By His Excellency's Command,
JOHN FOSTER.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 29th December, 1853.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

His Excellency the Governor General directs the publication, for general information, of the subjoined notice, containing a description of the Light which has been established at Gabo Island, and which he has been pleased to designate the "Flinders Light," in honor of the late Captain Matthew Flinders, Royal Navy, and in testimony of the eminent services rendered by him to the Australian Colonies by the numerous hydrographical surveys which he made of the Coast and Harbors.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

FLINDERS LIGHT, GABO ISLAND.

The Lighthouse on Gabo Island, off Cape Howe, is situated in
No. 10.—FEBRUARY 3RD, 1854.—2.

Latitude..... 37° 34' 20" South.

Longitude..... 149° 54' 40" East.

It was completed and lighted on the 28th November, 1853, and a light will in future be exhibited from sunset to sunrise.

The Lighthouse is a skeleton timber erection, painted white; the roof and framing of the Lantern painted red; and the Ventilating Ball painted yellow.

It stands nearly in the centre of the Island, about three-quarters of a mile from its southern point, upon a sand hill 157ft. 6in. above the sea. The centre of the Light is 21ft. 6in. above the sand, making a total of 179ft. above the sea.

The following Magnetic Bearings are taken from the Lighthouse:—

Cape Howe..... N. 32° E.

Ram Head..... S.W.

Variation of Compass..... 11° E.

The Light is a Fixed White Light of the First Class, consisting of 24 Catoptric Lamps in 2 ranges, illuminating the whole horizon.

The Light is eclipsed by a small range of sand hills from S. 15° E. to S. 4° W. (in all 19 degrees), to a distance averaging about 2 miles out to sea.

It is estimated that the Light can be seen 20 miles distant in clear weather.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 26th January, 1854.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant Governor has been pleased to appoint to be Immigration Agent for the Colony of Victoria and its Dependencies.

SAMUEL BARROW, Esquire,

By His Excellency's Command,
JOHN FOSTER.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 26th January, 1854.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, in pursuance of the provisions of the "Passengers' Act," 1852, has been pleased to appoint to be the Principal Emigration Officer for the Colony of Victoria and its Dependencies.

SAMUEL BARROW, Esquire,

By His Excellency's Command,
JOHN FOSTER.

BACCHUS MARSH.

NOTICE is hereby given that in accordance with the 5th section of the Act of Council, 3 William IV., No. 4, the Bench of Magistrates have appointed

MR. GEORGE AXTELL, Sergeant of Police, to be Inspector of Weights and Measures for the Police District of Bacchus Marsh.

CHARLES BUSHE PLUNKETT,

Clerk of Petty Sessions.

Police Office, Bacchus Marsh,
20th January, 1854.

Custom House,
Melbourne, 26th January, 1854.

IN consequence of the abuse which has attended the temporary relaxation of the law as regards the landing of free goods prior to entry: Notice is hereby given that on and after the 5th of February next, no goods whatever will be allowed to be discharged from any vessel until the provisions of the Customs Regulation Act have been complied with.

HUGH C. E. CHILDERS,
Collector of Customs.

Custom House,
Melbourne, 21st January, 1854.

NOTICE is hereby given to all owners or persons in charge of any iron, timber, or other bulky articles left on any pier, jetty, quay, wharf, or landing place in the Colony of Victoria, that in consequence of the great inconvenience to the public caused by the present state of the wharves, instructions have been issued to the proper officers strictly to carry out the provisions of the sixth clause of the Act 16th Victoria, No. 12, extracts from which are hereunto subjoined.

HUGH C. E. CHILDERS,
Collector.

CLAUSE VI.—“If any iron, timber, or other bulky article be left on any public quay, after twenty-four hours notice to remove the same shall have been given by the Port Officer, Harbor Master, or proper Officer of Customs, to the owner or person in charge thereof, it shall be lawful for any two Justices of the Peace, on proof of such notice having been given, to issue their warrant for removing such iron, timber, or articles, and for selling the same after the expiration of five days from the removal thereof, and out of the proceeds of such sale to defray the expenses of such removal and sale, paying the surplus (if any) to such owner or person entitled thereto. And if no owner of such iron, timber, or article can be found, and there be no person in charge thereof, and such iron, timber, or article shall remain on any quay for the space of four days, the Port Officer, Harbor Master, or proper Officer of Customs may remove the same to some convenient warehouse or place at the risk and expense of the owner or person in charge, such expense to be recovered as herein after mentioned.”

CLAUSE XXV.—“The term quay shall be taken to mean any pier, jetty, quay, wharf, or landing place.”

General Post Office,
Melbourne, 3rd January, 1854.

THE immensity of the number of applications made at this Office to have letters forwarded otherwise than directed, or arrested and re-directed in course of proper transmission according to the address, makes invariable attention to such requests impossible. Persons changing residence are therefore requested to give the necessary directions to their correspondents, as, while every possible attention will be rendered to their requests, unvarying and prompt compliance cannot always be ensured without unjustly delaying the circulation of the correspondence of the bulk of the population.

Persons addressing letters to the country districts are particularly requested to use the authorised name of the proper Post Office, without which this Department cannot be responsible for the due forwarding of the same.

A. McCRAE,
Postmaster General.

Surveyor General's Office,
Melbourne, 1st February, 1854.

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE COLONY OF VICTORIA.

In the Supreme Court of } the Colony of Victoria. }

Tuesday, the 29th day of November, A.D. 1853.

IN pursuance of the power given to their Honors the Judges of the Supreme Court by the Act 15 Victoria, No. 10, intituled, "An Act to make provision for the better Administration of Justice in the Colony of Victoria," it is ordered that from and after the first day of February next, which will be in the year of our Lord 1854, the Rules of Practice now in force in the Supreme Court of the Colony of Victoria shall be repealed, and that instead thereof the following (among others) shall be substituted: Provided that all actions, suits, and other proceedings then depending in the said Court shall be continued and concluded under the Rules now in force.

CHAPTER XI.

COSTS.

- Costs. THAT the scale of fees, costs, and charges set forth in the Schedule to these Rules annexed, shall be those established, so far as the same can be applied, and the proper officers shall tax and allow all bills of costs in accordance therewith; and for all business not comprehended therein, the like fees, costs, and charges as are established by law or sanctioned by usage in the several superior Courts of England for the conduct of such business, shall be allowed.
- Costs to be taxed by the Master in Equity and the Prothonotary. 2. That the costs in Equity, Ecclesiastical proceedings, and in Conveyancing, shall be taxed by the Master in Equity; in Insolvency, by the Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates; and in Common Law and in Criminal proceedings, by the Prothonotary or such other officer as the Judges may appoint.
- Security for Costs. 3. That application for security for costs be, in ordinary cases, made before plea, and in other cases, within a reasonable time after the absence of the plaintiff has come to the knowledge of the defendant.
- On amendment. 4. That whenever any amendment is allowed, or rule or order enlarged, upon payment of costs, payment of such costs shall be a condition precedent to the progress of the action, suit, or matter, or hearing of the rule or order.
- Costs of Rule or Order. 5. That whenever any rule or order is made absolute or granted, and no mention of costs is made by the Court or a Judge, such rule or order shall be drawn up with costs to be paid to the successful party.
- Costs of showing Cause in the first instance. 6. That where notice of an intended motion is given, or where cause is to be shewn in the first instance after notice against a rule or order, and the party who may have given such notice or who intended to move for such rule or order shall not appear, but the party served with notice or prepared to shew cause do appear, the Court may at its rising, on production of the notice, make order that the costs of the party so appearing be paid by the party who gave such notice. And if both parties appear and the party who shews cause be successful, the Court may order that his costs be paid in like manner.
- New Trial. 7. That where a new trial is granted without any mention of costs, the costs of the first trial shall not be allowed to the successful party, although he succeed on the second trial.
- Costs of Pleading and Advising. 8. That the taxing officers may in their discretion allow in all cases, as between party and party, the fees of counsel for drawing pleadings or other proceedings, whether special or otherwise, and for advising.
- Costs of Copying Documents in Briefs. 9. That the taxing officers shall allow in the costs of briefs to counsel only for copying into such briefs of such documents or parts of documents as they may in their discretion consider necessary for the instruction of counsel, or for use at any trial or hearing.
- Plaintiff in Ejectment unsuited; Defendant may receive his Costs. Paupers' Costs. 10. That if a plaintiff in ejectment be nonsuited at trial, the defendant shall be entitled to his costs of suit.
11. That no person admitted to sue in formâ pauperis shall, in any case, be entitled to costs from the opposite party unless by order of a Court or a Judge.
- Mileage on several Writs, &c. 12. That when two or more writs, summonses, orders, or notices, in the same cause or matter, can be served at the same time on any plaintiff or defendant, they shall be so served, and when such is the case, mileage shall be allowed for the service of one only.
- Subpoena. 13. That any number of names of witnesses may be inserted in a subpoena, and the costs of only one original will be allowed.
- Attorneys' Costs, specially. 14. That whenever it shall appear to the Master in Equity that it is just that the costs, or any part of the costs, of any attendance or proof before him, or of costs incurred through non-attendance, should be paid specially by any party or claimant, he may award payment thereof.

15. That when a witness shall attend in one cause only, he will be entitled to the full allowance; when in more than one cause, he will be entitled to a proportionate part in each cause only. Attendance of Witnesses.

16. That the travelling expenses of every witness shall be allowed according to the sums reasonably and actually paid, but in no case shall exceed one shilling and sixpence per mile one way. Travelling Expenses of Witnesses.

17. That no costs of attendance by counsel of a Judge's summons shall be allowed, unless the Judge before whom the summons is heard shall certify that in his opinion such attendance was necessary. Costs of Counsel.

18. That when any judgment is signed on a cognovit or Judge's order authorizing the plaintiff to sign judgment, no declaration to ground such judgment shall be necessary or allowed on taxation of costs. Costs on a Cognovit, or Judge's Order.

19. That in all actions on contract other than cases wherein by reason of the nature of the action no suit in a County Court can by law be maintained, where the sum recovered or paid into Court and accepted by the plaintiff in satisfaction of his demand, or agreed to be paid on the settlement of the action, shall not exceed fifty pounds (without costs), the plaintiff's costs as against the defendant shall be taxed according to the lower scale of allowances in the Schedule of Costs hereunto annexed: Provided that if the Judge shall certify on the roll that the cause was proper to be tried before a Judge of the Supreme Court of the Colony, and not before a Judge of an inferior Court, the costs shall be taxed on the higher scale. Costs in Action on Contract where the sum recovered or paid into Court and accepted, or agreed to be paid, is under fifty pounds.

20. That in all actions on contract, at the head of every bill of costs taken to the taxing officer to be taxed, it shall be stated whether the sum recovered, accepted, or agreed to be paid, exceeds the sum of fifty pounds or not, in the following form:—
Debt—above fifty pounds.
Debt—fifty pounds or under. In Action on Contract, how Bill of Costs to be headed.

21. That if any plaintiff in any action before the Supreme Court of the Colony shall obtain a verdict for less than twenty pounds unliquidated damages, and if the presiding Judge on such trial shall certify on the back of the roll that the action was not of sufficient value to justify an action in the Supreme Court, the plaintiff's costs as against the defendant shall be taxed according to the lower scale of allowances in the Schedule of Costs hereunto annexed. Costs in Action for unliquidated damages when the verdict is for less than ten pounds.

22. That if any plaintiff in a trial before the Supreme Court of the said Colony shall obtain a verdict for less than ten pounds liquidated damages or debt, or less than forty shillings unliquidated damages, and if the presiding Judge on such trial shall certify on the back of the roll that the cause of action was frivolous or vexatious, or not fit to be brought in such Supreme Court, the plaintiff shall recover no costs. No Costs when Judge certifies the Action to be frivolous.

23. That in every case all appointments for taxation of costs shall be served or notice thereof posted in the office of the Prothonotary, not less than twenty-four hours before the hour mentioned for such taxation; and on taxation of costs where some issues are found for the plaintiff, and others for the defendant, the taxing officer shall require that the Attorneys shall mark such parts of the briefs as apply to the several issues upon which they claim to be entitled to costs, and the allocatur of the taxing officer shall be given upon the bill taxed, which shall be filed immediately after taxation with the affidavit or affidavits of increase used therein; and the bill of costs together with the affidavit or affidavits of increase, shall be lodged with the taxing officer at the time the appointment for such taxation shall be taken out. Taxation when several issues.

24. That in all cases of applications to refer an attorney's bill for taxation, under section 2 of the Act 11 Victoria, No. 33, in that behalf, where the rule or order is made ex parte, no rule or order for judgment shall be had or made without notice or a previous rule or summons on the party to shew cause. Taxation under 11 Vic., No. 33, sec. 2.

25. That when proceedings are commenced in vacation, and continued to the following term, or are commenced in term and continued in the following vacation, only one term fee shall be allowed in respect thereof, and no additional charge for letters; and where on taxation of costs a term fee has been allowed, and proceedings are afterwards continued in the same term or vacation, no further allowance shall be made for letters. Term Fees.

26. That the sum to be paid for depositions under the Act of the Governor and Legislative Council of the Colony of New South Wales, passed in the 14th year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, being No. 43, shall be fourpence per folio of ninety words, for the first twelve folios, and threepence per folio for the remaining folios. Fees for Copies of Depositions.

(Signed) { REDMOND BARRY,
Acting Chief Justice.
EDWARD EYRE WILLIAMS.

Supreme Court,

SEWERAGE AND WATER COMMISSION.
NOTICE.

WHEREAS, by the XIXth Section of the Act for the better sewerage, cleansing and draining of the City of Sydney, embodied in the Act 16 Victoria, No. 39, for establishing a Board of Commissioners for the better sewerage and drainage of the City of Melbourne, &c., it is enacted:—

"That fourteen days, at least, before the beginning to dig or lay out the foundation of, or for any new house, or to rebuild any house within the limits of the said City, or the precincts thereof, the person so intending to build or rebuild, shall give to the City Surveyor (for the time being) written notice thereof, together with the level or intending levels of the cellar or lowest floor, and the situation and construction of the privies and cesspools to be built, constructed, or used in connexion with such house, and it shall not be lawful to begin to build, or rebuild any such house, or to build or construct any such cesspools, until the particulars so required to be stated have been approved by the said City Surveyor, and he is hereby required to signify his approbation or disapprobation of the same, within the space of fourteen days after receiving such notice, without fee; and in default of such notice, or if any such house, privy, or cesspool, be built, rebuilt, or constructed as aforesaid, without such approval, the offender shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds; and the said Council may, if they shall think fit, cause such house, privy, or cesspool to be altered, or otherwise dealt with as the case may require, and the expenses incurred by them in so doing shall be repaid by the offender, together with the penalty aforesaid, and be recoverable from him by distress, and sale of his goods and chattels by warrant, under the hand and seal of two such Justices as aforesaid, which they are hereby authorised and directed to grant, in case such offender, upon being summoned before any such Justice as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to pay the same."

Notice is hereby given that MATTHEW BULLOCK JACKSON has been appointed Surveyor to the said Commission, and all notices required by the said Act to be given to the City Surveyor of the City of Sydney, must be given to the said MATTHEW B. JACKSON.

By order of the Commissioners of Sewers and Water Supply.

JOHN LANKTREE,
Secretary.

Office, &c., Town Hall.

NOTICE.

THE undersigned, being about to leave the Colony, on an absence of one or two years, requests all claims against him may be at once presented for payment, and all debts due to him settled without delay.
