

NEW SOUTH WALES
GOVERNMENT GAZETTE,

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1846.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GIPPS, Knight, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her most gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled, “An Act for the government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land,” it was amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for the Governor of New South Wales to prorogue the Legislative Council thereof from time to time, and dissolve the same, by Proclamation or otherwise, whenever he should deem it expedient; and whereas it is expedient to prorogue the said Legislative Council for the period hereinafter mentioned: Now, I, Sir George Gipps, Knight, the Governor aforesaid, do hereby, in pursuance of the power and authority so in me vested, prorogue the said Legislative Council from the present date until the twenty-fifth day of August next ensuing.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Sydney, this thirteenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and in the ninth year of Her Majesty's reign.

(L.S.) GEORGE GIPPS.

By His Excellency's Command,

E. DEAS THOMSON.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 10th June, 1846.*

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR has been pleased to appoint

MR. JOHN CAMPBELL,

Chief Constable, Muswellbrook, to be an Inspector of Distilleries, under the provisions of the Act of the Governor and Council 3 Victoria, No. 9, intituled, “An Act to consolidate and amend the laws for the Distillation of Spirits in the Colony of New South Wales, and for the issue of Licenses for Distilling, Rectifying and Compounding Spirits therein, and for repealing certain laws relating thereto.”

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 13th June, 1846.*

REWARD OF A CONDITIONAL PARDON.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Government, that about seventy head of cattle were stolen from the Station called Euroka, on the Barwin River, on or about the 15th May,
and were traced as far as Breezer, on Liverpool Plains, where they were seen on or about the 27th May; His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that, in addition to the pecuniary Reward offered by the owners of the cattle for such information as may lead to the apprehension and conviction of the guilty parties, in the event of the person giving the said information being a Prisoner of the Crown, application will be made to Her Majesty for the allowance to such Prisoner of the Crown of a Conditional Pardon of the Second Class.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 11th June, 1846.*

REWARD OF A CONDITIONAL PARDON.

WHEREAS it has been represented, to the Government, that Forty-five head of Cattle, the property of Messrs. J. B. & J. H. Bettington, were recently stolen from their herds, at Greig's Creek, Hunter's River, some of which were subsequently discovered with the brands partially defaced, in the District of Kurrjong; His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that, in addition to any pecuniary Reward offered by Messrs. Bettington, for such information as may lead to the apprehension and conviction of the guilty parties, in the event of the person giving the said information being a Prisoner of the Crown, application will be made to Her Majesty for the allowance to such prisoner of the Crown of a Conditional Pardon of the second class.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

FORTY POUNDS REWARD.

WHEREAS a number of cattle, principally young heifers, the property of the undersigned, have been stolen from Greig's Creek, on the Hunter, Notice is hereby given, that the above Reward of Forty Pounds will be paid to any person giving such information as will lead to the conviction of the offenders.

J. B. & J. H. BETTINGTON.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 29th May, 1846.*

JONATHAN HARRISON.

ENQUIRY having been made respecting Jonathan Harrison, by a relative resident in Ireland, any person enabled to furnish information respecting him is requested to communicate the same to this Office.

Harrison arrived in this Colony by the ship "Portsea," in 1838, having been previously a private in the 52nd Regiment. He resided at one time near Charcoal Creek, in the District of Illawarra, and is believed to have been lately following the occupation of a shoemaker, at Cunningham Creek, near Yass.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 15th June, 1846.*

GOVERNMENT QUARRIES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the lease of nine Government Quarries in the neighbourhood of Sydney, will be put up to Auction, at the building in the rear of the Colonial Treasury, on Thursday, the 18th instant, immediately after the conclusion of the sale of Occupation Licences advertised to take place on that day.

The Quarries to be leased for one year, and immediate possession given.

For further particulars, apply at the Colonial Architect's Office, Sydney.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

No. 49, JUNE 16, 1846—3

IN consequence of a typographical error in the Bye-laws for regulating the George-street Markets, as published in the "New South Wales Government Gazette" on 31st May and 4th June, 1844, the said Bye-laws are hereby re-published for general information, in terms of the Act of Council 6 Vict., No. 3.

JOHN RAE, Town Clerk.

BYE-LAW FOR REGULATING THE GEORGE-STREET MARKETS.

No. 3. (April 4, 1844) WILSHIRE, Mayor.

WHEREAS an Act of the Governor and Legislative Council of the Colony of New South Wales was passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William 4. Wm. IV., the Fourth, intituled—"An Act for regulating the Rates of Tolls or Dues to be levied at the Markets of Sydney and Parramatta," whereby it was amongst other things enacted, that from and after the thirty-first day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and until further provision should be made, certain Tolls or Market Dues therein mentioned, and no higher, should be demanded, paid, and taken at the Markets held in the towns of Sydney and Parramatta respectively: And whereas by the said Act provision was made for demising and letting to farm, the Tolls or Market Dues demandable under the authority thereof in the manner therein mentioned, and also for the putting up in some conspicuous place at or near every such Market, a table containing the name of the Market and a list of all the tolls or dues payable thereat: And whereas it was further enacted by the said Act, that it should be lawful for the Governor for the time being, by any Proclamation under his hand, to appoint certain places in the towns of Sydney and Parramatta where Market-houses might be erected or Markets held for the sale of all such goods or articles as should be appointed by the said Proclamation to be sold therein; and that any person exposing to sale any of the said enumerated goods or articles in any other place within the said towns, should forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding twenty shillings: Provided always, that nothing therein contained should extend to prevent any person from selling in any house, shop, or other permanent building, any goods whatsoever which might be lawfully exposed to sale: And whereas a certain other Act of the said Governor and Legislative Council was passed in the fourth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King 4 Wm. IV., William the Fourth, intituled—"An Act No. 7. for regulating the Police in the town and port of Sydney, and for removing and preventing nuisances and obstructions therein," whereby after reciting that Market-houses were then erecting in the said town, and that it was expedient that the Markets to be held therein should be placed under such regulations as should provide for the convenience of all persons resorting thereto, it was amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for any two or more Justices appointed under the now reciting Act, to make and appoint such rules and regulations, and the same to alter and vary, from time to time, as occasion should require for holding such Markets, and for the maintenance of good order and convenience therein, and for the cleanliness of the several Market-houses, sheds, and stalls, as to them should seem fit, and to enforce such rules and regulations by imposing fines and penalties for the violation thereof, any such fine or penalty in no case to exceed twenty shillings for any one offence, and to be recovered as therein mentioned:

Section 65. And whereas by the said now reciting Act, after reciting the provisions made by the first herein recited Act, for the tolls to be paid for every stall in the Market-place, and that it was expedient to let the stalls under other conditions, provision was made for farming, by public auction, for any term not exceeding twelve calendar months, any one or more of the said stalls in manner therein mentioned: And whereas a Proclamation

Proclamation of Richard Major General Richard Bourke, then Bourke, dated 28th October, 1834, recited, Captain General and Governor-in-

Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, and under the Seal of the said Richard Bourke, and bearing date the 28th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, was issued on the said 28th day of October, whereby the said Richard Bourke, after reciting the first hereinbefore recited Act, did appoint two certain places therein mentioned, in the town of Sydney, at which Markets should be holden, from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and did appoint such places for the sale of the goods therein mentioned, with a proviso that nothing therein contained should prevent, or be construed to prevent the sale of other articles in either of the said Markets which should be permitted to be sold therein under and by virtue of the regulations to be made from time to time by competent authority, for the maintenance of good order and convenience in the said Markets: And whereas, by the said Proclamation, the said Richard Bourke did further order and declare the days and hours on which Markets should be holden in Sydney subject to all such rules and regulations for the maintenance of good order and convenience therein, as should from time to time be made by competent authorities: And whereas on the 28th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, Henry Croaisdale Wilson, Charles Windeyer, and Earnest Augustus Slade, Esquires, the then three Police Magistrates of Sydney aforesaid, made certain provisional regulations for the Market in George-street, in Sydney aforesaid, under the authority of the second hereinbefore re-

Market Regulations, 1st December, 1834. cited Act: And whereas on the first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, the said H. C. Wilson, Charles Windeyer, and Robert Stewart, the then third Police Magistrate, of Sydney aforesaid, made certain rules and regulations for the said George-street Market, and for the Sydney Hay, Corn, and Cattle Market, under the authority of the said second

Market Regulations, 2nd February, 1840. hereinbefore recited Act: And whereas on the 22nd day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty, Charles Windeyer and John Ryan Brennan, Esquires, second and third

Police Magistrates of Sydney aforesaid, and Joseph Long Innes, Esquire, Superintendent of Police, did, in pursuance and under the authority of the second hereinbefore recited Act, make and appoint certain rules and regulations for the holding of the George-street Markets in Sydney aforesaid, as therein mentioned, and for the maintenance of good order and convenience therein, and for the cleanliness of the several Market-houses, Sheds, and Stalls:

Market Regulations, 26th February, 1841. And whereas on the 26th day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, the said Charles Windeyer, Joseph Long Innes, and John Ryan Brennan, did make and appoint certain additional rules and regulations for the said George-street Market, under the authority of the second hereinbefore recited Act: and whereas a certain Act of the said Governor and Legislative Council was passed in the sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled—"An Act to declare the Town of Sydney to be a City, and to incor-

6 Victoria, No. 3. porate the Inhabitants thereof," whereby it was amongst other things enacted,

Section 71. that from and after the passing of the said Act, the regulations respecting Markets, and also respecting the Market Wharf, in the City of Sydney, contained in an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled—"An Act for regulating the rates of Tolls or Dues to be levied at the Markets of Sydney and Parramatta" (being the first hereinbefore recited Act,) and in an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled—"An Act for regulating the Police in the Town and Port of Sydney, and for removing and preventing nuisances and obstructions therein," (being the second hereinbefore recited Act,) should remain in force only until the same might be varied or altered by any Bye-law or Laws passed as thereafter provided by

Section 72. the Council of the said City: And whereas in the said now reciting Act, it was further enacted, that the Council of the said City should have the same powers, authorities, duties and immunities, in respect to Markets, as are given to the Commissioners to be elected and appointed under and by virtue of an Act of the Governor and Legislative Council, passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled,

And Section 92. "An Act to authorise the establishment of Markets in certain Towns in the Colony of New South Wales, and for the appointment of Commissioners to manage the same:"

And whereas by the said now reciting Act power is given to the Council of the said City to make Bye-laws amongst other things for prohibiting, forestalling, regrating, and every kind of fraudulent device and practice in relation to the sale of

3rd Victoria, No. 19, section 24, recited. marketable commodities: And whereas by the said Act passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, it was amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners therein mentioned, from time to time, to make such Rules, Orders, and Bye-laws as they should think fit and necessary for the better regulation and government of any such Market as is therein mentioned, and for the cleansing, letting, occupying, and using such Market as is therein mentioned, or any part or parts thereof, and also for regulating, ordering, and governing the Officers appointed by them, and all other persons, both buyers and sellers, thereto coming or resorting, and all matters which do or may concern or relate to such Markets: And whereas it was further enacted, in and by the said now reciting Act, that the said Commissioners might, from time to time, as they should think fit, repeal, alter, add to, or amend any such Rules, Orders, Bye-laws, or any of them, and should ascertain and therein set down what pecuniary and other penalties and forfeitures should be incurred by persons breaking or evading such Rules, Orders, Bye-laws, or any of them, provided that no such pecuniary penalties should exceed the sum of five pounds for any one offence: And whereas a certain other Act of the said Governor and 6th Victoria, No. 18. Legislative Council was passed in the sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled—"An Act to remove doubts in respect to the exercise of certain powers by the Councils of the City of Sydney and Town of Melbourne, and to declare the Section 6. competency of witnesses and the jurisdiction of Magistrates in certain cases within the same," whereby it was amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for the Council of the said City and Town respectively, to impose and levy such tolls or dues as might seem to the said Councils respectively to be necessary and proper, provided that such dues or tolls be fixed by Bye-laws, to be passed by the said Councils respectively, in the manner directed in the said Acts, and that it should be lawful for the said Councils respectively, to let or farm out the said tolls, dues, and Market stalls or standings, in such manner, and at such rents or prices, as might be determined on by the said Councils respectively: And whereas the said Council of the said City have deemed it expedient to supersede the regulations respecting Markets in the said City of Sydney, contained in the first and second hereinbefore recited Acts, as well as those made in pursuance thereof, save and except the said Proclamation of the 28th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, issued in pursuance of the first hereinbefore recited Act, as is hereinbefore mentioned: Be it therefore ordered, declared, and enacted, by the Council of the said City in Council assembled, that the said Regulations (except as aforesaid) shall be superseded, and the following Rules and Regulations shall, on the first day of June, 1844, be in force with respect to the Markets established by the said Proclamation:—

GEORGE-STREET MARKETS.

TIME OF HOLDING THE MARKETS.

1. That the Markets of the City be opened every day during the year, except Sundays, Christmas-Day, and Good Friday.

2. That the Markets shall commence by ring of bell, at 5 o'clock in the morning, from the 1st of September to the last day of February; and at 6 o'clock during the rest of the year.

3. That the gates of the Market shall be shut at sunset throughout the year, except on Wednesdays, when they shall remain open till 10 o'clock in the evening, and on Saturdays, when they shall remain open till half-past 11 o'clock in the evening.

DISTRIBUTION OF MARKET SHEDS, &c.

4. That the North-east Building marked A, shall be reserved for the use of growers and producers,

5. That from after the first day of June, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty-four, the North-west Building marked B, shall be appropriated to the sale of beef, mutton, and other butchers' meat, pork, bacon, hams, butter, cheese, milk, eggs, poultry, and game.

6. That from and after the said first day of June, and year aforesaid the South-east Building marked C, shall be appropriated to the sale of potatoes and other vegetables.

7. That from and after the said first day of June, the South-west Building marked D, shall be appropriated for the sale of fruit, vegetables, and all garden produce of every description, except potatoes.

8. That all butter which shall or may be offered for sale in the George-street Market, shall be sold by avoirdupois weight, and no other; and the vender of butter in rolls or other parcels, shall, in the presence of any purchaser or persons offering to become a purchaser, weigh such roll or rolls, parcel or parcels of butter, as such purchaser shall offer to purchase from the person offering the same for sale; and the Clerk of the said Market shall have full power and authority to inspect all butter which may be at any time exposed for sale in the said Market, and to weigh or cause to be weighed, either at his own instance or at the request of any purchaser, any roll or rolls, parcel or parcels of butter as aforesaid, to determine the weight thereof, and whether the vender of such roll or rolls, parcel or parcels of butter, did or did not make a true representation of the weight of such butter as aforesaid, to the purchaser thereof.

9. That all articles sold by the hundred or hundred weight, shall be computed by the Standard 112lb avoirdupois weight.

CLERK OF THE MARKETS.

10. There shall be a Clerk of the Market, who shall be appointed and removed from time to time by the Council of the said City, who shall be sworn in as a Special Constable; and whose duty it shall be to see that all Bye-laws for the regulation of the Market are duly observed therein.

11. That the Clerk of the Market shall inspect all articles exposed for sale in the Market, and shall seize all bad and unwholesome articles, and on being surveyed by two or more of the City Council, and declared by them in writing to be unwholesome, shall cause the same to be destroyed.

12. That the Clerk of the Market being appointed examiner, under the Act of the Governor and Council, 3 William IV., No. 4, shall inspect all scales, weights, and measures used in the Market, and shall seize such as are fraudulent or defective, and proceed in every such case in the manner pointed out by the above Act.

13. That the Market scales shall be kept by the Clerk, who shall be provided with weights and measures regularly stamped, by which all others used in the Market shall be adjusted, and for every examination of such weights and measures, the Clerk shall receive from the person who shall cause the same to be made, the sum of three-pence for every weight and measure so compared; and when required to weigh any such article, he shall receive the sum of one penny per cwt., or any less quantity.

14. That the Clerk of the Market and his assistants shall preserve order and regularity in the Market, and shall apprehend and carry to the nearest Police Station or Watch-house, any person making a riot or disturbance therein, or guilty of cursing or swearing, or using any gross or indecent language, or offending against common decency, or in any other way provoking a breach of the Peace, there to be detained until taken before a Justice of the Peace to be dealt with.

HOW STALLS TO BE LET, AND THE AMOUNT OF TOLLS, &c.

15. All applications for stalls in sheds B, C, or D, shall be made to the Town Clerk, who may, with the consent of the Mayor, cause a license or authority to occupy to be issued under the Seal of the Corporation, to any person so applying, for any term not to exceed the duration of the then current year, on such person entering into a bond with two sufficient sureties for securing payment for the whole of the dues or tolls for every stall so to be occupied, provided that no such license or authority shall be construed to make the person in whose favor it may be drawn a tenant to the Corporation, or give any such person any other possession of the stall or stalls therein mentioned, than as one occupying for, and on behalf of the Corporation, and that for every such license a fee of two shillings and six-pence shall be paid to the Town Clerk in aid of the City Fund, and for every such bond a fee of two shillings and sixpence to the City Solicitor.

16. No person shall be allowed to hold more than two stalls at one and the same time, without special leave of the Council, to be signified under the hand of the Town Clerk.

17. The tolls or dues to be paid for occupying stalls, shall for the future be fixed, and shall be as follows, that is to say, for each stall in the Building marked A, the sum of one shilling per day; for each stall in the Building marked B, the sum of six shillings per week; for the first six stalls commencing at the north end of the Building marked C, the sum of three shillings per week each; for the next seven on each side of the same Building, two shillings and sixpence per week; and the remaining four on each side in the same Building, the sum of three shillings per week; and for the first twelve stalls on each side, commencing at the north end in the Building marked D, the sum of six shillings per week each; and the remaining six on each side in the same Building, the sum of five shillings per week each.

18. Before any person shall be allowed to occupy any stall in sheds B, C, or D, he or she shall pay to the Clerk of the Market one week's rent without reference to the day of the week on which the payment shall be made; and on the Monday following he or she shall pay to the said Clerk one week's rent in advance, and continue so to do in like manner every succeeding Monday; and in default of such payment in advance on every Monday, it shall be lawful for the said Clerk, the next day after such default, to take summary possession of the stall or stalls in respect of which such default shall have been made, any license or authority to the contrary notwithstanding; and in such case the Town Clerk may, with the consent of the Mayor, cause a license or authority to be issued to any other person or persons to occupy the same: Provided always, that whenever the Town Clerk shall issue such license or authority the person previously occupying, and his or her sureties, shall be liable only on their bond for what tolls or dues shall at that time be actually due from such person so making default in payment in advance.

19. There shall be paid by every grower or producer bringing produce for sale to the Building marked A, the sum of sixpence for each load so brought, exclusive of the stall dues; and there shall be paid by the holders of stalls in the Buildings marked respectively B, C, and D, exclusive of the stall dues, the following sums for goods brought for sale by them to their stalls, that is to say, for every load, if drawn by one horse or other animal, one shilling; if drawn by two horses or other animals, one shilling and sixpence; if drawn by three horses or other animals, two shillings; and if drawn by four or more horses or other animals, two shillings and sixpence.

20. That no grower or producer, or his or her servant or agent, shall sell in the Building marked A before ten o'clock in the forenoon, less than half a bushel of fruit, or less than two dozen of cabbages and cauliflowers, or less than one dozen bundles of turnips or carrots, or less than ten shillings' worth of any other commodities, at any one time.

21. That any person who may be desirous of having his or her name and calling fixed up to any stall, or to have the same enclosed or fitted up in any particular way, shall apply to the Clerk of the Market, under whose directions the same shall be done at the cost of the applicant.

PENALTIES.

22. If any person shall resist the Clerk of the Market in the exercise of his duty, whether in the Market or out of it, such person shall, over and above any other penalty which he or she may incur for assault, or otherwise, forfeit and pay for each offence any sum not more than five pounds.

23. If the occupier of any stall in the market, shall place, or cause, or suffer to be placed, beyond the line of pillars and opposite his or her stall, any goods, and shall not immediately remove such goods at the request of the Clerk of the Market, he or she shall for every offence, forfeit and pay any sum not more than twenty shillings.

24. If any person shall write or cause to be written any name or notice over or on his or her stall in the market, or shall put any hooks, nails, or pegs, in any part of the wood or stonework of such stall, or shall in any way fit up or enclose such stall without the consent or contrary to the directions of the Clerk of the Market, or shall refuse to take down any fittings to such stall, when required so to do by such Clerk, he or she shall for every such offence, forfeit and pay any sum not more than twenty shillings.

25. If any person shall sweep or cause to be swept, any dirt or rubbish into the centre gutter, or any other part of the Market Buildings, and allow it to remain there, he or she shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not more than forty shillings.

26. Any person selling or offering for sale in the Market, any article before the ringing of the bell, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten shillings for each offence.

27. Any person selling potatoes other than by weight in the Building marked C, shall for every offence forfeit and pay a sum not less than ten shillings nor more than five pounds.

28. That any person selling or exposing for sale, in any of the Market Buildings, any article or thing not hereinbefore appointed to be sold therein; and any person selling or exposing to sale any article or thing whatever, in the open spaces between the buildings, or adjoining to the same, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than five shillings, nor more than forty shillings; and any such person neglecting or refusing to remove any article or thing exposed to sale as aforesaid, after an order from the Clerk of the Market, or his assistant, to remove the same, shall forfeit and pay an additional sum, not less than twenty shillings, nor more than five pounds, and it shall be lawful for the Clerk of the Market and his assistants to cause all such articles so exposed for sale to be removed.

29. Any person selling or offering for sale by the hundred, or hundred weight, any article deficient in weight, by such standard, shall forfeit and pay for each offence a sum not less than twenty shillings, nor more than five pounds.

30. If the holder of any stall in the Market shall not, on every morning within one hour after the ringing of the bell, cleanse such stall and the space in front thereof, as far as the centre of the building, by sweeping the same, and throwing thereon not less than six gallons of water, he or she shall for every offence forfeit and pay any sum not more than forty shillings.

31. If any person selling or exposing for sale in the Market live poultry or pigs, shall not keep the same in coops with rail bottoms, supported by legs, and raised eighteen inches above the flags, he or she shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not more than forty shillings.

32. If any person bringing goods for sale to the Market in any cart, carriage or barrow, shall not remove such cart, carriage or barrow from the Markets and streets adjoining, at or before the morning bell, or if arriving after that time, within thirty minutes after their arrival, he or she shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not more than forty shillings.

33. If any person, during Market hours, shall bring any cart, or other carriage or barrow, inside or between the Market buildings, he or she shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not more than forty shillings: Provided always, that any licensed porter may ply for hire, with a basket or barrow in the open space between the Market buildings.

34. If any person shall improperly keep any cart, or other carriage or wheelbarrow in any part of the Market-place after having been required to remove the same by the Clerk of the Market, he shall, over and above any other penalty that he may incur, forfeit and pay, for every such offence any sum not more than forty shillings.

35. If any person (except the bona fide grower or producer, or his or her servant or agent) shall sell or offer, or expose for sale any goods, in the Building marked A, he or she shall for every such offence, forfeit and pay any sum not more than five pounds; and the proof of the person informed against for such offence being the grower or producer, servant or agent, shall always be on such person.

36. If any person shall purchase any goods in any part of the Market except in the Building marked A, and shall re-sell the same or any part thereof in the Market, he or she shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not more than forty shillings.

37. If any person shall sell, or expose for sale in any part of the City of Sydney, except in the Market, or in the house or shop of the person so selling, any beef, mutton, or other butchers' meat, or any pork, bacon, hams, butter, cheese, eggs, poultry, game, or potatoes, or any other esculent roots, or fruits, vegetables, or garden produce of any description, he or she for every such offence shall forfeit and pay any sum not more than five pounds: Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from selling in any part of the City, any potatoes, or other esculent roots, or fruits, vegetables, or garden produce, on payment of two shillings and sixpence per week to the Clerk of the Market.

38. If any person shall sell or expose for sale any goods in the Market, without having first paid the Clerk of the Market any dues that may be demandable in respect thereof, or shall not pay such Clerk on demand any fees or dues which he may lawfully demand in pursuance of these Bye-laws, such person shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not more than forty shillings.

39. If any person shall go into, or shall appear in the Market drunk, or shall be disorderly therein, or shall create any riot or disturbance, or curse or swear, or use any gross, indecent, or abusive language, or be guilty of any gross or indecent conduct therein, or shall smoke therein, every such person shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not more than five pounds.

40. If any grower or producer, or his or her servant or agent, shall sell in the shed A, before the hour of ten o'clock in the morning, less than half a bushel of fruit, or less than two dozen cabbages or cauliflowers, or less than one dozen bundles of turnips or carrots, or less than ten shillings' worth of any other commodities, at any one time, he or she shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not more than five pounds.

41. Any party or parties offending against the provisions of the Bye-law No. 8, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than ten shillings and not more than forty shillings for every such offence.

J. R. WILSHIRE, Mayor.

Passed the Council, of the City of Sydney,

VICTORIA by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen,
 Defender of the Faith, &c.

To all and singular clerks and literate persons whomsoever and whensoever in and throughout our Colony of New South Wales and the Dependencies thereof,

GREETING;

WE do hereby authorise, empower, and strictly enjoin and command you, jointly and severally, peremptorily to cite, or cause to be cited, Paul Louis De' Huon, of or near to Campbelltown, in the Colony of New South Wales, farmer, the last surviving Executor named in the last Will and Testament of Joseph Hately, late of George-street, Sydney, in the said Colony of New South Wales, gentleman, deceased, (having, whilst living; and at the time of his death, goods, chattels, and credits within our said Colony or the dependencies thereof, sufficient to found the jurisdiction of our Supreme Court,) to appear personally or by his proctor duly constituted, before our said Court, at the Court House, King-street Sydney, on the sixteenth day after he shall have been served with this citation, if it shall be a Court day, or on the Court day then next following, at the hour of Ten o'clock in the forenoon of the same day, and there to abide, if occasion shall require, during the sitting of the said Court, then and there to accept or refuse the burden of the probate and execution thereof, otherwise to shew good and sufficient cause why Letters of Administration in the Will annexed of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, left unadministered by Charles Smith and Thomas Bowen, two of the executors who have departed this life, and who had previously taken upon themselves the probate and execution of the same Will, and for some time intermeddled in the goods of the said deceased, should not be granted according to law; and further to do and receive, as unto law and justice shall appertain, under pain of the law and contempt thereof, at the instance of John Smith, of O'Connell-street, Sydney, aforesaid, the duly constituted Attorney of Joseph Piercy, of Holt-street, in the parish of Aston, nigh Birmingham, in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain, called England, platers' filer, and Elizabeth, his wife, William Ashwell, of Great Lister-street, Ashsted, in the said parish of Aston, nigh Birmingham, nailor, and James Ashwell, of Maw Green, near Walsall, in the County of Stafford, awl-blade maker, which said Elizabeth Piercy, William Ashwell, and James Ashwell, are three of the Devises and Legatees named in the Will of the said Joseph Hatley, deceased, and what you shall do or cause to be done in the premises, you shall duly certify unto our said Court, together with these presents.

Witness—The Honorable ALFRED STEPHEN, our Chief Justice of our Supreme Court of New South Wales, at Sydney, the fifth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

(Signed) G. P. F. GREGORY, (L.S.)

Registrar.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

NOTICE OF HEARINGS.

THE Commissioners hereby give notice of their intention to proceed in the investigation of the undermentioned Claims to Lands, the descriptions of which for Deeds of Grant have been fully set forth in former advertisements. Monday, the 29th day of June inst. and the following days at Eleven o'clock have been appointed for the hearings, and all parties interested are required to be in attendance with their documents and witnesses.

NO. OF CASE.	NAME OF CLAIMANT.	NAME OF SOLICITOR.
1251	George Hambridge, of Coventry Farm, Bringelly
1252	{ Robert Archibald Alison Morehead and Mathew Young, of Sydney, Esquires	{ Holden, Chambers, & McCarthy
1253	George Cooper Turner, of Sydney, Esquire, Solicitor

By the direction of the Commissioners,
JOHN THOMPSON, Secretary.

Court of Claims' Office, June 6, 1846.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following Claims for Deeds of Grant of Land will be ready for the examination of the Commissioners appointed for that purpose, under the Act of Council, 5 Wm. IV., No. 21, at the expiration of two months from this date, before which day any caveat or counter claim must be entered at this Office. Due notice will be given of the days appointed for the hearings.

Special Case No. 1252—Robert Archibald Alison Morehead, and Mathew Young, of Sydney, Esquires, by their Attorneys, Holden, Chambers and McCarthy.

One thousand acres, in the County of Roxburgh, and parish of Kelso; bounded on the east side by a line bearing south two hundred and thirty chains, commencing at Thomas Hobby's south-west corner; on the north by a line west sixty-five chains to H. Cox's eastern boundary; on the west by the farms of H. Cox, George Cox, John Redmond, and the Government reserved land, bearing south 29½ degrees east fifty-three chains thirty links, west 30 degrees south forty chains, south 30 degrees east thirty chains, west 30 degrees south ten chains, south 29½ degrees east eighty-one chains thirty links, and by a line bearing south to the Fish River; and on the south by that river.

This land it would appear was located in pursuance of an order of Sir Thomas Brisbane, dated 28th September, 1825, in favor of James McBrien, who it is alleged sold to Jonathan Haseall, who sold to John Terry Hughes, who mortgaged to claimants, whose Estate has become absolute by default of payment by the said John Terry Hughes.

Case No. 1253.—George Cooper Turner, of Sydney, Esquire, solicitor.

Forty acres, in the County of Cumberland, parish of Willoughby, near the Crow's Nest; commencing at the south-west corner of James Henry's sixty acres grant; and bounded partly on the north by that land, being a line bearing east twelve chains; on the west by the same land, being a line bearing north 32 degrees west twenty-five chains; on the remainder of the north by a line bearing east nineteen chains seventy links; on the east by a line bearing south thirty-four chains; on the south by a line bearing west nine chains to the east boundary of Edward Woolstoncraft's five hundred and twenty acres grant; and on the remainder of the west by part of the east boundary of that land, being a line bearing north 32 degrees west sixteen chains forty links to the south-west corner of James Henry's sixty acres as aforesaid.

This land was located on an order of Governor Darling's, dated 20th October, 1830, in favor of John Robey C. Hatfield, from whom it is alleged it passed to Mr. Archibald Mossman, and from him to claimant; the above description was previously inserted in the Gazette notice of 13th June, 1840, preparatory to the making out of a Deed of Grant in favor of the aforesaid Archibald Mossman.

By the direction of the Commissioners,

JOHN THOMPSON, Secretary.

Court of Claims Office, 28th April, 1846.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following Claims for Deeds of Grant of Land and of a Town allotment will be ready for the examination of the Commissioners appointed for that purpose, under the Act of Council, 5 Wm. IV., No. 21, at the expiration of two months from this date, before which day any caveat or counter claim must be entered at this Office. Due notice will be given of the days appointed for the hearings.

Case No. 1254.—Mrs. Sophia Beeson, of Sydney, widow, by her attorney James Norton, Esquire.

Nineteen perches, County of Cumberland, City of Sydney, parish of St. Lawrence, allotment No. 6 of section No. 16; bounded on the east by Elizabeth-street, bearing north 3 degrees 15 minutes west 106 links; on the north by Park-street, bearing west 2 degrees south 114 links; on the west by No. 7 allotment, bearing south 3 degrees 30 minutes east 104 links; and on the south by No. 5 allotment, bearing east 2 degrees 30 minutes north 114 links.

A Deed of Grant of this land having, in consequence of an erroneous announcement in the Gazette dated 13th April, 1839, issued in favor of Thomas Beeson instead of John Beeson, now deceased, the Deed is void, and a fresh Deed is prayed for by claimant, by whom the property was purchased of Edward Whitehouse, on the 16th December, 1820, prior to her marriage with the said John Beeson, who had no title thereto, it not being a leasehold.

Case No. 1255.—James McRoberts, of Church-street, Parramatta.

One hundred and fifty acres, in the County of Cook, and parish unnamed, at Cooba, near Burragarang, situated on the north-east side of Cox's River; bounded on the east by a line north 55 chains; on the north by a line west 45 chains to Cox's River; and on the south and west by Cox's River.

This land was located on an order of Sir Thomas Brisbane, dated 3rd February, 1826, in favor of Sarah Harrix, whose daughter claimant has married. The above description was inserted in the Gazette notice under date 6th November, 1837, preparatory to the making out of a Deed of Grant in favor of the original promisee.

By the direction of the Commissioners,

JOHN THOMPSON,
Secretary.
