

An Act to authorise the issue of wine, duty free, to Military Officers serving in the Colony of New South Wales. [19th June, 1844.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to allow wine, intended for the consump-^{Preamble.} tion of Military or Naval Officers, serving on full pay in New South Wales, or the adjoining seas, to be imported into the said Colony, or taken out of bond for that purpose duty free: Be it therefore enacted, by <sup>Wines for Military or Naval Officers exempted from duty.</sup> His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, That it shall be lawful for the Governor of New South Wales, or the officer administering the Government, to order any wines to be delivered from any vessel, or taken out of bond free of duty, on such proof being adduced as the said Governor or officer administering the Government may require, that such wines are bonâ fide intended for the consumption of such Naval or Military Officers, serving on full pay as aforesaid.

II. And be it enacted, That if any of the said wines shall be sub-<sup>If subsequently sold, except for use of other officers,
to be forfeited.</sup> sequently sold in the said Colony, except to any person or persons purchasing the same for the use of other Naval or Military Officers, serving in like manner in the said Colony, or adjoining seas, the same shall be forfeited and liable to seizure accordingly.
