REPAIRS TO THE BREAKWATER, NEWCASTLE.

TENDERS will be received at this Office, until noon of Monday, the 2nd July, from persons willing to contract for the performance of the repairs required to the Breakwater, at Newcastle.

Plan and specification may be seen, and further particulars obtained at the Colonial Architect's Office, Sydney, or at the Police Office, Newcastle.

Tenders are to be made in the form which will be furnished, and must specify the time within which it is proposed to complete the work, and must also state the sum required for the performance of each separate portion thereof as shewn in the plan, and it is to be distinctly understood, that the Government reserves to itself the option of accepting an offer for the whole, or for any one or more portions of the work, as it may consider expedient.

Tenders are to be endorsed, "Tender for repairs, Breakwater, Newcastle," and at the foot of every Tender there must be a memorandum signed by the party tendering, and two responsible persons as sureties, agreeing to be responsible for the due performance of the Contract, in the event of the Tender being accepted, and undertaking in that event, that they will within ten days from the usual notification of the acceptance of the said Tender or any portion thereof, severally execute and deliver at the Office of the Civil Crown Solicitor, in Sydney, or at the Police Office, Newcastle, a Bond to Her Majesty in the penal sum of £500, for securing such performance, otherwise the Tender will not be taken into consideration.

Parties tendering, or their agents, are requested to attend at this Office, at the time named for opening the Tenders to afford any information or explanation that may be required.

For positive sale.—City properties, escheated to the Crown.

MR. MORT has received directions from the Civil Crown Solicitor to sell by public auction, at his rooms, George-street, on the 20th day of June instant, at 11 o'clock, the following Properties, being escheated to the Crown.

Lot 1.

One stone built cottage.

Two weatherboard ditto.

Situate on the western side of Gloucester-street, to which street they have a frontage of forty-three feet ten inches. These cottages are bringing in a nominal rental of 12s. per week.

Lot 2.

An allotment of Land, having eighteen feet two inches frontage to the eastern side of Kent-street, near to Druitt-street, with a depth of seventy-one feet three and a half inches.

On this lot is a weather-board Cottage yielding six shillings a week rental.

Lot 3.

A most valuable piece of Ground having upwards of twenty-three feet frontage to the south side of Erskine-street, near the corner of Kent-street, on which is a good Cottage, renting at seven shillings per week.

This land has an average depth of about sixty-four feet.

Lot 4.

Adjoins Lot 3, and has a frontage to Kent-street, of fifty-four feet, and a frontage to Erskine-street of forty-one feet three inches, being a corner allotment, this is a most valuable plot of ground, commanding, a first rate position, and the very spot upon which a good hotel ought to be erected for the accommodation of the passengers landing from the Parramatta, Hunter River, Moreton Bay, Clarence River, and Port Phillip steamers, a place much wanted in that neighbourhood, and if properly conducted, would command the first business in Sydney. There is a small cottage upon a portion of this land.

Lot 5.

A quarter of an acre of Land, situate on the eastern side of Sussex-street, near to its intersection by Erskine-street, and having upon it two cottages, let at fourteen shillings per week and a most valuable stone quarry being a solid bed of the very best building stone to be met with in or about Sydney.

The frontage to Sussex-street is upwards of eighty-one feet, by an average depth of about 120 feet.

Plans of these properties may be seen at the rooms of the Auctioneer; and all particulars as to title, &c., may be learnt from George Cooper Turner Esq., Civil Crown Solicitor, 452, George-street Sydney.
