Melbourne, 16th July 1851

OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor directs that until further notice the following Rules are to be invariably observed in conducting official correspondence in this Colony.

1. Letters having reference to patronage, or applications for employment in the Colonial service, are to be addressed to His Excellency's private Secretary.

2. All other correspondence of a public nature is to be carried on through the Colonial Secretary.

3. Subordinate Officers and others of a department are not to address themselves directly to the Colonial Secretary, but are to make their communications through the head of the Department, who in forwarding them will add any observations he may consider necessary to illuminate the subject.

4. Each Letter must be confined to a single subject.

5. Letters are to be written in a distinct hand, on foolscap paper of a uniform size, and in order to reduce the expense of postage as much as possible, ordinary letters should be written on half sheet of foolscap with a quarter margin and in as compact a form as to closeness of lines as distinctness will allow; where the subject is of more than ordinary importance, requiring perhaps reference to other correspondence, or Departments, the inner margin must be half the width of the page, but still written in a compact form.

6. Each Department is to number its letters in succession commencing annually with a fresh series, and if any Department has much correspondence with two or more others, it should have a separate series of numbering for each of them.

7. Letters are to be divided into distinct paragraphs according to the several points, or heads of the subject, and each paragraph is to be numbered for the greater facility of reference.

8. If a letter consists of two or more sheets, the pages should be numbered.

9. In replying to a letter, the date and number of the letter replied to should be given.

10. Where enclosures are necessary, they must be written on paper of a uniform size with the letter, and in as compact a form as possible.

11. The paragraphs of enclosures must also be numbered, and if consisting of more than two sheets, should be likewise paged.

12. Whenever a minute can be made upon a letter referred for further information, this course is to be adopted instead of adding another letter to it.

13. Whenever large packages of returns, &c, exceeding the weight of sixteen ounces, can be safely sent by any public conveyance, as by a steam boat or mail cart, at a less cost than if sent by the post, such mode of transit must be adopted: [this rule, however, will principally relate to Departments in Melbourne.]

POSTAGE BETWEEN NEW SOUTH WALES AND VICTORIA.

HIS Excellency the Governor General having conferred with His Honor the Superintendent of Port Phillip, relative to the Postage which will become chargeable on letters, packets, and newspapers, passing between this Colony and Victoria, on the erection of the latter into a separate Dependency of the Crown, has been pleased to direct, that, pending the necessary legislation on the subject, the same charges for Postage shall continue to be made as at present on all such letters, packets, and newspapers; but it being necessary to make such arrangements, in reference to this matter, as will ensure to each Colony, so far as circumstances will permit, the benefit of its postal Revenue, it is to be understood, that Postage Stamps of each Colony, will only be available in posting letters, packets, or newspapers in the Colony to which they are issued; but they will nevertheless, if of sufficient value, free them from further charge on delivery in the other Colony to which they may be conveyed. If not prepaid by money or in stamps they will nevertheless be forwarded to their destination, and in such case they will become chargeable (newspapers excepted) with double postage in the Colony in which they may be delivered. If the value of the stamps be insufficient, the difference necessary to make up the proper amount of postage, will also be charged double on delivery of the letters and packets. The amount received for postage on letters, packets, and newspapers not prepaid will be carried to the credit of the revenue of the Colony in which the same is collected.
