TRANSFERABLE AND REMITTABLE LAND AND IMMIGRATION DEBENTURES.

Sealed Tenders will be received at this Office, until noon of Tuesday, the 20th September next, from persons desirous of advancing the whole or any portion of the sum of Fifty Thousand Pounds on the following security, and subject to the undermentioned terms and conditions, viz.:-

(1.) Each Tender must be for an even sum of hundreds of Pounds, and must be endorsed, "Tenders for Debentures."

(2.) If the Tenders be accepted, Land and Immigration Debentures for £100 each, secured upon the Territorial Revenue of New South Wales, will be issued for the sum advanced, and will bear interest at the rate of 2½d. per diem, or £4 3s. 7½d. per £100 per annum, payable half-yearly, on the first of January and first of July.

(3.) They will be receivable as cash at any time for the purchase of Crown Lands in this Colony, or for any other payment due on account of the Territorial Revenue within the same.

(4.) The principal will not otherwise be payable for a period of less than three years from the date of the Debenture, but it will be redeemable at par at any time thereafter at the option of the Government, but not of the holder, on three months' notice to that effect being given in the New South Wales or London Gazette, according as the same may be payable in the Colony or in England.

(5.) The principal will also be redeemable at par, at the option of the holder for the time being, after the expiration of five years from the date of the Debenture, on his giving three months' notice to that effect to the Colonial Agent General, in London, or the Colonial Treasurer, in Sydney, as the case may be.

(6.) At the expiration of the three months' notice given either by the Government or the holder, the interest on the Debenture to which such notice shall apply, will cease and determine.

(7.) The principal and interest of each Debenture will be payable at the option of the holder for the time being, either in Sydney or London; any change which it may be desired to make in this respect being previously registered at the Colonial Treasury, in Sydney, and in the Office of the Colonial Agent General, in London, and endorsed upon the Debenture, which must be presented accordingly at both these Offices for that purpose.

(8.) Whenever a Debenture may be made payable in London, a Duplicate thereof will be transmitted by the Colonial Treasurer to the Colonial Agent General, by such opportunity as the holder may desire, in order that the same may be available on proof of the loss of the original.

(9.) The Debentures will be transferable if made out in blank, in the same manner as Exchequer Bills; but if made payable to any individual or firm, then by endorsement as in the case of Bills of Exchange.

(10.) Any number of Debentures will, for the convenience of the holders, be consolidated into one or more of the aggregate amount, on application at the Colonial Treasury, provided that such consolidated Debenture shall be issued for even sums of £500 or £1,000 only.

(11.) The amount tendered, if accepted, will be received either in cash, or in Treasury, or Bank Bills. The Tenders must, of course, express the intended mode of payment, and, if in Bills, at what rate of exchange.

CONDITIONS, ETC.

1. It must be understood that, in all instances, the usual Mail road between the points above mentioned is understood to be signified; and, where no Mail has been previously run, that course is to be adopted which the Chief Postmaster may direct, or which the Contractor may specify in his tender.
2. Intending Contractors must give due consideration to the winter difficulties of the roads, including the necessity for provision for the crossing of rivers and creeks by boat or otherwise; and they must bear in mind that no excuse for delay will be even entertained, unless supported by the certificates of persons of known position and respectability, as to the cause of delay, and that it is attributable to no want of liberal provision both for ordinary duties, and to overcome difficulties arising from stress of weather, or the various accidents to which the men, horses, vehicles, and other means employed may be liable.
3. It is to be understood that the Mails are to be despatched and conveyed on the days and hours to be fixed by the Chief Postmaster, either according to the present arrangement, or as he may afterwards determine for the public convenience.
4. On all roads where wheel vehicles can travel, a preference will be given to carriage conveyance; but Contractors may propose any method, bearing in mind that they will be held strictly bound to use the conveyance they propose. The rate of travelling is not to be less than six miles an hour, including all stoppages.
5. The Contractors are to carry all bags, letters, packets, and newspapers, which may be delivered to them under the authority of the Chief Postmaster or any of the Postmasters, and to provide secure and waterproof lockers for the Mails in carriages, and covering for the bags on horseback.

6. In the event of the Contractor neglecting to perform the duty of conveying the Mails, at such times as the Chief Postmaster may choose to appoint, all necessary conveyance will be engaged at the expense of the Contractor, and the cost deducted from any payment becoming due to him.

7. Contractors will be liable to a fine of five shillings for every five minutes delay after specified time of starting; and to a like penalty for every ten minutes delay after the specified time of arrival, except for the first five or ten minutes respectively.

8. Contractors are particularly to remember that both on the main and branch lines they will be fined for the full delay that may, in consequence of their late arrival at any point on their line, ensue, in the further transmission of the Mail entrusted to them, and not merely for the amount of late arrival at such point. In such cases, unless strong disproof of blame can, as prescribed in Clause No. 2, be produced, the delaying Contractor can only avert or lighten the penalty by forwarding the Mail by express to its final destination, or until it overtakes the proper conveyance at a Post Office, and is there consigned to the charge of the Postmaster in time for due transmission.

9. Contractors will be bound to prevent the conveyance of any letter or packet by any of their servants or passengers, or otherwise, to the prejudice of the Post Office revenue; but they will be bound to collect loose letters and private bags on the road, which must be delivered up to the Postmaster at the first Post Office arrived at, under the penalty of £5 for each and every offence in either respect.

10. A mail cart or carriage drawn by one horse must not carry more than one passenger; by two horses, not more than three passengers; and by three or more horses, not more than six passengers, exclusive of the driver, under the penalty of £3 for each passenger in excess.
