PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight, Companion of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the fifth and sixth year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the carriage of Passengers in Merchant Vessels," it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, or Officer administering the government of any British Colony, (other than the Colonies therein specifically provided for,) to declare, by Proclamation to be issued for that purpose; that the said Act, except as therein is excepted, shall be extended, and shall apply to the carriage of Passengers by sea from any such Colony to such places as may by him be named for the purpose in such Proclamation; and thereupon the said Act shall be thenceforth so extended, and shall apply accordingly;— And whereas it is, by the said Act, further enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, or Officer administering the government of any of the British Colonies, to which the said Act, as respects the carriage of Passengers by sea therefrom, shall have been extended by Proclamation, as thereinbefore is mentioned by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be by him from time to time issued for that purpose, to declare the rule of computation by which the length of the voyage of any ships carrying Passengers from such Colony to any other place, shall be estimated for the purposes of the said Act: Now, I, Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, the Governor aforesaid, by this my Proclamation issued for that purpose, do declare that subject to the exceptions therein contained, the said Act shall be extended, and shall apply to the carriage of Passengers by sea from New South Wales aforesaid to any one of the places hereinafter named; and I do hereby further declare, that the following shall be the rule of computation by which the length of the voyage of any ship carrying Passengers from New South Wales to each such place shall be estimated for the purposes of the said Act, (that is to say):—

For a voyage to the United Kingdom—
one hundred and eighty days.

For a voyage to the Cape of Good Hope—one hundred and ten days.

For a voyage to Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay—one hundred days.

For a voyage, to Ceylon—one hundred days.

For a voyage to China—one hundred days.

For a voyage to Manilla or Batavia—
ninety days.

For a voyage to Mauritius or Singapore—
ninety days.

For a voyage to the Western Coast of America—sixty days.

For a voyage to the Eastern Coast of America—one hundred days.

For a voyage to Tahiti, or the South Sea Islands—fifty days.

For a voyage to Western Australia—forty days.

For a voyage to South Australia—twenty-five days.

For a voyage to New Zealand—twenty-one days.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Sydney, this twenty-ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and in the eleventh year of Her Majesty's Reign.

(L. s.) CHS. A. FITZ ROY.

By his Excellency's Command,

E. DEAS THOMSON.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

Colonial Secretary's office,
Sydney, 22nd November, 1847.

CORRESPONDENCE—PORT PHILLIP.

INCONVENIENCE having been experienced by the Government in consequence of communications being frequently received from the District of Port Phillip, which have not been submitted, in the first instance, to his Honor the Superintendent of that District, his Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, for general information, that any Officer of Government, or private individual, residing in the Port Phillip District, who has occasion to address any representation to the Government, must make his Honor the Superintendent the medium of his communication.

Whenever this course is departed from, the representation, of whatever nature it may be, must, in every case, be referred back for that Officer's report.

By his Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 1st November, 1847.
PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.

ALL persons having claims on the Colonial Treasury are requested to furnish their accounts through the proper channel, before the end of the year, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

The several Collectors and Officers in the receipt of public monies, will pay over to the Colonial Treasurer, on or before the 31st of December, the amount of all collections remaining in their hands, respectively up to that date, so that the entire Revenue collected by each, may be credited in the Accounts of the year within which it was received.

The Heads of Departments and other Officers, who have received advances to enable them to defray expenses incurred under their superintendence, are requested to furnish to the Audit Office, as far as practicable, and with all convenient despatch, the accounts of the expenditure thereof, and on or before the last day of December, to pay into the Colonial Treasury, the unexpended balance of such advances, that the adjustment of the same may appear in the accounts to 31st proximo.

They will also, as soon as practicable, after the close of the year, bring forward all accounts of expenses incurred within the same, which do not admit of being previously settled, so that if possible all the expenses incurred in the present year may be finally adjusted and liquidated.

The Colonial Treasurer is requested to use his endeavours to give effect to these directions, and to report through the proper channel, for the information of His Excellency the Governor, any instance of neglect in complying therewith, on the part of the Government Officers concerned.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 1st December, 1847.
POLICE.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint

George Stewart, Esquire, to be Police Magistrate at Alberton, in Gipps Land, in the District of Port Phillip—to take effect from the 1st January next.
