Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 19th August 1847

E. DEAS THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Concluded at Johanna, November 8, 1844; ratified, December 10, 1845.

Statement of the Requisitions made to His Highness the Sultan Selim of the Island of Johanna, by Sir Cornwallis Ricketts, Bart., Commander of Her Majesty's sloop "Helena," acting under the Orders of Christopher Wyvill, Esquire, Captain of Her Majesty's ship "Cleopatra," and Senior Officer on the East Coast of Africa.

1st. The Sultan to abolish the foreign Slave Trade for ever in his dominions.

2nd. The Sultan to order the seizure of all vessels belonging to his subjects found carrying on the foreign Slave Traffic, and to seize and punish the captain and crew as pirates.

3rd. The Sultan to punish all persons among his subjects serving on board vessels dealing in Slaves, who do not give information to the Sultan or his Governors, that they have been Slave dealing.

4th. Vessels having implements of Slave Trade, such as shackles, bolts, handcuffs, chains, whips, branding irons, on board, to be considered the same as if found actually carrying Slaves.

5th. The Sultan to authorise British cruizers to seize all vessels belonging to his subjects, that may be found with Slaves or with Slave implements on board, after the expiration of four months from this date.

6th. The Sultan or his Governors to provide all vessels belonging to his subjects with passes (port clearance); any vessel found without such port clearance to be seized, according to the 5th Requisition, by any British cruizer that may meet them.

7th. All vessels seized by British cruizers to be sent to the nearest or most convenient British Vice-Admiralty Court for adjudication. In the event of being condemned, the vessels and their cargoes to be sold for the profit of the two Governments, but the Slaves to be set free in a British colony.

8th. The Sultan to at once proclaim a law, by which the stipulations of this Engagement shall be publicly known to all his people.

Done at Montsamolo, Island of Johanna, in duplicate originals, November the 8th, 1844, (the 26th of the month of Shawal of the Hejira).

(Signed)
CORNWALLIS RICKETTS, (L.S.)
Commander of Her Majesty's sloop Helena.

Statement of the Agreement made by us, Sultan Selim, son of Sultan Alawi, with our auspicious brother the Captain Sir Cornwallis Ricketts, Bart, Commander of Her Majesty's sloop "Helena." (Translated from the Arabic, under the hand and seal of the Sultan Selim.)

1st. There shall be no dealing in Slaves in our territory, and no Slaves shall be imported to be sold in our country. We positively prohibit it and forbid it absolutely.

2nd. And I declare and command my subjects, that all who carry off Slaves and sell them, shall be seized, captain and crew, and be treated in the same manner as they who cut off navigation (pirates.)

3rd. Every vessel that goes from hence, belonging to my subjects, for the purpose of trading in Slaves, if it be done without the order of the owner, then punishment shall be inflicted upon the commander and crew; if it be done by order of the owner, then he shall be punished.

4th. Every vessel of my people shall be treated as if engaged in Traffic for Slaves, on board which shall be found chains and fetters, and shackles of iron in greater number than two or three, sufficient for the correction of any of the crew who may be refractory.

5th. I permit that there may be an inspection, for the purpose of discovering dealing in Slaves, after four months.

6th. Any vessel that may be met with at sea, which has not a written document (a pass,) and is without a seal, such as furnishes a proper explanation (of her purposes,) may be seized as a dealer in Slaves.

7th. When any vessel laden with Slaves, or that has carried off Slaves, has been seized according to law, and the Slaves with her, and it is proved that she is engaged in the Slave Trade, she may be sent to an English port, to be there disposed of, both with respect to the Slaves and to the value (of the ship and other cargo.) The Slaves shall depart free; the property shall be partitioned, and one part shall go to the English Sultan, the other to the Sultan, that is to say, Sultan Selim.

8th. If it be the will of God these orders will be promulgated, so that the command may be publicly known and obeyed.

It is to be understood that the Mails are to be dispatched on the days and hours to be fixed by the Postmaster-General, either according to the present arrangement, or as he may afterwards determine for the public convenience.

It will be optional with parties to offer for one or more of the above lines of stages, and to propose the mode of conveyance; but on all roads where wheel vehicles can travel, a preference will be given to carriage conveyance, and the Contractors will be held strictly bound to use the conveyance they propose, and to travel at the rate agreed upon. The rate of travelling is not to be less than six miles per hour, including all stoppages. The Contractors are to carry all bags and letters which may be delivered to them under authority of the Postmaster-General, or any of the Postmasters, and to provide secure lockers for the Mails in carriages, and dry coverings for the bags on horseback.

Contractors will be bound to prevent the conveyance of any letter or packet, by any of their servants or passengers, or otherwise, to the prejudice of the Post Office Revenue, under penalty of £5 for each and every offence.

Contractors will be liable to a fine of five shillings for every five minutes delay after the specified time of starting; and to a like penalty for every ten minutes delay after the specified time of arrival, except for the first five or ten minutes respectively.

Contractors will be strictly bound not to assign any portion of their Contract without consent of the Postmaster-General.

A Mail Cart or Carriage, drawn only by one horse, must not carry more than one passenger; by two horses, not more than three passengers and by three or more horses, not more than six passengers, exclusive of the driver, under a penalty of £3 for each offence.

All vehicles and horses employed in the conveyance of Mails are to be at all times subject to the inspection and approval, or rejection of the Postmaster-General, or person appointed by him for that purpose.

The drivers and postmen are to be free men, and of certified good character.

All fines and penalties incurred under the agreement are to be deducted by the Postmaster-General, from the next quarterly instalment falling due to the Contractor, and to be considered as over and above any penalties provided by any Act of Council.

Each party tendering or an agent for him, must attend at this office on the day appointed for opening the Tenders; and each Tender must bear the signature of two respectable and solvent persons, engaging to enter into a bond with the Contractor for the safety of the Mails and the due performance of the Contract, and every stipulation therein.

The hours of starting from each Post Office or stage and other particulars, may be ascertained at the General Post Office, where parties proposing to Tender are invited to seek information.

Printed forms of Tender may be had on application at the General and all other Post Offices throughout the Colony.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 14th August, 1847.
