IT is Ordered, that a Criminal Sessions and General Gaol Delivery of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, for the District of Port Phillip, be holden at the Court House, La Trobe-street, in the Town of Melbourne, on Wednesday, the fifteenth day of December now next ensuing, at the hour of Ten o'clock in the Forenoon, at which all parties concerned are requested to give their attendance.

Dated this ninth day of November,
A.D., one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

WILLIAM A. BECKETT,
Resident Judge.

PROCLAMATION.

By his Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight, Companion of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Captain General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS the Legislative Council of New South Wales now stands prorogued to Tuesday, the 16th day of November instant, and it is expedient further to prorogue the same: Now, therefore, I, Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight Companion of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested, as Governor of the said Colony, do hereby further prorogue the said Legislative Council to Tuesday, the 28th day of December now next ensuing.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Sydney, this first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and in the eleventh year of her Majesty's Reign.

CHS. A. FITZ ROY.

By his Excellency's command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

COURT OF REQUESTS FOR THE COUNTY OF BOURKE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Court of Requests for the County of Bourke, will be holden in the Court-house, Collins-street, Melbourne, on Monday the 6th, and following days of December, 1847, at the hour of nine o'clock in the forenoon.

Plaints must be delivered at the office of the Registrar, on or before Monday, the 29th day of November instant.

Defences or Set-offs must be filed on or before Friday, the 3rd day of December next. Every plaint, defence, or set-off must have the name, residence, or place of business of the plaintiff and defendant written thereon.

In defended cases, the defence or notice of set-off must be in accordance with the form prescribed by the late rules of court.

J. S. GRIFFIN,
Registrar.

November 4, 1847.

Superintendent's Office,
Melbourne, November 9, 1847.

WHARFAGE AND TONNAGE RATES AT THE QUEEN'S WHARF.

At twelve o'clock on Saturday, 4th December next, the Sub-Treasurer will put up to auction, at the Sub-Treasury, Melbourne, the Lease for one year, commencing the 1st January, 1848, of the Wharfage and Tonnage Rates payable at the Queen's Wharf, Melbourne, under the provisions of the Act of the Governor and Council 10 Victoria No. 11.

The Lessee will be entitled to the free use of the Wharf, to collect dues, for depositing goods thereon, either for shipment or discharge, as well as for all other purposes appertaining to a Wharf.

The use of the Customs shed near the Wharf will be allowed to the lessee of the Rates when not fully occupied by the Customs Department.

The use of the Wharf will be reserved as a public thoroughfare, or of the landing or embarking passengers and other persons at the same, free of any charge whatsoever; and the steps will have to be kept free from all goods or other obstructions.

The person who shall be declared to be the highest bidder, if the bidding be accepted, must immediately enter into a Bond with two sufficient sureties, each of whom is to be present at the knocking down of the rates, and Warrant of Attorney, securing regular payment of the rent by equal monthly instalments, before the expiration of seven days after the termination of each month, containing an engagement binding them to a due observance of the conditions.

Further particulars may be obtained by application at the Sub-Treasury.

(Signed) C. J. LA TROBE.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 1st Nov. 1847.

POLICE BEYOND THE BOUNDARIES, PORT PHILLIP.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint

Mr. GEORGE ST. CLAIR

Chief Constable at the Broken River.

By his Excellency's command,

E. DEAS THOMSON.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight Companion of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Governor and Legislative Council of New South Wales, passed in the sixth year of the reign of her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled, "An Act to consolidate and amend the laws relating to Courts of Requests, and to extend the jurisdiction of such Courts in the County of Cumberland, and again amended by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of her said Majesty, intituled, "An Act to amend the laws relating to Courts of Requests, in the City of Sydney and County of Cumberland, and in the Town of Melbourne and County of Bourke respectively," it was in the said first recited Act, amongst other things, enacted, that from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, Courts of Requests should be holden in and for such Counties and Districts, or other portions of this Colony and its Dependencies, and at such places respectively, as the Governor should by Proclamation for that purpose from time to time appoint; and whereas by the last recited Act it was enacted, that all Courts of Requests, established or to be established within the City of Sydney, and County of Cumberland, and in the Town of Melbourne and County of Bourke, should respectively have power and authority to hear and determine, in a summary way, all actions whatsoever for the recovery of any debt, demand, or damage, whether liquidated or unliquidated, to an amount not exceeding thirty pounds; now I, the said Governor, in pursuance of the power and authority so vested in me, by the said first recited Act, do hereby direct and appoint, that Courts of Requests in and for the Town of Melbourne and County of Bourke, shall be holden during the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, at the Town of Melbourne, at the times hereinafter respectively mentioned, that is to say:—

The Ordinary Sittings of the Court of Requests for the Town of Melbourne, and County of Bourke, for the trial of all cases not exceeding ten pounds, shall be holden on the following days respectively, viz:—Monday, 3rd January; Monday, 7th February; Monday, 6th March; Monday, 3rd April; Monday, 1st May; Monday, 5th June; Monday, 3rd July; Monday, 7th August; Monday, 4th September; Monday, 2nd October; Monday, 6th November; Monday, 4th December.

The new Sittings of the said Court for the trial of all cases from ten to thirty pounds, shall be holden on the following days respectively, viz:—Thursday, 10th February; Thursday, 6th April; Thursday, 8th June; Thursday, 3rd August; Thursday, 5th October; Thursday, 7th December.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Sydney, this eleventh day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and in the eleventh year of her Majesty's reign.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The document also notes that records should be kept for a sufficient period of time to allow for a thorough review if necessary.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific requirements for record-keeping. It states that all transactions must be recorded in a clear and concise manner, and that the records must be accessible to authorized personnel at all times. The document also specifies that records should be stored in a secure location and that access should be restricted to those who have a legitimate need for the information.

3. The third part of the document discusses the role of internal controls in ensuring the accuracy of the records. It notes that internal controls are designed to prevent errors and to detect any irregularities that may occur. The document also states that internal controls should be reviewed regularly to ensure that they are effective and up-to-date.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of training and education for personnel involved in record-keeping. It states that personnel should be trained in the proper procedures for recording transactions and in the use of the record-keeping system. The document also notes that ongoing education is necessary to keep personnel up-to-date on any changes in the system or in the requirements.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the role of external audits in ensuring the accuracy of the records. It notes that external audits are conducted by independent auditors who are not affiliated with the organization. The document also states that external audits provide an objective assessment of the organization's financial records and can help to identify any areas of weakness or potential fraud.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of transparency and accountability in the financial system. It states that transparency is essential for building trust and for ensuring that the system is operating fairly. The document also notes that accountability is necessary to ensure that personnel are held responsible for their actions and that any irregularities are promptly addressed.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the role of technology in record-keeping. It notes that technology can be used to improve the efficiency and accuracy of the record-keeping process. The document also states that technology can be used to provide real-time access to the records and to detect any anomalies that may occur.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of regular reviews and updates of the record-keeping system. It states that the system should be reviewed regularly to ensure that it is still effective and up-to-date. The document also notes that updates should be made as needed to reflect any changes in the system or in the requirements.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining a strong ethical culture within the organization. It states that a strong ethical culture is essential for ensuring that personnel act in a fair and honest manner. The document also notes that a strong ethical culture can help to prevent fraud and to ensure that the financial system is operating in the best interests of the organization.
