MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:—

WE, the undersigned Inhabitants of the town and immediate neighbourhood of Carcoar, desire most sincerely to offer you our hearty congratulations on the occasion of this your second visit to our remote District.

We trust we shall never be found dilatory or wanting whenever an opportunity occurs, in testifying our regard for the representative of our most Gracious Sovereign, but we would wish at the same time especially to signify our high esteem for you personally, and our opinion of the urbane and impartial manner in which your Excellency has administered the Government of this Colony.

The late auspicious and highly seasonable fall of rain will have a most beneficial effect on grazing and agricultural pursuits, and gives us good hopes that under the blessing of Providence, the evil and disastrous consequences of a long and severe drought will be entirely dissipated.

Our Town has much improved of late years, a circumstance which will no doubt be visible to your Excellency, contrasted with its appearance on the occasion of your previous visit, and we are happy to state the brightly increasing prospects of the future bring with them happy anticipations that the Town of Carcoar will ere long rise to considerable eminence among Provincial Towns.

In conclusion we trust your Excellency will have much reason to be gratified with your visit, and that the termination of your journey may be productive of as much pleasure and satisfaction as you could wish, or we desire.

With every feeling of respect for the health and happiness of your Excellency and family, we beg to subscribe ourselves your Excellency's

Most faithful and obedient servants,
