NOTICE.

THE system of recording all Transfers of Goods in Bond, as introduced in the year 1846, having been found to work extremely ill, the Honorable the Board of Customs have authorised its being altered, with the sanction of His Excellency the Governor; and notice is therefore hereby given, that in future no transfer of such goods will be recorded in the Transfer Book, except in cases where the goods sold are the property of the occupier of a Bonding Warehouse, as provided for in the 9th section of the Imperial Act of Parliament, 8 and 9 Victoria, chap. 91; and that no goods will in future be delivered from the warehouse except upon the order of the person whose name is endorsed on the back of the bonding certificate, which will render it necessary that every time a sale of goods in bond takes place, the seller shall endorse on the back of the bonding certificate that the goods are sold to the person to whom the certificate is transferred.

In all cases the purchaser of goods under bond is authorised, by the 66th section of the 9th Victoria, No. 15, to give security, by bond, that no part of such goods shall be taken out of the warehouse until duly entered for home consumption or exportation, thereby showing that he is the owner of those goods, a course, however, which has never been adopted in this Colony, even when the transfer system was not in force.

Simmonds sold to Farrell Cuff, who, in 1839 sold to John Cuff, who dying, devised to Farrell Cuff, who dying, devised in trust to Charles Farrell, (now deceased,) and George Mitchell, the Claimant. McKeone the opponent alleges, that on the 15th June, 1846, Farrell Cuff conveyed to him on condition of support during life. It will be necessary to shew how Simmonds became possessed.
