LOCAL COURT REGULATIONS.

YACKANDANDAH.

REGULATIONS made by the Local Court for the District of Yackandandah:—

xii. Bridges across Races.—All Races that are cut or may be cut across any public road shall have constructed by the holders of such Race at the crossing of every such a good and substantial bridge, sufficiently wide and strong for general traffic, and should such bridge become out of repair, the same to be made serviceable at the expense of the parties holding such Race.

xiii. Interference with Races allowed only by permission of Warden.—No person shall be permitted, on any pretext whatever, to cut away or otherwise injure or interfere with any Dam, Head Race, Tail Race, or other works, the property of another party, without first obtaining the permission of the Warden. The Warden may, however, permit the diversion, flowing or otherwise, as may be required of such work, provided it is rendered as available as previously to the party owning it.

Assented to by His Excellency the Officer administering the Government, with the advice of the Executive Council. Gazetted on the 26th day of March, 1856, pursuant to 18 Victoria, No. 37, sec. 17.

REGULATIONS FOR THE CHINESE ON THE GOLD FIELDS.

HIS Excellency the Officer administering the Government, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulations for the management and good government of the Chinese on the Gold Fields, in pursuance of the Act of Council, 18 Victoria, No. 39, sec. 6, viz:—

i. Chinese Camps.—All Chinese immigrants residing on or near the gold fields shall erect their tents or dwelling places on such camping ground or site and in such a manner as shall be directed by the Protector of the District in which such immigrants shall be residing.

ii. Occasional Removal of Camps.—When the Protector of the District deems it necessary that any Chinese camp or camps should be removed or divided, for sanitary or other purposes, such Chinese immigrants shall remove their tents, on (7) seven days' notice to that effect being given to them by the Protector.

iii. Appointment of Headmen.—The Protectors in their respective districts may appoint such a number of headmen, and at such a rate of pay as His Excellency the Governor, in Council, may direct, to superintend the different Chinese encampments, and such headmen shall carry out and see duly enforced among the Chinese such orders and instructions as they may, from time to time, receive in writing from the Protector of the District.

iv. Chinese not to use Water Reserved.—No Chinese immigrants residing on any gold field shall use for the purpose of washing auriferous earth any water which may have been specially reserved, or its use forbidden by the Protector of the District.

v. Relief of Chinese.—The Chinese Protectors in their respective districts may recommend for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor in Council the case or cases of any Chinese immigrants who may become destitute from sickness or other causes, with a view to their relief.

vi. Settlement of Disputes.—All mining disputes which may arise on the gold fields between any Chinese immigrants shall be decided by the Protectors of the District, being Justices of the Peace according to the mining laws and regulations which shall or may be in future in force in their respective districts.

vii. When any dispute shall arise between any Chinese immigrants and miners of other nations, the former may apply to the Protector for advice and assistance, and it shall be the duty of the Protector to afford such advice and assistance.

By His Excellency's Command,

WILLIAM C. HAINES.

General Post Office, Melbourne.
24th MARCH, 1856.

PARTIES applying for Letters at the General Post Office are particularly requested to give the correct number of the letter and also the date and number of the list in which they may have observed their names, as such reference will materially facilitate delivery. Persons in the country making written applications, in addition to the number of the letter, and the date and number of the list, are requested to state where they expect their letters from, and any information which may tend to prevent an unnecessary transmission of letters.

Application to be made at the General Delivery Department, corner of Elizabeth and Bourke-streets. The next List will contain all letters received by Ship up to the 31st March, 1856.

N.B.—Letters posted in any part of the Colony of Victoria are not advertised. The Lists contain only Letters received by Ship from England, Foreign Countries, and the neighbouring Colonies.
