*Government House,
Sydney, 24th April, 1844.*
LEVEE.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR will hold a Levee, at Government House, on Friday, the 24th of May, at One o'clock, in honor of Her Majesty's Birth-day.

Gentlemen attending the Levee, are requested to bring their Cards, to be delivered to the Aid-de-Camp.

By His Excellency's Command,
EDWARD C. MEREWETHER, A. D. C.

MEMORANDUM.—The invitations to the Birth-day Ball, to be given on the 24th of May, will not extend beyond the County of Cumberland; but Cards of invitation will be furnished to any Ladies or Gentlemen, in the habit of visiting at Government House, who may happen to be in Sydney from a greater distance, provided their names (with their addresses in Sydney,) be entered in the Visitors' Book, at Government House, at any time previous to the day of the Ball.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 25th April, 1844.*

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR directs it to be notified, that he has appointed the under-mentioned Gentlemen to assist in revising the Electoral Lists for the District of Newcastle, at the Court of Petty Sessions, to be holden at that place, under the provisions of the Act of Council, 6th Victoria, No 16, viz:—

WILLIAM CROASBILL, Esquire,
GEORGE BROOKS, Esquire, and WILLIAM BROOKS, Esquire,

all of Newcastle.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 27th April, 1844.*

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR has been pleased to appoint

WILLIAM WILLARD LOWE, Esquire, of Mudgee, to be a Magistrate of the Territory and its Dependencies.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

MEMO.—This gentleman was appointed by the General Commission of 15th February last, but in consequence of the omission of his second christian name, a new Commission has been prepared.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 27th April, 1844.*

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR has been pleased to appoint

SYDNEY GRANDISON WATSON, Esquire, of Manners, to be a Magistrate of the Territory and its Dependencies.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 29th April, 1844.*

REWARDS FOR DISCOVERY OF ILLICIT DISTILLATION.

WITH reference to the Notice from this Office, of date the 8th December, 1842, relative to the Rewards for discovery of Illicit Distillation, His Excellency the GOVERNOR directs it to be notified, that, in future, the amount to be paid under the same will be a sum of not less than Twenty Pounds, nor more than Fifty Pounds, to be determined by His Excellency, according to the circumstances of each case, and the value of the seizure. In all other respects that Notice, which is now re-published for more convenient reference, will remain in force.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 8th December, 1842.*

REWARDS FOR DISCOVERY OF ILLICIT DISTILLATION.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR is pleased to direct it to be notified, that a Reward of Fifty Pounds will be paid to any person who, either directly or indirectly, may give information to any Inspector of Distilleries, or other Officer of Government, leading to the seizure of an unlicensed Still in any part of the Colony; or information leading to the conviction of any person engaged either as a principal or authorised agent in a licensed Distillery, or rectifying establishment, of any offence against the laws which exist for their regulations; or to the discovery of any practices in, or connected with, such establishments by which the Revenue is defrauded.

The Governor further directs it to be notified, that if the person giving the information be a Prisoner of the Crown, His Excellency will take into his most favorable consideration the claim of such person, for the highest indulgence which can, with propriety, be granted to him.

The rewards and indulgences held out by this Notice will, moreover, be in addition to the share in any seizure which the informer may be entitled to by the law of the Colony.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 20th April, 1844.*

TEN POUNDS REWARD, OR A CONDITIONAL PARDON.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Government, that on Tuesday evening, the 16th instant, the residence of the Reverend Mr. Allwood, at Hunter's Hill, Kissing Point, was entered by five armed men, and property to the value of Thirty Pounds stolen by them, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that, in addition to a Reward of Twenty-five Pounds offered by the friends of Mr. Allwood, a Reward of Ten Pounds will be paid by the Government to any free person or persons who may give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders; and that if the information be given by a prisoner of the Crown, application will be made to Her Majesty for the allowance to him of a Conditional Pardon.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

THE Tickets of Leave, belonging to the under-mentioned Prisoners of the Crown, have been cancelled, for the reasons stated opposite their respective names:—

STANDING ORDERS OF THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SYDNEY.

GENERAL DUTIES OF THE MAYOR, OR CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL.

1. THAT the Council shall sit within one quarter of an hour after the time expressed in the summons or notice to attend; and if there be not a quorum then present, those in attendance shall depart.

2. That if at any time after the Mayor, or Chairman, has taken the Chair, one-third of the Members be not present, the Mayor shall, by his own authority, immediately adjourn the Council to the next sitting day.

3. That the Chairman shall preserve order, and that his decision on disputed points of order, shall be final.

4. That the Chairman shall not give his opinions, or argue any question in the Council, unless the votes of the Members upon a division be equal, when he may state the reasons which influence him in giving his casting vote.

5. That when the Chairman is called upon to explain a point of order or practice, he is to state the rule applicable to the case, without argument or comment.

6. That the Chairman shall put all questions, and declare the sense of the Council thereon.

7. That if two or more Members rise to speak at the same time, the Chairman shall decide which Member is entitled to pre-audience.

8. That the Chairman may, without waiting for the interposition of the Council, call to order any Member proceeding to speak a second time on the same question, except in explanation, and without introducing any new matter.

9. That the Chairman shall, on every motion made and seconded, put the question, first in the affirmative, and then in the negative, and he may do so as often as may be necessary to enable him to form and declare his opinion from the show of hands as to which party has the majority.

GENERAL RULES FOR THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

10. That the minutes of the proceedings of the Council be openly read at the commencement of each succeeding meeting.

11. That Reports from Committees shall be received before any other business, but shall not be considered or adopted without due notice thereof, pursuant to the 94th section of the Act of the Governor and Legislative Council, 6 Victoria, No. 3.

12. That all motions shall be made, and petitions presented, by Members in their places.

13. That every Member shall stand when speaking, and shall address the chair.

14. That whenever any matter of order arises, it shall be immediately taken into consideration.

15. That (except in Committee) no Member shall speak twice on the same question, unless in explanation, where he has been misrepresented or misunderstood: Provided, however, that the mover shall be allowed to reply, and that every Member shall have the liberty of speaking once on every amendment, as well as on the original motion.

16. That no Member shall digress from the matter under discussion, or make personal reflections on Members, or impute motives.

17. That when any Member shall use any expression capable of being applied offensively to any other Member, the Member so offending, shall be required by the Chairman to withdraw the expression, and to make a satisfactory apology to the Council.

18. That a debate may be adjourned to a later hour of the same day, or to another day, as may be specified.

19. That the Member, upon whose motion any debate shall be adjourned by the Council, shall be entitled to pre-audience on the resumption of the debate.

20. That it shall be competent for any Member to divide the Council on any question, both in full Council and in Committees of the whole Council; and upon such division those who are on the affirmative side shall seat themselves on the benches on the right hand of the Chairman, and those who are on the negative shall seat themselves on the benches on his left hand; and no Members shall leave their seats till their names be taken down by the Town Clerk, or person officiating for him.

21. That previous to any division, or at any other time, strangers may be ordered to withdraw, and that in all divisions, every Member present be compelled to vote.

22. That no Member, during debate, shall be referred to by his name, but as the Alderman of his Ward, or the Councillor of his Ward.

23. That all divisions of the Council shall be entered on the minutes of the proceedings.

24. That the Orders of the Day shall include all matters arising out of the proceedings of former Meetings, but any Member may bring forward such business as may be advisable, in the form of a Notice of Motion, such notice to be given to the Town Clerk, in writing, at some previous Meeting, or at least four days previous to the Meeting at which the same is to be taken into consideration, and exhibited on the notice paper, on the outer door of the Town Hall at least three clear days previous to such Meeting; and all such Notices of Motion shall be considered in the order in which they are given, and shall take precedence of all the Orders of the Day: Provided that no such notice shall be brought on, unless the proper notice required by the 94th section of the Corporation Act shall have been given.

25. That no Member shall absent himself from the Council for two successive Meetings, without an express leave of absence from the Mayor or Council, under a penalty of ten shillings and sixpence, for each offence.

26. That any Member may require the question or matter under discussion, to be read for his information at any time during the debate, but not so as to interrupt any other Member while speaking.

MOTIONS.

27. That no discussion shall take place on a Notice of Motion, except with reference to fixing the day on which the motion is to be made.

28. That after the presentation of Reports and Petitions, the reading of Correspondence, and the reception of Notices of Motion, motions shall take precedence of all other business of the day.

29. That any number of amendments may be proposed on a motion before the Council; and when more than one amendment is moved and seconded the question shall first be put on the last amendment, and then on the next to the last, and so on in the inverse order in which they were moved; except when such motion or amendment shall relate to the fixing of salaries, rates, or other matters of finance, in which case the lowest sum shall be put first, then the next lowest, and so on to the highest.

30. That any motion for adjournment, if seconded, shall be immediately put without discussion; but if such motion be negatived, it shall not be competent for any member to make a similar motion until half an hour at least shall have elapsed from the period of moving the one that has been negatived.

31. That no notice shall be taken by the Chairman of any motion unless it be seconded.

32. That every member making a motion shall put it in writing, sign and deliver it to the Town Clerk, who shall add thereto the name of the seconder; and every motion after being so seconded and read by the Town Clerk, shall be considered the property of the Council, and shall not be withdrawn without leave of the Council.

PETITIONS.

33. That Petitions and Notices of Motion shall be received immediately after the reception of Reports.

34. That on the presentation of a Petition, it shall be read at length but debate shall take place on the prayer thereof, until notice has been given in the usual manner; and the only question that can be entertained by the Council on the day of its presentation shall be, that the Petition be received.

35. That it shall be incumbent on any member presenting a petition to acquaint himself with the language thereof, and to report to the Council, that he considers it unobjectionable.

36. That all Petitions be received only as the Petitions of the parties signing the same.

COMMITTEES.

37. That no Committee of the Council shall consist of less than five members.

38. That of every Committee three shall form a quorum, with the exception of a Committee of the whole Council, when nine shall form a quorum.

39. That the Chairman of every Committee shall be the convener thereof, and may direct the Town Clerk to call meetings whenever he shall think it expedient.

40. That the appointment of Special Committees shall continue until the specific duty for which they are appointed shall have been discharged: that of Standing Committees, until the next General Election of Councillors after the date of such appointment; provided, however, that such Committees may at any time be dissolved by vote of the Council after due notice.

41. That the Rules of the Council shall be observed in a Committee of the whole Council, except the rule limiting the number of times of speaking.

42. That every Report of a Committee shall be signed by the Chairman thereof.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

43. That no person holding any office of emolument under Government shall be capable of holding office under the Council.

44. That all the Officers employed by this Council, with the exception of the City Solicitor, shall devote the whole of their time to the performance of their duties.

45. That in cases where security is required, the sureties offered shall be approved by the Council, and it shall not be competent for the Council to accept as surety any of its members, or any person holding office under the Corporation.

46. That no work affecting the Funds of the City be undertaken until the probable expense be first submitted to the Finance Committee to consider and report to the Council the means of carrying the same into effect, and that all accounts to be paid by the Corporation shall be examined by the said Committee, and reported on by them, before any warrant shall be issued for the payment thereof.

47. That the Treasurer's Accounts be laid before the Council, by the Mayor, at the first meeting of each quarter, or oftener if required by the Council.

48. That whenever the Mayor shall receive a requisition, signed by at least eight members, to call a meeting of the Council to consider an Address, Memorial, Petition, or Remonstrance to the Governor, Legislative Council, or any other authority, upon any occasion, the Mayor shall call such meeting of the Council within four days of the delivery to him of such requisition, and the same shall be taken into consideration immediately after the opening of the Council, in preference to any Petition or other business, notwithstanding any Order, Rule, or By-Law to the contrary.

49. That no officer appointed by the Council shall be at liberty to show, lay open, or expose any of the books, papers, or records of the Corporation, to any person not a member of the City Council, without leave or license of the Mayor or the Council, except as otherwise provided for by the Act of the Governor and Legislative Council, 6 Vic., No. 3.

50. That any one of the Standing Orders of this Council, may be suspended in case of emergency, by the votes of a majority of at least two-thirds of the Members present.

51. That Members of the Council, do appear in Civic Costume, at the Quarterly Meetings of the Council, and on all Public occasions, where they attend.
