in the Council, I will endeavour to convince you that your confidence is not misplaced in the election of, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,

JAMES DOBSON.

TO THE
BENEVOLENT
And Charitably Disposed.

It is earnestly hoped that the following statement, the authenticity of which is vouched for, will be deemed worthy of serious consideration.

Bridget Shannon, a poor and industrious woman, who has lately lost her husband by falling from a dray, finds herself and her numerous young family reduced to a distressing state of destitution in consequence thereof. Under this circumstance considering the misery of want, in her present situation, the case of Bridget Shannon is submitted to the notice of such charitable persons as are able to afford relief.

The smallest donation will be received with grateful thanks; because, however trifling, it will assist in procuring for the petitioner and her numerous offspring the means of subsistence during her present delicate and incapacitated situation.

I CERTIFY that the above statement is correct and that the poor woman is also in a very advanced state of pregnancy. She and her young family are indeed great objects of commiseration.
