No. 180.

*Downing-street,
30th November, 1850.*

SIR,

I transmit to you herewith an Order of Her Majesty in Council of the 13th of this month for making provision for Appeals from the decisions of the Supreme Court in New South Wales to Her Majesty in Council.

As the deficiencies in the Law of the Colony which this Order in Council is intended to remove, are well known to the Judges of the Supreme Court, it is unnecessary for me to accompany the transmission of this Order in Council with any observations of my own.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient humble servant,
GREY.

GOVERNOR SIR C. A. FITZ ROY,
&c., &c., &c.
NEW SOUTH WALES.

At the Court, at Windsor, the 13th day of November, 1850.

PRESENT :

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT.

Lord President.	Lord John Russell.
Duke of Norfolk.	Viscount Palmerston.
Marquis of Clanricarde.	Mr. Maule.
Earl of Carlisle.	Sir John Hobhouse, Bart.
Earl Grey.	Sir George Grey, Bart.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the fourth and fifth years of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act to provide until the 1st day of July, 1827, and until the end of the next Session of Parliament, for the better administration of Justice in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, and for the more effectual Government thereof, and for other purposes relating thereto," which Act was continued until the 31st December, 1829, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 7th and 8th years of His said Majesty's Reign, it was amongst other things provided, that it should be lawful for His then Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, by Charters and Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to erect and establish a Court of Judicature in New South Wales, which should be styled the Supreme Court of New South Wales, subject to the farther regulations and provisions of the said Act; and whereas in pursuance of the authority vested in him, by the said first recited Act, His late Majesty King George the Fourth did, by Letters Patent, bearing date the 13th day of October, 1834, grant, direct, ordain, and appoint, that there should be within that part of the Colony of New South Wales, situate in the Island of New Holland, a Court which should be styled the Supreme Court of New South Wales; and did by the said Letters Patent in pursuance of such authority as aforesaid, make further provisions respecting the powers and jurisdiction of the said Court.

And whereas by another Act passed in the 9th year of His said late Majesty, intituled, "An Act to provide for the administration of Justice in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, and for the more effectual Government thereof, and for other purposes relating thereto," it was amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, by Charters and Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to erect and establish a Court of Judicature in New South Wales, which should be styled the Supreme Court of New South Wales, subject to the further Regulations in the said last mentioned Act contained; and it was thereby further enacted, that until His Majesty should cause such Charters or Letters Patent to be issued as aforesaid, the Supreme Court of New South Wales, instituted by His said Majesty's recited Letters Patent of the 13th day of October, 1834, should retain the several jurisdictions and powers in the said Court, vested by His Majesty's last mentioned Letters Patent, (so far as the same might not be altered by the now reciting Act,) as fully and as effectually as if such Court had been instituted in virtue and in pursuance of the said now reciting Act.

And whereas by the said last mentioned Act, it was further provided, that it should be lawful for His Majesty by the said Charters or Letters Patent respectively, or by any Order or Orders of His Majesty in Council, to allow any person or persons feeling aggrieved by any judgment, decree, order, or sentence of the said Supreme Courts respectively, to appeal therefrom to His Majesty in Council, in such manner, within such time, and under and subject to such rules, regulations, and limitations, as His Majesty by any such Charters, or Letters Patent, or Order, or Orders in Council respectively shall appoint and prescribe.

And whereas no such Charters, or Letters Patent, or Orders in Council have hitherto issued under the authority of the said last mentioned Act; and whereas it is expedient, that provision should be made to enable parties to appeal from the decisions of the said Supreme Court to Her Majesty in Council, it is hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that any person or persons may appeal to Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, in our or their Privy Council from any final judgment, decree, order, or sentence, of the said Supreme Court of New South Wales, in such manner, within such time, and under and subject to such rules, regulations, and limitations, as are hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, in case any such judgment, decree, order, or sentence, shall be given or pronounced for or in respect of any sum or matter at issue above the amount or value of £500 sterling, or in case such judgment, decree, order, or sentence, shall involve directly or indirectly any claim, demand, or question, to or respecting property or any Civil Right, amounting to or of the value of £500 sterling, the person or persons feeling aggrieved by any such judgment, decree, order, or sentence may, within fourteen days next after the same shall have been pronounced, made, or given, apply to the said Court by Petition, for leave to appeal therefrom to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, in Our or Their Privy Council, and in case such leave to appeal shall be prayed by the party or parties who is or are directed to pay any such sum of money, or perform any duty, the said Court shall and is hereby empowered, either to direct that the judgment, decree, order, or sentence appealed from shall be carried into execution, or that the execution thereof shall be suspended, pending the said appeal, as to the said Court may appear to be most consistent with real and substantial justice; and in case the said Court shall direct such judgment, decree, order, or sentence to be carried into execution the person or persons in whose favor the same shall be given, shall, before the execution thereof, enter into good and sufficient security, to be approved by the said Court, for the due performance of such judgment or order, as We, Our Heirs and Successors shall think fit to make thereupon; or in case the said Court shall direct the execution of any such judgment, decree, order, or sentence to be suspended, pending the appeal, the person or persons against whom the same shall have been given, shall in like manner, and before any order for the suspension of any such execution is made, enter into good and sufficient security to the said Court, for the due performance of such judgment or order, as We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall think fit to make thereupon, and in all cases We will and require that security shall also be given by the party or parties appellant, to the satisfaction of the said Court, for the prosecution of the appeal, and for the payment of all such costs as may be awarded by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, or by the Judicial Committee of Our Privy Council, to the party Respondent; and if such last-mentioned security shall be entered into within three months from the date of such Petition for leave to appeal, then, and not otherwise, the said Court shall allow the appeal, and the party or parties appellant shall be at liberty to prefer and prosecute his, her, or their appeal to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, in Our or Their Privy Council, in such manner and under such rules as are or may be observed in appeals made to Us from Our Plantations or Colonies.

And further, it is Our Will and Pleasure, that it shall be lawful for the said Supreme Court of New South Wales, at its discretion, on the petition of any party who considers himself aggrieved by any preliminary or interlocutory judgment, decree, order, or sentence of the said Supreme Court, to grant permission to such party to appeal against the same to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, in Our or Their Privy Council, subject to the same rules, regulations, and limitations as are herein expressed respecting appeals from final judgments, decrees, orders, and sentences.

Provided also, that if in any action, suit, or other proceeding, it shall so happen that no final judgment, decree, order, or sentence can be duly given in consequence of a disagreement of opinion between the Judges of the said Supreme Court, then, and in such case, the final judgment, decree, order, or sentence may be entered pro forma on the petition of any of the parties to the action, suit, or other proceedings, according to the opinion of the Chief Justice, or in his absence, of the Senior Puisne Judge of the said Supreme Court: Provided that such judgment, decree, order, or sentence shall be deemed a judgment, decree, order, or sentence of the Court, for the purpose of an appeal against the same, but not for any other purpose.

And We do hereby further reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, in Our or Their Privy Council, full power and authority, upon the humble petition at any time of any person or persons aggrieved by any judgment or determination of the said Court, to admit his or their appeal therefrom upon such terms, and upon such securities, limitations, restrictions, and regulations as We or They shall think fit, and to reverse, correct, or vary such judgment or determination, as to Us or Them shall seem meet.

And it is Our further Will and Pleasure, that in all cases of appeal allowed by the said Court, or by Us, Our Heirs or Successors, the said Court shall certify and transmit to Us, Our Heirs, or Successors, in Our or Their Privy Council, a true and exact copy of all evidence, proceedings, judgments, decrees, and orders had or made in such cases appealed, so far as the same have relation to the matters of appeal, such copies to be certified under the seal of the said Court; and that the said Court shall also certify and transmit to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, in Our or Their Privy Council, a copy of the reasons given by the Judges of such Court, or by any of such Judges, for or against the judgment or determination appealed against, where such reasons shall have been given in writing; and where such reasons shall have been given orally, then a statement in writing of the reasons given by the Judges of such Court, or by any of such Judges for or against the judgment or determination appealed against. And We do further direct and ordain that the said Court shall in all cases of appeal to Us, Our Heirs or Successors, conform to and execute, or cause to be executed, such judgments and orders as We shall think fit to make in the premises, in such manner as any original judgment, decree, or decretal order, or other order or rule of the said Court of New South Wales, should or might have been executed.

And the Right Honorable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Twelve thousand nine hundred acres of land were granted, under the Seal of the Colony, to the Male Orphan Institution, and became vested in the Church and School Corporation, who, by an Indenture dated 4th December, 1827, sold the above described portion to the late Reverend Samuel Marsden, who sold to Edward New, who sold to claimant. The Conveyance to Marsden is defective, and a further Conveyance is to be issued, as provided for by the Act of Council, 5th Wil. 4, No. 11.
