VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c., &c.

To the Sheriff of New South Wales, or his lawful Deputy, Greeting:—

WHEREAS, upon the Petition to the Honorable the Judges of our Supreme Court of New South Wales, of John Cunningham Maclaren, of Hunter-street, in the City of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, as Inspector of the Union Bank of Australia, against John Jones, late of Miller's Point, in the City of Sydney, Shipowner; it appears to us that the said John Jones, is justly and truly indebted to the said Bank, in the sum of nine thousand seven hundred and sixty-four pounds, fourteen shillings and five pence, upon and by virtue of sundry acceptances to Promissory Notes given by him, and which said Promissory Notes are now over due and unsatisfied, and also on sundry endorsements on other Promissory Notes, made by him the said John Jones, also unsatisfied, that the amount of acceptances of him the said John Jones, together with legal interest thereon, is three thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight pounds three shillings and eight pence; that the endorsements given on other Promissory Notes, together with legal interest thereon, is five thousand eight hundred and six pounds ten shillings and nine pence, making together the first-mentioned sum; that nearly the whole of the said Promissory Notes bearing both acceptances and endorsements, are made or accepted by persons now Insolvent; that the said Bank has no security except partial dividends from some of the said Promissory Notes, on some of the said Insolvent Estates; that the said John Jones has no set-off against the aid first mentioned sum or any part thereof; that the said John Jones, in the month of August last, departed from this Colony, and has not yet returned, although he promised and arranged at the time of his said departure to return in the month of January in this year; that the said John Cunningham Maclaren has been informed, and believes that the said John Jones has no intention of returning to this Colony; that being out of this Colony, the said John Jones remains absent therefrom with intent to defeat and delay the said John Cunningham Maclaren, as such inspector as aforesaid, in obtaining payment of his just debts; and that the said John Jones did thereby commit an Act of Insolvency, whereupon the said John Cunningham Maclaren, as such inspector as aforesaid, humbly prayed that the Estate of the said John Jones might be Sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors; and whereas it further appears to us, in our said Court, that the Honorable William Westbrooke Burton, one of the Judges of the said Court, did, by order under his hand, bearing date the fourteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, place the Estate of the said John Jones under Sequestration in the hands of the Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates at Sydney, until the same should be thereafter adjudged to be Sequestered, or the said petition should be discharged; Now, therefore, we command you, that you summon the said John Jones that he be before our Justices of our Supreme Court aforesaid, on Wednesday, the eight day of September next ensuing, at ten o'clock of the forenoon, to shew cause, if he have any, why his Estate should not, by sentence of the said Court, be adjudged to be Sequestered for the benefit of his Creditors; and return you then there this Writ with whatever you have done thereupon.

Witness,—The Honorable Sir James Dowling, our Chief Justice of our said Court, this twenty-first day of May, in the seventh year of our reign.
