SYDNEY STREETS AND SEMICIRCULAR QUAY.

WITH reference to the Government Notices bearing date the 6th day of January, and the 18th day of February, 1845, relative to the prolongation of certain streets to the Semicircular Quay, Sydney Cove, and to the opening of two other streets in connection therewith, and to the opening and making of a portion of the said Semicircular Quay; His Excellency the Governor, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of Council, 4 William IV., No. 11, intituled, "An Act for making, altering, and improving the roads throughout the Colony of New South Wales, and for opening and improving the streets in the towns thereof," having, on the 31st day of March last, brought under the consideration of the Executive Council, the objections made to the opening of certain of the said streets, is pleased, with the advice of the said Council, to declare, that it is expedient to prolong, open, and make the several streets and portion of the Semicircular Quay hereinafter specified, according to a survey and tracing thereof, to be seen in the Office of the Surveyor General, that is to say:—

- 1.—Macquarie-street, in prolongation of the present street, from Bent-street to the South Shore of Port Jackson, at the mouth of Sydney Cove.
- 2.—Phillip-street, in prolongation of the present street, from Bent-street to the Circular Quay, passing through the eastern end of the present Government House.

3.—Elizabeth-street, in continuation of the present street to the east side of the Queen's Warehouse, but comprehending only the portion of it which lies between Bent-street and the Quay.

4.—Castlereagh-street, in prolongation of the present street, from Hunter-street to the Circular Quay, by the west side of the proposed western wing of the new Custom House.

5.—Pitt-street, in prolongation of the present street, from Hunter-street to the Circular Quay, to a point near the north-east corner of Wilson's store, adjoining the stairs at the Queen's Wharf.

6.—Bridge-street, in prolongation of the present street, from Macquarie-place to Macquarie-street.

7.—Albert-street, leading at right-angles, from Macquarie-street to Phillip-street.

8.—Alfred-street, being in continuation of Albert-street, leading from the wharf to Pitt-street.

9.—Portion of the Semicircular Quay, commencing at the north-west corner of section No. 100, and bounded on the south by the northern boundary of that section; on the west by the eastern boundary of the same section, to the northern side of Alfred-street; and again on the south by the said northern side of Alfred-street, to its intersection with the line in continuation of Castlereagh-street; and on the north and north-east by the waters of Sydney Cove, as shewn upon the plan deposited in the Surveyor General's Office.

In reference, however, to the line proposed for the continuation of Castlereagh-street, it is to be understood, that the Government does not pledge itself to remove the building now used as the Treasury within a less period than five years, or until funds for the erection of another building shall have been provided by the Legislature.
