No. 21.

General Post Office, Melbourne.

LIST OF UNCLAIMED LETTERS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 16TH JUNE, 1855.
PARTIES applying for Letters at the General Post Office are particularly requested to give the correct number of the letter, and also the date and number of the list in which they may have observed their names, as such reference will materially facilitate delivery. Persons in the country making written applications, in addition to the number of the letter, and the date and number of the list, are requested to state where they expect their letters from, and any information which may tend to prevent an unnecessary transmission of letters.

Application to be made at the General Delivery Department, corner of Elizabeth and Bourke-streets.

The next list will contain all letters received up to the 23rd June.

A. McCRAE,
Postmaster General.

REGULATIONS FOR THE CUSTODY AND DISPOSAL OF PROPERTY TAKEN FROM PRISONERS ON ARREST.

HIS Excellency the Governor, having had under his consideration the subject of the custody and disposal of property taken from prisoners on their arrest, is pleased to direct that the following course of proceeding be, in future, strictly observed in dealing with such property:—

2. The police will make an inventory in duplicate of all property found in the possession of a prisoner at the time of his arrest, and which they are justified in seizing and retaining; the inventory to be signed by the constable who makes it and countersigned by the Inspector or other officer in charge of police. The prisoner is also to be invited to sign the same.

3. Such property is to remain in the custody of the police until the prisoner shall have been either discharged or convicted or found guilty.

4. The property itself is to be sent to the place of trial previous to the day appointed for trial, so that it may be accessible either (if necessary) for the purposes of identification, or to be returned to the prisoner, if discharged, or delivered to the Sheriff or Gaoler, if the prisoner be convicted, with a copy of the inventory.

5. Care is to be taken that property necessary for the purposes of identification remain, as much as possible, in the hands of the same constable or officer, so as to avoid rendering the evidence of identity complicated or embarrassing.

6. If the prisoner be discharged, the property is to be restored to him, with the exception of any portions necessary to be retained as proofs in any future proceedings, or any portions proved to belong to another person, and which may be delivered to such person on his indemnifying the police officer, Sheriff, or Gaoler, against any proceedings of the prisoner. It will be the duty of the Sheriff or the Gaoler to inform the prisoner of the amount taken from him according to the duplicate inventory.

7. If the prisoner be convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor entailing forfeiture, all property found in his possession and all other property belonging to him are to be confiscated; and any such property identified as having been stolen may be restored to the owner. The remainder is to be delivered to the Sheriff, who will sell it and pay the proceeds into the Treasury, unless His Excellency should consider it advisable to direct all or any to be given to the wife or children of the felon.

8. If the prisoner be convicted of a misdemeanor not punishable with forfeiture, the property found in his possession and seized by the police is to be delivered to the Sheriff or Gaoler, who will hold it at the disposal of the prisoner, subject to gaol regulations, either to be disposed of as he may wish (proper vouchers being taken), or retained by the Sheriff or Gaoler; and, at the expiration of the sentence, returned to the prisoner.

9. In cases of summary conviction a similar course is to be pursued before and after conviction, as before and after trial.

10. The Deputy Sheriff within his jurisdiction will act as the Sheriff.

By His Excellency's Command,
O.6857. WILLIAM C. HAINES.
