GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 21st May, 1853.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant Governor has been pleased to direct the publication of the following Order in Council, a copy of which has been received from the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners, Park Street, Westminster.

By His Excellency's Command,
W. LONSDALE.

Colonial Land and Emigration Office,
8, Park-street, Westminster,
12th November, 1852.

SIR,

Her Majesty having, on the 16th inst., passed an Order in Council under the provisions of the 55th Section of the "Passengers Act, 1852," prescribing certain regulations for preserving order, for promoting health, and for securing cleanliness and ventilation on board of Passenger Ships proceeding from the United Kingdom to any place in Her Majesty's possessions abroad, I am directed by the Commissioners to transmit to you a Copy of such Order in Council, which has been printed by the Queen's Printer, so as to constitute it good and sufficient evidence of the making and contents of the Order in all legal proceedings throughout Her Majesty's dominions.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,
S. WALCOTT,
Secretary.

At the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of October, 1852; Present,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL.

Whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled the "Passengers Act, 1852," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order in Council to be by her made with the advice of the Privy Council, to prescribe such rules and regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit for preserving order, for promoting health, and for securing cleanliness and ventilation on board of passenger ships proceeding from the United Kingdom to any port or place in Her Majesty's possessions abroad, and the said rules and regulations from time to time in like manner to alter, amend, and revoke, as occasion may require:

And whereas it is expedient to revoke an Order in Council made at a Court held at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, on the sixth day of October, One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in virtue of the provisions of the "Passengers Act, 1849" (now repealed), and to make a new Order in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty doth, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority vested in her by the said "Passengers Act, 1852," order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the sixth day of October, One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, be, and the same is hereby revoked; and that the following shall henceforth be the rules for preserving order, for promoting health, and for securing cleanliness and ventilation, to be observed on board of every passenger ship proceeding from the United Kingdom to any port or place in Her Majesty's possessions abroad out of Europe, and not being within the Mediterranean Sea.

1. All passengers who shall not be prevented by sickness or other sufficient cause, to be determined by the surgeon, or in ships carrying no surgeon, by the master, shall rise not later than seven o'clock A.M., at which hour the fires shall be lighted.
2. It shall be the duty of the cook or cooks, appointed under the thirty-sixth section of the said "Passengers Act, 1852," to light the fires, and to take care that they be kept alight during the day; and also to take care that each passenger or family of passengers shall have the use of the fireplace at the proper hours, in an order to be fixed by the master.
3. When the passengers are dressed, their beds shall be rolled up.
4. The decks, including the space under the bottom of the berths, shall be swept before breakfast, and all dirt thrown overboard.
5. The breakfast hour shall be from eight to nine o'clock A.M. Before the commencement of breakfast, all the emigrants, except as hereinbefore excepted, are to be out of bed and dressed, and the beds rolled up, and the deck on which the emigrants live properly swept.
6. The deck shall further be swept after every meal, and after breakfast is concluded shall be also dry holystoned or scraped. This duty, as well as that of cleaning the ladders, hospitals, and round houses, shall be performed by a party who shall be taken in rotation from the adult males above fourteen, in the proportion of five to every one hundred emigrants, and shall be considered as sweepers for the day. But the single women shall perform this duty in their own compartment; where a separate compartment is allotted to them; and the occupant of each berth shall see that his own berth is well brushed out.
7. Dinner shall commence at one o'clock P.M., and supper at six P.M.
8. The fires shall be extinguished at seven P.M., unless otherwise directed by the master or required for the use of the sick; and the emigrants shall be in their berths at ten o'clock P.M., except under the permission or authority of the surgeon, or if there be no surgeon, of the master.
9. Three safety lamps shall be lit at dusk, and kept burning till ten o'clock P.M.; after which

- hour two of the lamps may be extinguished, one being nevertheless kept burning at the main hatchway all night.
10. No naked light shall be allowed at any time or on any account.
 11. The scuttles and stern ports, if any, shall, weather permitting, be opened at seven o'clock A.M. and kept open till ten o'clock P.M.; and the hatches shall be kept open whenever the weather permits.
 12. The coppers and cooking utensils shall be cleaned every day.
 13. The beds shall be well shaken and aired on deck at least twice a week.
 14. The bottom boards of the berths, if not fixtures, shall be removed and dry scrubbed, and taken on deck at least twice a week.
 15. Two days in the week shall be appointed by the master as washing days; but no washing or drying of clothes shall on any account be permitted between decks.
 16. On Sunday mornings the passengers shall be mustered at ten o'clock A.M., and will be expected to appear in clean and decent apparel. The Lord's Day shall be observed as religiously as circumstances will admit.
 17. No spirits or gunpowder shall be taken on board by any passenger; and if either of those articles be discovered in the possession of a passenger, it shall be taken into the custody of the master during the voyage, and not returned to the passenger until he is on the point of disembarking.
 18. No loose hay or straw shall be allowed below for any purpose.
 19. No smoking shall be allowed between decks.
 20. All gambling, fighting, riotous or quarrelsome behaviour, swearing, and violent language, shall be at once put a stop to. Fire arms, swords, and other offensive weapons shall, as soon as the passengers embark, be placed in the custody of the master.
 21. No sailors shall be allowed to remain on the passenger deck among the passengers, except on duty.
 22. No passenger shall go to the ship's cookhouse without special permission from the master, nor remain in the fore-castle among the sailors on any account.
 23. In vessels not expressly required by the said "Passengers Act, 1852," to have on board such ventilating apparatus as therein mentioned, such other provision shall be made for ventilation as shall be required by the Emigration Officer at the port of embarkation, or, in his absence, by the officers of Customs.
 24. And to prevent all doubts in the construction of this Order in Council it is hereby further ordered, that the terms "United Kingdom," "Passenger," "Passenger Ship," and "Master" shall herein have the same significations as are assigned to them respectively in the said "Passengers Act, 1852."

And the Right Honourable Sir John Pakington, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
