(No. 48-63.)

Sydney, 1st July, 1848.

SIR,

In forwarding the Rules and Regulations which we have now the honor to submit for the approval of His Excellency the Governor, and which we propose for adoption in the future management of the Denominational Schools in this Colony, we beg, for the information of His Excellency, to advert to the circumstances that have called for the framing of new Rules and Regulations for these Schools.

The Act of the Governor and Council of this Colony, which appropriated the sums of money to be applied out of the Public Revenue, for the support of the schools belonging to the Church of England, the Presbyterian, the Wesleyan, and the Roman Catholic Denominations, having enacted that these sums should be expended under the direction of a Board of Inspection to be appointed by the Governor, we were requested by your letter of the 4th January last, to become the Members of that Board, and "to suggest for the consideration and approval of the Governor, a code of Regulations for the conduct and inspection of the Schools of the above Denominations, embracing the appointment and remuneration of Schoolmasters, the system and extent or degree of Education to be taught in these schools, and the terms on which the children of paupers shall be admitted; in fact, all that relates to the fiscal and temporal part of education, it being clearly understood that all that relates to the religious instruction of the children will be exclusively entrusted to, and regulated by the resident Clergymen to which the School belongs."

Upon entering on the performance of these duties, and upon enquiring into the mode of remuneration for the Schoolmasters, we found that the Schools were divided into two classes.

1st.—Those established prior to the year 1837, in which the Masters were paid a fixed Salary by the Government, and were also allowed to charge at the rate of a halfpenny a head per diem, for every child returned by them in their account with the Government as being the child of a pauper.

2nd.—Those established since the year 1836, in which the Masters received no fixed Salary, but were allowed by the Government, in addition to the fees derived from parents, an amount varying from one penny to one penny half-penny per diem for each child, according to the population of the towns or places in which the Schools were situated.

These modes of payment were objected to by most of the Masters, as being uncertain and precarious, and were also very generally disapproved of by the Clergymen of each denomination, as leading to irregular and unjust charges.

We therefore beg to propose the Regulations subjoined under that head, providing that the salaries of Masters, from the Government, shall in all cases be fixed.

We were anxious that this arrangement should commence from this day, but at the urgent request of the Lord Bishop of Sydney, we have been compelled to postpone its operation to January, 1849.

Upon enquiring further into "the system and extent or degree of Education," taught in the Denominational Schools of the Colony, we found by a personal inspection of all in Sydney, and by some in its suburbs, that, for the most part, the mode of teaching in these Schools was capable of considerable improvement, and we are therefore endeavouring to establish an uniform and improved system.

From the best information which we have obtained of the qualifications of the Schoolmasters, we have thought it necessary to establish a Model School for each denomination, where future Masters may be trained, and their attainments tested.

We also found that in some Schools a want of books, maps, and other necessary School furniture, prevailed to an extent calculated to prevent the communication of instruction to the children in classes.

To obviate the effect of this disadvantage, we have prepared the Regulation for the future supply and use of books for each School.

We beg to assure His Excellency, that in framing these Rules and Regulations, we have desired to obtain the concurrence of the Ministers of Religion at the head of each denomination, whose Schools have been entrusted to our inspection, and we have every expectation, from the active co-operation they have already given to our efforts, that we may, in time, be enabled to render the management of the Denominational Schools of this Colony effective and popular.

We have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servants,

C. D. RIDDELL,

Chairman.

GEORGE ALLEN.

THOMAS CALLAGHAN.

ON Tuesday, the first day of August next, a Special General Muster of all ticket of leave holders for the District of Moreton Bay, will be commenced at the Police Office, in North Brisbane, and will be continued until the 14th of the same month, when the Muster Book will be closed, and every absentee will be immediately reported to the Principal Superintendent of Convicts, excepting in instances where the distance is too great to permit personal attendance, or where absence would be a serious inconvenience to the employer, in either of which cases it will be absolutely necessary that the ticket of leave be forwarded to Brisbane, together with a certificate to the above effect, under the hand of the employer, and if the prisoner is residing without the boundaries of the Police District of Moreton Bay, he must state by what authority he does so. A neglect of either of these conditions will cause the offender to be treated as an absentee. All prisoners whose tickets of leave have been granted, but not taken from this Office, are hereby directed to apply at once in person for the same; any such tickets remaining in this Office after the above named 14th day of August, will be returned to the Office of the Principal Superintendent of Convicts.

Prisoners who have applied through this Bench for tickets of leave, and have not yet received a reply, may (if the application has been put in more than three months,) apply at once to the Clerk of the Petty Sessions in order that enquiry may be made; such prisoners will be careful to state correctly their names, ships, sentences, years of arrival, and present places of abode.
