SEIZURE OF THE BRIGANTINE
"HANNAH."

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR is pleased to direct the publication of the following documents, relative to the Piratical Capture of the British Merchant Vessel "Hannah," at the Chatham Islands.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

Admiralty, 15th May, 1844.

SIR,

I am commanded by my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, to send herewith, for the information of Lord Stanley, copies of a letter, dated the 16th March last, from Her Majesty's Consul at Pernambuco, and of its enclosures, reporting the Piratical Capture of the British Merchant Vessel, "Hannah," at Chatham Islands, by an Englishman named William Ellis, and others; and their Lordships direct me to inform you, that the same has been communicated to the Admiral Commanding on the Pacific Station, and to request that Lord Stanley will cause it to be made known to such authorities as his Lordship may deem proper, with a view to effecting the capture of the Pirates.

I am, Sir,

Your most obedient humble servant,
JOHN BARROW.

G. W. HOPE, Esq.,
Colonial Office.

British Consulate, Pernambuco,
16th March, 1844;

MY LORDS,

I have the honor to enclose to your Lordships

the copy of a statement made before me, upon oath by Robert Bell, master of the Brigantine "Hannah," of Sydney, and confirmed by Edward R. Coffin, the master of the American Whaler "Sophia and Eliza," respecting the Piratical Capture of that Brigantine, of which the said master was part owner.

The statement of Captain Coffin appears fully to confirm Mr. Bell's account. I have, therefore, forwarded a description of the Brigantine to the different ports of this empire, and have sent Mr. Bell home by the "Mary Hounsell," the Vessel which bears this Dispatch, to Cowes, or an English Port in the Channel.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) H. AUGUSTUS COWPER, Consul.

To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

(Copy.)

On this thirteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, personally appeared and presented himself before me, Henry Augustus Cowper, Esquire, Her Britannic Majesty's Consul for the Province of Pernambuco, in the Empire of Brazil, Robert Bell, Master of the British Brigantine "Hannah," of Sydney, of the burden of one hundred and four tons, or thereabouts, who most solemnly, truly, and sincerely deposes and declares to the truth of the following statements, viz.:—that on or about the nineteenth day of March, 1843, he, with the rest of the crew, set sail from Sydney in the said Brigantine, bound on a trading and whaling voyage to New Zealand and the islands in the South Pacific Ocean. That in the course of the said voyage he proceeded to Auckland, Port Nicholson, and Cloudy Bay, for the purposes of trading and purchasing oil. At this latter place an Englishman, named William Ellis, applied for a passage to Chatham Islands, which this deponent granted; sailed for those islands, where Ellis was put on shore. This deponent, with his vessel and crew, remained there about a fortnight trading with the natives, purchasing oil and other articles of traffic. That from thence this deponent, with the said Brigantine, sailed to Port Nicholson, Nelson, and Cloudy Bay, and back to Port Nicholson. Whilst there he first heard reports of some fraudulent acts of the beforementioned William Ellis. On or about the first of August last, sailed again from Port Nicholson for the Chatham Islands, touching at Acharo during the passage, about the 13th of the said month of August, arrived at Chatham Islands, found Ellis still there. That this deponent remained at the islands trading and purchasing oil until the twenty-second of September last, when the said Brigantine had all her cargo, water, and provisions on board ready for sea. That this deponent was on shore on that evening close to where the vessel was moored. At about 12 o'clock at night he heard the report of fire-arms on board the "Hannah." Proceeded instantly to the beach for the purpose of launching his boat to get on board the vessel, when, to his surprise, he found the boat stove and the oars stolen, depriving him of the means of quitting the shore. He discovered that the people in the vessel were heaving up the anchor, and in a short time made sail. Further this deponent states, that two days after the said vessel had sailed, the mate, Richard Swainson, an Englishman; and three seamen, also Englishmen, all part of the crew of the said Brigantine "Hannah," were found on the South East Island, having been put on shore by Ellis's orders; Horden, his mate, and others of his men, manning the boat, who were all armed, to prevent the seamen from rising; and in eight days after they were discovered they reached that part of the island where this deponent was, being the place from which the Brigantine had been so piratically seized. That the Mate, Richard Swainson, declared to this deponent, that between 11 and 12 o'clock on the twenty-second of September beforementioned, the man named William Ellis came on board the "Hannah," accompanied by an American, named Horden (who had been second officer of the American ship "Franklin," Captain Walker), and several others, and entered the cabin; they secured the Mate, Swainson, and got possession of the vessel. That one of the seamen belonging to the "Hannah," named Green, attempting to prevent the party from coming on board, was shot at by Ellis with his pistol, and severely wounded in the breast by two balls with which it had been loaded. Further this deponent states, that in his writing-desk, which he had on shore; were the Register of the said Brigantine "Hannah," the Agreement with his crew, and other papers. That he enclosed to Messrs. Willis and Co., of Port Nicholson, his Agents, the said Register, for transmission to Sydney, and relating the statement above deposed to; and this letter he entrusted to his Mate, the said Richard Swainson, who proceeded in a trading boat from Chatham Islands to Port Nicholson. And further, that this deponent remained at Chatham Islands until the Fifth of December last, when he obtained a passage in the American Barque "Sophia and Eliza," Edward R. Coffin, Master, and was landed by him this Thirteenth day of March, at Pernambuco.

And this deponent declares by protest, and by these presents doth most solemnly protest against the beforementioned William Ellis, Horden, and all other person and persons concerned in this act of fraud and piracy, and does declare that the same was committed without any act or connivance of this deponent.

(Signed)

R. BELL.

I, Henry Augustus Cowper, Esquire, Her Majesty's Consul, as aforesaid, do hereby certify, that Robert Bell, the person named in this Paper, Writing, or Declaration, did duly and solemnly declare, in due form of law, to the truth thereof, before me, the said Consul, on the day of the date thereof.

In faith and testimony whereof, I, the said Consul, have hereunto subscribed my name, and set and affixed my Seal of Office, at the British Consulate at Pernambuco aforesaid, this 13th day of March, 1844.

Consul.

Pernambuco,
14th March, 1844.

I hereby certify that Captain Robert Bell, was master of the Brigantine "Hannah," of Sydney, N. S. W., that the said vessel was stolen by a man named Ellis and others from the said Bell at Chatham Islands; from which place I took him as passenger, finding him without property of any kind to assist himself with.

Master of the Barque Sophia and Eliza, of Duxbury,
Massachusetts, U. S. A.

Pernambuco,
16th March, 1844.

It is reported here, that the man Ellis, mentioned in the declaration deposed to by Robert Bell, had in his possession some bills drawn upon the Accountant General of Her Majesty's Navy, by the Commanding Officer of Her Majesty's Store Ship "Tortoise," for stores, salt provisions, sugar, &c., furnished by Ellis to that vessel whilst collecting spars, &c. on account of the British Government at the "Thames," near Auckland, New Zealand, if this be true, and the bills not yet presented, may perhaps furnish a clue to the detection of Ellis.

(Signed)

J. GORING

Vice-Consul.

(Copy.)

The "Hannah" was Brigantine rigged, one hundred and four tons burthen, was a very smart looking vessel, had a red cedar deck, a female figure-head, mounted two swivels on the rails; had on board a Chronometer—maker's name, "French, London;" her cargo, a quantity of oil, flour, sugar, slop clothing, and whaling gear,—general opinion that Ellis took her to the Spanish Main for sale—had no Register on board.

(Signed)

ROBERT BELL.

N.B.—On board the "Hannah" was also the bill of sale of a vessel called the "Gem," of Port Phillip, of which the said Robert Bell was owner. This bill of sale bore the name of the said Robert Bell, and was not transferred to any other party.

ABORIGINES.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR has been pleased to direct the publication of the following letter, from the Crown Commissioner of the Murrumbidgee District, reporting the praiseworthy conduct of the Aboriginal Natives, in the neighbourhood of the Tumut, during the recent inundation of that and the surrounding Districts.

By His Excellency's Command,

E. DEAS THOMSON.

Head Quarters, Tumut River, 4th November, 1844.

SIR,

I do myself the honor to inform you, for the information of His Excellency the Governor, that having been called to Gundagai, on the 24th of last month, to hold an inquiry, (with much regret,) on the body of an Aboriginal Native, named Gotherig, drowned in a creek, near the Murrumbidgee River; that I would not be doing justice to the Aboriginal Natives of this part, if I did not state, that during the severe and continued floods; caused by the overflowing of the waters of the Murrumbidgee and Tumut Rivers, that in the hour of peril, alarm, and danger, the blacks were most active in cutting canoes and rescuing the men; women, and children, from their huts, fast filling with water, and saved many of them from a watery grave, in fact their conduct was noble and praiseworthy; and should His Excellency the Governor be pleased to sanction my small requisition in their favor, I consider it would do much good, and that they (Blacks) merit some reward, in order to stimulate them to such actions and conduct, as we know not now, when they may be again called on, under similar trying moments, for exertion.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) HENRY BINGHAM.

The Honorable the Colonial Secretary,
