In the Supreme Court of New South Wales for the District of Port Phillip.

EQUITABLE JURISDICTION.

Saturday, the 22nd day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

It is ordered that the following Rules shall severally take effect from and after the date hereof:—

1. That all duties discharged in the High Court of Chancery in England in respect of Process issued out of the said Court or otherwise, by a Serjeant at Arms, shall be discharged within the District of Port Phillip by the Deputy Sheriff; and all Process which in England

- would be directed to a Sergeant at Arms, shall accordingly in this Court in its Equitable Jurisdiction, be directed to, and executed by such Deputy Sheriff, and the Deputy Sheriff shall be entitled to and may lawfully demand and receive for and in respect of such duties, and for and upon the execution of such Process, the Fees set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed.
2. That the Deputy Sheriff shall bring to the Bar of the Court every person arrested upon any Writ of Attachment issuing out of this Court in its Equitable Jurisdiction, on the first day on which the Court shall sit in Equity next after such arrest, or as soon afterwards as possible: And every such person and his property shall be dealt with by Imprisonment and Sequestration, in like manner as persons and their property are dealt with when brought to the Bar of the High Court of Chancery in England, by a Sergeant at Arms for like cause; but this order is not to prevent the Deputy Sheriff from taking bail for the appearance of the person arrested.
 3. That no Writ of Attachment with Proclamations, nor any Writ of Rebellion, be hereafter issued for the purpose of compelling obedience to any Process, Order, or Decree of the Court.
 4. That upon the Deputy Sheriff's return non est inventus to an Attachment, the party suing out the same, upon affidavits made that due diligence was used in endeavouring to apprehend the person, and stating the facts of such endeavour, shall be entitled to a Writ of Sequestration, in the same manner, as a party in the High Court of Chancery in England, was entitled to such Writ upon the like return made by a Sergeant at Arms in a like case immediately prior to the year 1841.
 5. That every Order or Decree, requiring any party to do an act, thereby ordered, shall state the time (after service of such Decree or Order) within which the act is to be done; and a copy of the Order or Decree shall be served upon the party required to obey the same upon which shall be endorsed an intimation of the consequences of non-obedience thereto.
 6. That no Writ of Execution shall hereafter be issued for the purpose of compelling obedience to any Order or Decree of the Court in its Equitable Jurisdiction; but that the party required by such Order or Decree to do any act, shall upon being duly served with a copy of such Order or Decree, be held bound to do such act.
 7. That no service of a copy of any Order obtained ex parte, shall be required otherwise than as heretofore.
 8. If any party directed by an Order or Decree to pay money, (whether money only, or costs only, or money with costs) shall after due service of such Order or Decree, neglect to pay the same, as thereby directed, the party prosecuting such Order or Decree, shall, at the expiration of the time limited for the performance thereof, be entitled to proceed for the recovery of the money thereby payable in the manner directed by the Act of 5 Victoria, No. 9, section 43.
 9. Provided that in respect to the payment of costs, the Decree or Order shall have been drawn up, specifying by, and to whom the same shall be paid; and provided also, that the amount of such costs shall have been duly taxed, and payment thereof demanded, from the party, by whom payable, or his Solicitor; and that before Execution for the same shall be issued under the said Act, an affidavit shall be made of those facts.
 10. When any party who by any Order or Decree is ordered to deliver possession of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within a limited time, shall, after due service of such Decree or Order, refuse or neglect to obey the same, the party prosecuting such Order or Decree, shall (on proof made of demand and refusal to obey the same) be entitled to a Writ of Assistance.

11. Where any party who by an Order or Decree is ordered within a limited time to do some act, other than to pay money, or to deliver possession of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, shall after due service of such Order or Decree, refuse or neglect to obey the same, according to the exigency thereof, the party prosecuting such Order or Decree, shall at the expiration of the time so limited be entitled to an Attachment.
12. Every person, not being a party in any cause, who shall have obtained an Order, or in whose favor an Order shall have been made, shall be entitled to force obedience to such Order by the same Process, as if he were a party to the cause, and every person not being a party to any cause, against whom obedience to any Order may be enforced, shall be liable to the same Process for disobedience of such Order, as if he were a party to the cause.
13. That all Writs issued by the Court in its Equitable Jurisdiction, shall be sealed with the Official Seal of the Supreme Court Office for this District, and be signed by the Deputy Registrar and tested in the name of the Resident Judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales for the District of Port Phillip.
14. That no Writ of Attachment, Sequestration, or Assistance, shall be issued without the Special Order of the Court in its Equitable Jurisdiction, to be obtained on Motion or Petition, with affidavit of the circumstances of the case; but it shall not be necessary to serve the person against whom such Writ is sought to be issued, with notice of the Motion, or with a copy of such Petition.
15. That the costs of all Writs issued by the Court in its Equitable Jurisdiction, (when the same are issued for the recovery of money) shall be the same as on the issue of the like Writs at Common Law, and the costs of all other Writs shall be the same as on the issue of the like Writs in the High Court of Chancery in England.
