FAMILIES OF EXILES.

HER Majesty's Government having determined to defray a moiety of the expense of conveying to this Colony, the families of those married persons who arrived at Port Phillip as "Exiles" from Great Britain, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified that, in any case in which the Exile shall place in the hands of the Local Government a sum sufficient to cover one-half the expense of conveying his wife and children to the Colony, the other half will be defrayed by the Home Government.

Persons of this class, therefore, who are desirous of availing themselves of this indulgence, will make application accordingly to His Honor the Superintendent of Port Phillip, if still resident in that District, or otherwise to the Principal Superintendent of Convicts in Sydney.

As, however, it will not be possible to predetermine the actual expense of providing passages for each such family, the applicants will be required to deposit in the Colony such a sum of money as will cover one moiety of the probable expense, calculated according to the following scale, and the balance (if any) after paying a moiety of the actual expense incurred, will be returned to the parties, namely :—

|                                       | Passage Money. | Deposit. |
|---------------------------------------|----------------|----------|
| Wife .....                            | 18             | 10       |

| Each Child under fourteen years ..... | 9              | 5        |

IMMIGRATION.

WITH reference to the Government Notice of 7th April, 1847, respecting the allowance of Bounties for Emigrants from the Continent of Europe, in which the testimonials of intended Immigrants are required to be authenticated, by a certificate of the Secretary to the Land and Emigration Commissioners in London, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, with a view to meet a case of possible occurrence, in which this obligation might involve considerable inconvenience and expense, that in the event of a laborer being engaged at the port of embarkation, in order to supply a vacancy of unexpected occurrence, the signature of the British Consul at such Port will be admitted in lieu of the signature of the Secretary to the Land and Emigration Commissioners, if accompanied by such Consul's certificate, that the interval between the laborer's selection and the time fixed for the ship's sailing was too short to admit of the usual reference to the Commissioners in London, or that there was some equally valid cause for non-compliance with the regulation requiring such reference.

His Excellency also directs it to be explained, in order to remove a misapprehension which appears to have been entertained by some persons interested in the objects of the Notice of 7th April, 1847, that it is not intended that either the laborers selected for Emigration under that Notice, or the persons who selected them, should present themselves, with the certificates, at the office of the Land and Emigration Commissioners in London, but merely that the certificates should be sent to that office for inspection and approval.

It will be optional with parties to offer for one or more of the above lines of stages, and to propose the mode of conveyance; but on all roads where wheel vehicles can travel, a preference will be given to carriage conveyance, and the Contractors will be held strictly bound to use the conveyance they propose, and to travel at the rate agreed upon. The rate of travelling is not to be less than six miles per hour, including all stoppages. The Contractors are to carry all bags and letters which may be delivered to them under authority of the Postmaster-General, or any of the Postmasters, and to provide secure lockers for the Mails in carriages, and dry coverings for the bags on horseback.

Contractors will be bound to prevent the conveyance of any letter or packet, by any of their servants or passengers, or otherwise, to the prejudice of the Post Office Revenue, under penalty of £5 for each and every offence.

Contractors will be liable to a fine of five shillings for every five minutes delay after the specified time of starting; and to a like penalty for every ten minutes delay after the specified time of arrival, except for the first five or ten minutes respectively.

The drivers and postmen are to be free men, and of certified good character.

All fines and penalties incurred under the agreement are to be deducted by the Postmaster-General, from the next quarterly instalment falling due to the Contractor, and to be considered as over and above any penalties provided by any Act of Council.

Each party tendering or an agent for him, must attend at this office on the day appointed for opening the Tenders; and each Tender must bear the signature of two respectable and solvent persons, engaging to enter into a bond with the Contractor for the safety of the Mails and the due performance of the Contract, and every stipulation therein.
