

NEW SOUTH WALES

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE,

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 14, 1845.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 13th March, 1845.*

THE GOVERNOR has been pleased to direct, that the following Extracts from a Despatch No. 156, dated Downing-street, 28th October, 1844, addressed to His Excellency by the Right Honorable Lord Stanley, Secretary of State for the Colonies, be published for general information.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

Extract No. 1.—PREFERABLE LIEN ACT.

The Act No. 3, dated the 15th September, 1843, and intituled "An Act to give a preferable lien on Wool from season to season, and to make mortgages of Sheep, Cattle, and Horses, valid, without delivering to the mortgagee," is a measure so irreconcilably opposed to the principles of legislation immemorially recognised in this country, respecting the alienation or pledging of things moveable, that under any other circumstances than those in which the Colony has unhappily been involved, it would not have been in my power to decline the unwelcome duty of advising Her Majesty to disallow it. The same circumstances may, perhaps, furnish an apology for an enactment, tending so directly to give unwonted facilities for borrowing money, and increasing the evil of excessive credit, under the penalties of which the Colonists have so long and so severely laboured. But while I am ready to admit, that embarrassments so overwhelming may have justified innovations otherwise indefensible, I must not less distinctly deny, that they afford any valid plea for a permanent departure from those established rules, to which all theory and all experience alike lend their sanction. The disasters of New South Wales will ere long have passed away, but there will remain on the Colonial Statute-Book, a Law, expressly authorising transactions which the Law of England regards as affording the conclusive indication of fraud. It is a law which will place society at the mercy of any dishonest borrower, and which will stimulate the speculative spirit which it is so important to discourage.

The official transcript of this Act was received at this Office, on the 22nd July, 1844, consequently, on the 22nd July, 1846, it will become unalterable by Her Majesty's authority, unless disallowed before that day. I have therefore to acquaint you, that unless the intelligence of the repeal of this law shall reach this Office by the 22d day of July, 1846, it will, on the approach of that day be disallowed by the Queen in Council.

Extract No. 2.—SOLVENT DEBTORS' ACT.

The Act No. 4, entitled, "An Act to prevent the waste of the property of Debtors under the process of Law," may be vindicated by the apology I have already mentioned. As that law will expire in little more than two years from its date, the Queen will not disallow it: but neither can Her Majesty be advised expressly to sanction it:—Until it shall have expired by lapse of time, it will therefore continue to operate. But you will understand yourself as being distinctly prohibited from again assenting to a law enabling a Debtor to continue in possession of his property, and to avoid the ordinary legal responsibility to any one of his creditors, under shelter of a license granted for that purpose by his other creditors. Such an enactment in favour of the Debtor and against the dissentient Creditor, could not be incorporated into the permanent code of any country without the subversion of all faith in the ordinary dealings of mankind, and engendering abuses hostile alike to commercial security, and to public morals.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney 8th March, 1845.*

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR has been pleased to appoint

THOMAS CALLAGHAN, Esquire, Barrister at Law, to act as a Commissioner for hearing and reporting on Claims to Grants of Land, in lieu of Roger Therry, Esquire, appointed a Judge of the Supreme Court.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 11th March, 1845.*

INSTITUTION FOR DESTITUTE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHILDREN.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR has been pleased to make the following appointments, rendered necessary by the 1st clause of the Act of Council, 5 William IV, No. 3, and the 3rd clause of the Act of 8 Victoria, No. 2, viz:—

JOHN HUBERT PLUNKETT, Esquire,

THE REVEREND DR. GREGORY, and

PATRICK HILL, Esquire, Colonial Surgeon,

to have the control and inspection of the Institution for Destitute Roman Catholic Children, and to bind, and put to be apprentices, any children admitted into the said Institution, in pursuance of the said Acts of Council.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 27th February, 1845.*

TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS REWARD, OR A CONDITIONAL PARDON.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Government, that on the 14th instant, two wool drays belonging to Mr. Kirwan, of Coomer, while passing Lake George, were attacked by four men mounted and armed, who turned the drays off the road into the bush, and finally succeeded in making off with one of them, and its burthen, (the other having been left at some distance.) His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that a reward of Twenty-five Pounds will be paid to any free person or persons who may give such information as may lead to the apprehension of the guilty parties; and if the person giving the said information be a prisoner of the Crown, application will be made to Her Majesty for the allowance of a Conditional Pardon to such prisoner of the Crown.

*By His Excellency's Command,

MEMO:—The dray which has been carried off was drawn by three fine horses, and had on at the time nine packs and a piece of wool, and two kegs of tallow.

Two of the horses were bays and one black; the latter being an entire, and branded H on the shoulder. One of the bay horses had two white fetlocks. The dray was a narrow wheeled dray, (that is narrow tyre) with a new bed. The horses had all been recently shod, and the heels turned up. The wool bales were branded J.K.
