CROWN LANDS BEYOND THE SETTLED DISTRICTS.

RUNS OF INSOLVENTS.

REFERRING to that portion of the Regulation of 1st January, 1848, headed "Transfer of Runs," in which it is stated that if a person who had a right to demand a Lease of a Run of Crown Lands in his occupation, under the terms of the 11th section of Chapter 11. of Her Majesty's Order in Council of 9th March, 1847, shall have died or become insolvent without having exercised such right, the demand for the Lease will be received by the Government from his representative, or from any one coming forward on his representative's behalf. His Excellency the Governor deems it proper to caution the Assignees of Insolvent Estates that, in order to secure the rights of their constituents, they must in each case report without delay the sequestration of the Licensee's Estate, and prefer the necessary claims to the Lessees of the Runs in his licensed occupation. 2.—Should the claim be admitted to be valid the Assignee can, at any time, subject to the approval of the Government, transfer his interest in the lease to the person who may become the purchaser of the run from the Insolvent Estate, by observing the formalities prescribed in the first paragraph of the notice of 1st January last, above referred to.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

LAND AND IMMIGRATION DEPOSITS.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, December 22, 1848.

IN pursuance of instructions received from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State, his Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to establish the following regulations under which persons who may deposit in the Colonial Treasury, sums intended by them to be invested in the purchase of crown lands, will receive an allowance of interest thereon, with the right of nominating the emigrants on whose introduction the portion of money which is applicable to emigration purposes shall be expended:—

1. Money intended to be invested in the purchase of crown lands, under the ordinary regulations of the government, may be deposited in the Colonial Treasury, at Sydney or Melbourne, in even sums of not less than £5 each, and on all money so deposited there will be allowed interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, for any period, not exceeding five years from the date of the deposit, during which the money shall remain unapplied to the purchase of crown lands. On any money which shall have remained unapplied to the purchase of crown lands for a period exceeding five years, no further interest will be paid.

2. The interest will be payable in cash half-yearly, and may be demanded at the Treasury on or after the 1st January and the 1st July in each year.

3. For all deposits under this notice, a receipt will be given which will be available as cash at any government land sale, or in payment for any crown land, which having been once offered at auction, may be open to selection under the Regulations of the 1st March, 1843, clauses 11 and 12, or for any lands beyond the settled districts, which may be purchased under the pre-emptive right conferred by her Majesty's Order in Council of the 9th March, 1847:—but no sums deposited will be returnable in any other shape than a credit in the purchase of land.

4. If the price of crown land purchased at any one time by a holder of a deposit receipt shall be less than the amount deposited, the difference or balance will still remain at the credit of the holder of the receipt for the purchase of a further portion of land, and the receipt will be returned with an endorsement stating the extent to which it has been used.

5. Receipts for deposits under this notice will be transferable, but they must be transferred by endorsement in the same manner as bills of exchange. The last person to whom any receipt may be endorsed will be considered the holder of it, and it will be received at the Colonial Treasury at Sydney or Melbourne, from him or his agent only.

6. Every depositor under this notice or the last endorsee of his receipt (should the original depositor and the previous endorsees have failed to avail themselves of the privilege) will be allowed at any time within two years from the date of the deposit, to demand that any portion not exceeding eighty per cent. of the amount deposited, shall be applied towards the payment of passages to this colony for such emigrants as he may nominate, provided that such emigrants be eligible in all respects for free passages under the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners.* (For form of application for passages under this clause see schedules A and B below.)

7. Should the persons nominated by depositors, in accordance with the provisions of the preceding clause, prove to be ineligible under the commissioners' regulations, or should they fail to embark when and where the commissioners may direct, the selection of other emigrants in their stead will rest with the commissioners, and no further nomination on the part of the depositors will be admitted.

8. Persons availing themselves of the privilege conferred by clause 6, will be required to produce their deposit receipts at the Office of the Colonial Secretary, in Sydney, or at the Office of the Superintendent of Port Phillip, in Melbourne, in order that their nomination of emigrants may be noted thereon.

The above regulations are to take effect at the commencement of the ensuing year.

By his Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

* For information respecting the description of Emigrants who are eligible for free passages, see Schedule B, to the notice of this date headed "Emigration Remittances."

IMMIGRATION REMITTANCES.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 22nd December, 1848.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to direct the publication of the following notice setting forth the measures which will be adopted in pursuance of instructions from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State, for facilitating the remittance of any sums of money which persons settled in the colony may desire to send to their relatives or friends or others in the United Kingdom, for the purpose of enabling them to emigrate to this country.

1. In the country districts the Clerks of Petty Sessions throughout the colony will be directed to receive, on every public court day during the sitting of the court, but at no other time or place, any sums which residents in the district may desire to remit to the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners for the purpose of being applied to the provision of steerage passages to this colony for their friends or relatives or others. In Sydney and Melbourne such sums will be received at the Treasury, where they can be paid in at any time during the usual office hours.

2. The Clerks of Petty Sessions on receiving any sums under this notice, will enter in the printed form annexed (Schedule A.) the name and address of the depositor, the name, age, calling and residence, of the person or persons in the United Kingdom for whose benefit the money is to be applied, and the names and residences of such persons of note as the depositors may refer to, for the purpose of answering any enquiries which the Land and Emigration Commissioners may have to make: and will write at the foot of the same, receipts for the amounts paid into their hands. These forms will, in each case be filled up in triplicate, and the three copies having been certified by one or more of the magistrates present, one of them will be handed to the depositor, another will be forwarded to the Colonial Treasurer, with the list mentioned in the following clause, and the third will be retained as a record in the office of the Clerk of Petty Sessions.

3. The Clerks of Petty Sessions will be required to forward to the Colonial Treasurer, in Sydney; or to the Sub-Treasurer, at Melbourne, on the 1st and 16th days of every month, all sums received by them under this notice during the preceding half-month, with a list of the names and addresses of the persons by whom the payments were made, and of those in the United Kingdom for whose benefit the money is to be applied. The amounts thus forwarded will be then paid into the Military Chest of this Colony by order of His Excellency the Governor, who will forward to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State, Certificates of the payments and copies of the lists.

4. The sums paid into the Military Chest will be placed by order of the Lords of the Treasury, at the credit of the Land and Emigration Commissioners, who will apply the money in providing passages to the Colony for the parties named in the lists.

5. In cases in which it may be expected that the parties intended to emigrate, may be enabled themselves to raise from their own resources, or by the assistance of others a portion of their passage money, their friends in the colony may not consider it necessary to remit a sum sufficient to pay the whole cost of the passage. In all such instances, it must be understood that the Commissioners will only undertake to apply to the best advantage for the benefit of the parties, such sums as may be furnished to them either by remittances from the colony, or by contributions in the Mother Country, and not to provide passages in cases where the money placed in their hands is insufficient for the purpose.

6. In any case in which the amount remitted may exceed that required for the payment of the intending emigrant's passage, the balance will either be paid to the emigrant or returned to the person who made the remittance, according to the directions which may be given by the latter, but in order to prevent this arrangement being used for the purpose of making remittances unconnected with emigration, it is necessary to state, that the Commissioners will not undertake to make payments of money in England, to any persons but those for whom they have provided passages to this colony.

7. For the information of persons who may desire to make remittances under this regulation, it is hereby notified, that the cost of steerage passages to this colony under the Commissioner's contracts, will not be likely to exceed fourteen pounds for persons above the age of fourteen years. For persons under the age of fourteen years half price only is charged. The cost of outfit for the voyage is estimated as follows, in the latest publication of the Commissioners which has reached the Colony.

 For a single man about . 4 10
 For a single woman „ 5 0
 For a married couple „ 9 0

The cost of an outfit for children varies with their size. Generally speaking, three children under 7, or two between that age and 14 may be clothed for about £5; but a well grown girl or boy of 13 years of age will cost nearly as much as an adult.

8. As it must be expected that the limited funds at the disposal of the Government will oblige the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners to reject for a time many eligible applicants for free passages to this colony, his Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has further directed it to be notified, that residents in this country may secure a preference for such of their own relatives or friends as may be in every respect qualified under the Commissioners General Regulations for free passages, by contributing and remitting, in the manner above provided for, the undermentioned sums:—

For each person of the age of 14 and upwards £8 0 0
 For each person between the ages of 1 and 14 years £4 0 0

The remainder of the cost of the passage, which will amount to about one-third, will be defrayed by the Government.

The subjoined notice (Schedule B.) will show the descriptions of persons who are eligible for free passages under the commissioners regulations, and who will be entitled to the benefit of the rule laid down in this clause.

9. The balance of the passage-money will also be granted, subject to the conditions below stated, to persons depositing the undermentioned sums towards the payment of the passages to this colony of able bodied labourers or tradesmen and their families, who though ineligible for free passages under the general regulations, may be considered of such a description as to justify a limited contribution from the land revenue towards their introduction:—

 For each person of the ages of 14 years and upwards 10 0 0
 For each person between the ages of 1 and 14 5 0 0

But no deposit will be received under this clause without a written authority from the Government, to be produced by the depositor at the time of tendering his money, and the allowance of the balance of the passage money will in every instance depend upon the approval of the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners, after the enquiry which they will make in each case, respecting the persons nominated. (For forms of application under this clause see schedule C. and D. annexed.)

The above regulations are to take effect at the commencement of the ensuing year.

By His Excellency's Command,
 E. DEAS THOMSON.

SCHEDULE B.
 REGULATIONS

To be observed in the selection of Labourers for a passage (including provisions and medical attendance during the voyage) to New South Wales; and also the conditions on which the passage, when granted, must be understood to be accepted.

TRADE OR CALLING.

1. The emigrants must chiefly be agricultural laborers, shepherds, and female domestic, and farm servants. A few country mechanics may also be accepted, such as blacksmiths, wheelwrights, carpenters, &c., &c.
2. All the adults must be capable of labour, and must be really working labourers or mechanics of the above description, and going out with the intention of settling in the colony.
3. Persons who are intending to buy land in the colony, or invest a small capital in trade, are not eligible for a free passage, nor are their families, the free passage being designed to benefit labourers or mechanics as above, who have not the means of paying their own passage.

4. Reduced tradesmen and persons resident in a workhouse, or in the habitual receipt of parish relief, are not considered eligible for a free passage.

DESCRIPTION OF FAMILY, AND AGE.

5. The emigrants must consist principally of married couples, not above forty years of age at their last birth-day; but for every child above fourteen, an excess of one year will be allowed in the age of the parents if they are still hale and capable of labour. The candidates most acceptable are young couples who have no children.

6. No family can be taken which includes three children under seven—or four under ten years. The separation of parents from children under eighteen will in no case be allowed.

7. Single women, under eighteen, without their parents, are not admissible unless they are emigrating under the immediate care of some near married relatives, or are under engagement as domestic servants, to ladies going out as cabin passengers in the same ship.

8. Single men cannot be allowed, except in a number not exceeding that of the single women in the same ship. If named by a person who has deposited money in this country for the purchase of land, they can only be accepted if eligible in other respects, in case the same party has named an equal number of single women who conform to regulation 7.

9. All emigrants, women as well as children, must have been vaccinated, or have had the small pox.

10. The Commissioners are occasionally able to allow relatives of emigrants accepted for free passages, although those relatives may be themselves ineligible under the regulations to be conveyed at the public expense, an option of proceeding in the same vessel on paying the expense of their passages; but this must entirely depend on the space available in the ship, and on the Commissioners' discretion.

CHARACTER.

11. Good character is indispensable, and decisive certificates will be required both to this point, and also to competence in the professed trade or calling of the proposed emigrant.

FORM OF APPLICATION.

12. All application must be made in the form hereto annexed, which must be duly filled up and attested, as explained in the form itself, and then forwarded to this office, with baptismal and marriage certificates.

13. Should it be found that the signatures attached to the certificates are not genuine, or that any other deception is attempted, the application will be rejected; or should any emigrant on personal examination at the port of embarkation, be discovered to have made any misstatement whatever with regard to age, calling, health, &c., such person will not be allowed to proceed in the ship.

14. The nomination of labourers for a free passage by land purchasers, will be subject to the approval of the Commissioners, whose answer must be received before the emigrants are led to make any preparation.

PROCEEDINGS SUBSEQUENT TO APPLICATION AND APPROVAL.

15. If approved of, the emigrants will be so informed, and will receive a passage as soon as the arrangements of the Commissioners will admit. But due notice will be given to them of the ship by which they are to sail, and of the time appointed for sailing; and unless they receive such notice, they must, on no account, withdraw from their employment or make any preparation for departure. Those who fail to attend to this warning, will do so at their own risk, and will have no claim whatever on the Commissioners.

16. The expense of reaching the Port of embarkation must be paid by the emigrants.

17. Before the embarkation order, entitling them to a passage, is issued, £1 must be paid for every person above fourteen, and 10s for every child above one and under fourteen, which will be retained to meet the expense of bedding and mess utensils, which will be supplied for them.

18. If any emigrants fail to attend at the appointed time and place for embarkation, they will never again be allowed a free passage, and will forfeit any money that may have been paid, unless they give to the Commissioners timely notice and a satisfactory reason of their inability to proceed.

19. Provisions and cooking utensils will be found. The emigrants will also be provided with new mattresses, bolsters, blankets, and counterpanes, and with canvas bags, intended to contain one month's linen, &c., likewise with a knife and fork, two spoons, a metal plate, and a drinking-mug, the whole of which articles may be kept by the emigrants after arrival in the colony. But they must bring their own sheets and towels, and also a supply of soap.

20. The emigrants must bring their own clothing, which will be inspected at the port by an officer of the Commissioners; and all parties are particularly desired to observe that they will not be allowed to embark, unless they provide themselves with a sufficient supply for their health during the voyage. The lowest quantity that can be admitted for each person as follows:—

FOR MALES.	FOR FEMALES.
Six shirts	Six shifts
Six pairs stockings	Two flannel petticoats
Two ditto shoes	Six pairs stockings
Two complete suits of exterior clothing	Two ditto shoes
	Two gowns

As a general rule, it may be stated that the more abundant the stock of clothing, the better for health and comfort during the passage. The usual length of the voyage to the Australian Colonies is about four months, and at whatever season of the year it may be made, the emigrants have to pass through very hot and very cold weather, and should therefore be prepared for both.

21. It is desirable that emigrants should take out with them the necessary tools of their trades; bulky agricultural implements, however, cannot be admitted, on account of their inconvenient size and weight; neither can furniture be received on board, mattresses especially, and feather beds are strictly prohibited.

22. The whole quantity of baggage of each adult emigrant must not measure more than twenty cubic or solid feet, nor exceed half a ton weight, it must be divided into two or three boxes of not more than two and a half or three feet long, by about twenty inches wide, and eighteen inches high. People should not crowd the ship with boxes only half filled, and must pack their effects close. Large packages and extra baggage will not be taken unless paid for, and only in case there be room in the ship.

23. Only the luggage really belonging to each family of Passengers is intended to be taken under the foregoing allowance. If any one should attempt to impose on the Commissioners by letting the baggage of other persons, not members of his family, go under his name, he will forfeit his passage, and not be suffered to proceed.

24. The emigrants will be at perfect liberty to engage themselves to any one willing to employ them; and to make their own bargain for wages in the colony. No repayment is required from them for the passage out. The only return expected is a strict observance, on board, of the regulations framed with a view to their health and comfort during the voyage, and general good conduct and industrious habits in the colony.

25. Letters and application should be addressed, post-paid, to Stephen Walcott, Esquire, Secretary to the Board of Emigration; No. 9, Park-street, Westminster.

By order of the Board,
STEPHEN WALCOTT,
Secretary.

SCHEDULE C.

Form of application to be used when passages are desired for particular individuals.

(To be addressed to the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, at Sydney, or to His Honor the Superintendent at Port Phillip.)

Sir,—I do myself the honor to request that I may be authorised to deposit the sum of _____ pounds under the provisions of the ninth clause of the Government Notice of the 22nd December, 1848, so that I may be entitled to obtain passages to this colony for the under-mentioned persons without any further payment, should the said persons be approved by the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners.

Christian Name, and Surname at full length of the persons for whom passages are desired.	Age.	Trade or Calling.	Where Living.	Names and addresses of persons of note to whom reference can be made by the Commission respecting the persons wanted.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight Companion of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS Her Majesty was graciously pleased by Letters Patent, under the great seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster, the 20th day of February, 1846, to give and grant to me full power and authority with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, to issue a Proclamation or Proclamations, dividing the Territory of New South Wales into Districts, Counties, Hundreds, and Parishes, and to appoint the limits thereof respectively; and whereas by a certain Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the 9th day of March, 1847, it was amongst other things directed, that the Intermediate Districts, by the said order appointed to be established, should comprehend, in addition to certain lands therein specified, any county or counties of which the boundaries might be fixed and proclaimed on or before the 31st December, 1848: Now therefore, I, the said Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, as such Governor aforesaid, in pursuance of the power and authority so vested in me, do hereby, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, proclaim, that certain parts or portions of land in the said Territory of New South Wales as hereinafter described, have been admeasured and laid out as separate and distinct counties within the said Colony, and that the same shall be known and called by the respective names following, that is to say:—March, Canning, Ward, Rous, Richmond, Clarence, Raleigh, Dudley, Vernon, Hawes, Parry, Buckland, Dampier, Beresford, Cowley, Buckleuch, Wallace, Wellesley, Follett, Dundas, Villiers, Ripon, Hampden, Heytesbury, Polwarth, Grenville, Talbot, Dalhousie, Anglesey, Evelyn, and Mornington; and I do hereby further notify and proclaim that, the boundaries and limits of the said several and respective Counties are and shall be as follows, subject nevertheless to such more exact determination thereof, with reference to the natural features of the country, as may hereafter be deemed expedient; that is to say:

PORT PHILLIP OR SOUTHERN DISTRICT.

County of Follett, containing about 1,040 square miles.

Bounded on the west by the (141°) one hundred and forty-first meridian, being the line dividing the Colony of New South Wales from South Australia; on the south and east by the Glenelg river upwards to the confluence with Power's Creek; and on the north-east and north by Power's Creek to its source; thence a line westward to the head of Mosquito Creek; and by that Creek to the boundary line.

County of Dundas, containing about 2000 square miles.

Bounded on the west and north by the Glenelg River upwards, from the confluence of the Wannon, to its source between the Victoria Range and the Grampians, near Mount William; on the east by the Grampians to its rocky extremity near Mount Abrupt; thence to Mount Sturgeon, and by a line crossing the Wannon River, to the north-east corner of the county of Normanby, at the Grange Burn; and on the south by the Grange Burn and the Wannon River, to its confluence with the Glenelg. County of Villiers, containing about 1660 square miles.

Bounded on the west by a line due south from the Grange Burn to the mouth of the Swamp Creek, thence by this creek upwards to its source by a line to the head of the western branch of the river Shaw, thence by the west branch of the river Shaw to the sea; on the south by the sea to the entrance of the river Hopkins; on the east by the said river Hopkins to the confluence of the creek above Wiselaskie's station, and by that creek to its source; on the north by a line westward from the source of the last named creek to the rocky extremity of the Grampians near Mount Abrupt, thence by the principal range of the Grampians to Mount Sturgeon, and by a line south-westerly to the north-east corner of the county of Normanby at the Grange Burn, including all the islands at Port Fairy.

County of Ripon, containing about 1825 square miles.

Bounded on the west by the Grampian Range (which divides the waters of the Wimmera and Glenelg Rivers from those of the river Hopkins) to the rocky extremity near Mount Abrupt; on the south by a line easterly to the source of the first creek which joins the river Hopkins above Wiselaskie's station on the western side; and by that creek to the river Hopkins, thence by a line east to Lake Boloke, thence by the southern shores of Lake Boloke to the mouth of the Prakingerrin Creek, and by that creek upwards to a point where a great bend of the creek turns northward; thence by a line to a point in Emu Creek about one mile below, and to the west of the confluence of Broken Creek; on the south-east and east by Emu Creek to the confluence with Baillie's Creek, by Baillie's Creek to Lake Burrumbeet, the southern shores of Lake Burrumbeet and Burrumbeet Creek to its source in the great dividing range; and on the north by the great dividing range to the western boundary aforesaid.

County of Hampden, containing about 1,420 square miles.

Bounded on the west by the river Hopkins upwards, from the confluence of the Emu creek to the point opposite the mouth of the Small creek above Wiselaskie's station, dividing it from the county of Villiers; on the north by the southern boundary of the county of Ripon, being a line east from the confluence of the creek near Wiselaskie's station already mentioned to Lake Boloke; then by the southern shore of Lake Boloke to the mouth of the Prakmingerrin creek; then by that creek upwards until it reaches the spot where it forms a great bend to the northward, from that point by a line in a south-easterly direction to Emu creek about 1 mile below, and westward of the mouth of Broken creek; thence by Emu creek to the point north of the source of Guarkeet ponds; then on the east by the west boundary of the county of Grenville, viz.—1st, by a line southerly to the source of Guarkeet ponds, then by Guarkeet ponds to Lake Korangamite, and thence by the west shore of Lake Korangamite to a point east of Lake Pormbeet; and on the south by a direct line to the north end of Lake Pormbeet, and from the north end of Lake Pormbeet to the nearest part of Emu creek, and thence by Emu creek to its confluence with the river Hopkins.

County of Heytesbury, containing about 1,160 square miles.

Bounded on the north-west and north by part of the eastern boundary of the county of Villiers, and the southern boundary of the county of Hampden, being the Hopkins river from its estuary to the confluence of the Emu creek, the Emu creek, and a line easterly to the north end of Lake Burrambeet, thence by a line east to Lake Korangamite, by the southern shore of that Lake to the mouth of the Pirron Yalloak creek on the east and south-east by the Pirron Yalloak creek to its source, thence by a range to the head of the Gellibrand river, by the Gellibrand river to the sea coast; and on the south west and west by the sea coast, to the estuary of the Hopkins river.

County Polwarth, containing about 1,276 square miles.

Bounded on the west by the eastern boundary of the county of Heytesbury, namely the Gellibrand River upwards to its source, thence by the range to the head of the Pirron Yalloak creek, by this creek to Lake Korangamite; on the north by the south-eastern shore of Lake Korangamite and an east line from Lake Korangamite to the north end of Lake Colac, thence by the north shore of Lake Colac to the point due west from the source of the Birre Gurra creek, from that point by a line east to the source of the Birre Gurra creek; thence by the Birre Gurra creek to its confluence with the River Barwan, thence following the course of the River Barwan to a creek in H. Hopkins's purchased land; on the north-east by this creek upwards and a line across the dividing range to the head of the Salt creek bearing south-east two miles forty chains, thence by the Salt creek to the sea coast north of the Point Road knight; and on the south-east and south by the sea coast to the mouth of the Gellibrand River.

County of Grenville, containing about 1,470 square miles.

Bounded on the west by the eastern boundary of the county of Hampden, namely, a line southerly from Emu creek to Guarkeet ponds; thence by the Guarkeet ponds to Lake Korangamite; thence by the western shore of that Lake to a point east of Lake Pormbeet; on the south by part of the northern boundary of the county of Heytesbury and the northern boundary of the county of Polwarth, namely, the southern shore of Lake Korangamite, thence an east line from Lake Korangamite to the north end of Lake Colac, thence by the north shore of Lake Colac to the point due west from the source of Birrigurra creek, and from that point by a line east to the source of Birrigurra creek, thence by that creek downwards to its confluence with the Barwan; on the east by the river Barwan to its confluence with the Yarrowa River, thence by the Yarrowa River up to its source in the great dividing range; and on the north by part of the great dividing range to the source of Burrambeet creek, thence by that creek and the southern shores of Lake Burrambeet to the point where Baillie's creek leaves the Lake, by Baillie's creek to its confluence with Emu creek, thence by Emu creek down to the point north of the source of Guarkeet Ponds aforesaid.

County of Talbot, containing about 1,194 square miles.

Bounded on the north west and north by the south western branch of the Loddon river from its source near Mount Cole to its confluence with the main stream; thence by the Loddon river upwards to the confluence of Mount Alexander creek, this creek to its source under Mount Alexander; thence by Mount Alexander range to the head of Myrtle Creek, and by this creek to its confluence with the Colliban river; on the east by the Colliban river upwards to its source, being part of the western boundary of the County of Dalhousie; and on the south by the great dividing range to the source of the south western branch of the Loddon river near Mount Cole.
