CAP. XCI.

An Act to facilitate the Erection and Maintenance of Colonial Lighthouses, and otherwise to amend the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854".

[14th August, 1855.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for facilitating the erection and maintenance of lighthouses in the British possessions abroad, and otherwise to amend the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854:" Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title of Act.
17 & 18 Vict., c. 104.

I. This Act may be cited as "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," and shall be taken to be part of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and shall be construed accordingly.

Colonial Lighthouses.

Her Majesty may by Order in Council fix dues for Colonial Lighthouses.

II. In any case in which any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon has been or is hereafter erected or placed on or near the coasts of any British possession, by or with the consent of the legislative authority of such possession, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the owner or master of every ship which passes the same or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may in like manner from time to time increase, diminish, or repeal such dues, and from the time specified in such Order for the commencement of the dues thereby fixed, increased, or diminished the same shall be leviable throughout Her Majesty's dominions in manner hereinafter mentioned.

No such dues to be levied in any Colony without the consent of the Colonial Legislature.

III. No such dues as aforesaid shall be levied in any Colony unless and until the legislative authority in such Colony has, either by Address to the Crown, or by an Act or Ordinance duly passed, signified its opinion that the same ought to be levied in such Colony.

Mode of collecting the said dues.
17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, ss. 399, 400, 401.

IV. The said dues shall in the United Kingdom be collected by the same persons by whom, and by the same means, in the same manner, and subject to the same conditions, so far as circumstances permit, by, in, and subject to which the light dues leviable under the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," are collected, and shall in each British possession abroad be collected by such persons as the Governor of such possession abroad may appoint for the purpose, and shall be collected by the same means, in the same manner, and subject to the same conditions, so far as circumstances permit, by, in, and subject to which which the light dues leviable under the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," are paid and collected, or by such other means, in such other manner, and subject to such other conditions as the legislative authority in such possession may direct.

V. All dues levied under this Act shall be paid over to Her Majesty's Paymaster General at such times and in such manner as the Board of Trade may direct, and shall be applied, paid, and dealt with by him, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, in such manner as such Board may direct.

Dues to be paid over to Her Majesty's Paymaster General.

VI. The dues levied under the authority of this Act in respect of any such lighthouse, buoy, or beacon as aforesaid shall, after deducting any expenses incurred in collecting the same, be applied for the purpose of paying the expenses incurred in erecting and maintaining such lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, and for no other purpose whatever.

Dues to be applied to expenses of lighthouse, &c., for which they are levied.

VII. For the purpose of constructing or repairing any such lighthouse, buoy, or beacon as aforesaid, the Board of Trade may raise, upon the security of the dues to be levied in respect thereof, such sums of money as they may deem fit; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of any monies which may be provided by Parliament, the Public Works Loan Commissioners, or any other person or body of persons, may advance the same accordingly, such advances to be made in the same manner, with the same powers, and subject to the same provisions, so far as circumstances permit, in, with, and subject to which, under the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," advances may be made upon the security of the Mercantile Marine Fund for the construction and repair of lighthouses in the United Kingdom.

Power to borrow money on security of dues.
17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, ss. 424, 425, 426.

VIII. Accounts shall be kept of all sums expended in the construction, repair, or maintenance of every lighthouse, buoy, or beacon in the British possessions abroad for which dues are levied under the authority of this Act, and of the dues received in respect thereof, in such manner as the Board of Trade may direct, and shall be laid before Parliament annually; and the said accounts shall be audited in such manner as Her Majesty may by order in Council direct.

Accounts for each lighthouse, &c., to be kept, and laid before Parliament, and to be audited.
17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, s. 428.

IX. Any person who, in any declaration made in the presence of or produced to any registrar of shipping, in pursuance of the second part of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," or in any documents or other evidence produced to such registrar, wilfully makes, or assists in making or procures to be made, any false statement concerning the title to or the ownership of or the interest existing in any ship, or any share or shares in any ship, or who utters, produces, or makes use of any declaration or document containing any such false statement, knowing the same to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Registry of Ships.
PART II. of "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

Penalty on false declarations under Part II. of "Merchant Shipping Act."
17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, s. 103.

X. Shares in ships registered under the said "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," shall be deemed to be included in the word "Stock," as defined by the "Trustee Act, 1850," and the provisions of such last-mentioned Act shall be applicable to such shares accordingly.

Shares in shipping within the "Trustee Act, 1850."
13 & 14 Vict., c. 60.

XI. In any case in which any bill of sale, mortgage, or other instrument for the disposal or transfer of any ship or any share or shares therein or of any interest therein is made in any form or contains any particulars other than the form and particulars prescribed and approved for the purpose by or in pursuance of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," no registrar shall be required to record the same without the express direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs.

Forms of instruments.
17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, s. 96.

XII. Upon the transfer of the registry of a ship from one port to another, the certificate of registry required by the ninetieth section of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," to be delivered up for that purpose, may be delivered up to the registrar of either of such ports.

Delivery of certificate upon transfer of registry.
17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, s. 90.

XIII. The Commissioners of Customs may, with the consent of the Board of Trade, exempt any pleasure yacht from the provision contained in the thirty-fourth section of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854,"

Exemption of certain ships from having name painted on stern.

Merchant Shipping Act Amendment.

17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, s. 34. "1854," which requires the name of every ship and the port to which she belongs to be painted on her stern.

Ships measured under Rule II. may be measured under Rule I.

17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, ss. 21 and 22.

General Register Books in London.

17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, s. 107.

Masters and Seamen.

PART III. of
"Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

Extension of provisions concerning the relief of destitute seamen.

17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, ss. 211, 212, and 213.

Enactment concerning Savings' Banks extended to seamen in the navy.

17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, s. 180.

Additional powers of Naval Courts.

17 & 18 Vict., c. 104, ss. 260 to 266.

XIV. The owner of any ship which is measured under Rule II. contained in the twenty-second section of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," may at any subsequent period apply to the Commissioners of Customs to have the said ship remeasured under Rule I. contained in the twenty-first section of the same Act, and the said Commissioners may thereupon, and upon payment of such fee not exceeding seven shillings and sixpence for each transverse section as they may authorise, direct the said ship to be remeasured accordingly, and the number denoting the register tonnage shall be altered accordingly.

XV. The copy or transcript of the register of any British ship which is kept by the Chief Registrar of Shipping at the Custom House in London, or by the Registrar General of Seamen, under the direction of Her Majesty's Commissioners of Customs or of the Board of Trade, shall have the same effect to all intents and purposes as the original register of which the same is a copy or transcript.

XVI. The Board of Trade may issue instructions concerning the relief to be administered to distressed seamen and apprentices, in pursuance of the two hundred and eleventh and two hundred and twelfth sections of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and may by such instructions determine in what cases and under what circumstances and conditions such relief is to be administered; and all powers of recovering expenses incurred with respect to distressed seamen and apprentices, which by the two hundred and thirteenth section of the said Act are given to the Board of Trade, shall extend to all expenses incurred by any foreign government for the purposes aforesaid, and repaid to such government by Her Majesty's government, and shall likewise extend to any expenses incurred by the conveying home such seamen or apprentices in foreign as well as British ships; and all provisions concerning the relief of distressed seamen and apprentices, being subjects of Her Majesty, which are contained in the said sections of the said Act, and in this section, shall extend to such seamen and apprentices, not being subjects of Her Majesty, as are reduced to distress in foreign parts by reason of their having been shipwrecked, discharged, or left behind from any British ship; subject nevertheless to such modifications and directions concerning the cases in which relief is to be given to such foreigners, and the country to which they are to be sent, as the Board of Trade may, under the circumstances, think fit to make and issue.

XVII. The enactment of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," relating to Savings' Banks shall apply to all seamen, and to their wives and families, whether such seamen belong to the Royal Navy or to the Merchant Service, or to any other sea service.

XVIII. Any Naval Court summoned, under the provisions of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," to hear any complaint touching the conduct of the master or any of the crew of any ship, shall, in addition to the powers given to it by the said Act, have power to try the said master or any of the said crew for any offences against the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," in respect of which two justices would, if the case were tried in the United Kingdom, have power to convict summarily, and by order duly made to inflict the same punishments for such offences which two justices might in the case aforesaid inflict upon summary conviction; provided, that in cases where an offender is sentenced to imprisonment the sentence shall be confirmed in writing by the senior naval or consular officer present at the place where the court is held, and the place of imprisonment, whether on land or on board ship, shall be approved by him as a proper place for the purpose, and copies of all sentences made by any Naval Court summoned to hear any such complaint as aforesaid shall be sent to the Commander-in-Chief or senior naval officer of the station.

XIX. Whenever

Merchant Shipping Act Amendment.

XIX. Whenever any articles belonging to or forming part of any foreign ship which has been wrecked on or near the coasts of the United Kingdom, or belonging to or forming part of the cargo thereof, are found on or near such coasts, or are brought into any port in the United Kingdom, the Consul General of the country to which such ship, or, in the case of cargo, to which the owners of such cargo, may have belonged, or any consular officer of such country authorized in that behalf by any treaty or agreement with such country, shall, in the absence of the owner of such ship or articles, and of the master or other agent of the owner, be deemed to be the agent of the owner, so far as relates to the custody and disposal of such articles.

XX. In cases where services are rendered by officers or men of the Coast Guard Service in watching or protecting shipwrecked property, then unless it can be shown that such services have been declined by the owner of such property or his agent at the time they were tendered, or that salvage has been claimed and awarded for such services, the owner of the shipwrecked property shall pay in respect of the said services remuneration according to a scale to be fixed by the Board of Trade, so, however, that such scale shall not exceed any scale by which payment to officers and men of the Coast Guard for extra duties in the ordinary service of the Commissioners of Customs is for the time being regulated; and such remuneration shall be recoverable by the same means and shall be paid to the same persons and accounted for and applied in the same manner as fees received by receivers appointed under the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

XXI. If any person, being a British subject, charged with having committed any crime or offence on board any British ship on the high seas or in any foreign port or harbor, or if any person, not being a British subject charged with having committed any crime or offence on board any British ship on the high seas, is found within the jurisdiction of any court of justice in Her Majesty's dominions which would have had cognizance of such crime or offence if committed within the limits of its ordinary jurisdiction, such court shall have jurisdiction to hear and try the case as if such crime or offence had been committed within such limits: Provided, that nothing contained in this section shall be construed to alter or interfere with the Act of the thirteenth year of Her present Majesty, chapter 96.

XXII. It shall be the duty of the East India Company to take charge of and send home or otherwise provide for all persons, being Lascars or other natives of the territories under the Government of the said Company, who are found destitute in the United Kingdom; and if any such person is relieved and maintained by any guardians, overseers, or other persons administering the relief of the poor, such overseers, guardians, or other persons may, by letter sent through the post or otherwise, give notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, specifying, so far as is practicable, the following particulars, viz.:—

1. The name of the person so relieved or maintained.
2. The Presidency or district or part of the territories of the East India Company of which he professes to be a native.
3. The name of the ship in which he was brought to the United Kingdom.
4. The port or place abroad from which such ship sailed, and the port or place in the United Kingdom at which such ship arrived, when he was so brought to the United Kingdom, and the time of such arrival.

And the said East India Company shall repay to the said overseers, guardians, or other persons, out of the revenues of the said Company, all monies duly expended by them in relieving or maintaining such destitute person, after the time at which such notice aforesaid is sent or otherwise given.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to repeal or affect any provisions contained in the twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, twenty-seventh, twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth, thirtieth, thirty-first, or thirty-fourth sections of the Act of the fourth year of King George the Fourth, chapter eighty, or in the sixteenth section of the Act of the eighteenth year of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty.

RESERVED ACT ASSENTED TO.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency Major-General MACARTHUR, the Senior Military Officer in Command of Her Majesty's Land Forces in the Colony of Victoria, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS the Legislative Council of the Colony of Victoria did, on the thirtieth day of the month of November, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the session held in the eighteenth year of Her present Majesty's Reign, pass a Bill, intituled, "An Act to enable the Bishops, Clergy and Laity of the United Church of England and Ireland in Victoria to provide for the regulation of the affairs of the said Church," which Bill was reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, agreeably to the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies;" And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the same Reign, intituled, "An Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land," it was amongst other things enacted, that no Bill which should be so reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon should have any force or authority until the Governor should signify either by Speech or Message to the Legislative Council, or by Proclamation, that such Bill had been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and that Her Majesty had been pleased to assent to the same: Now therefore I, Major-General MACARTHUR, the Senior Military Officer and Officer administering the Government of the said Colony of Victoria, do by this my Proclamation signify and declare that the Right Honorable Henry Labouchere, one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, has transmitted to me a Despatch intimating that the said Bill has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and that the Order appended hereto was made by Her Majesty in Council on the twenty-fifth day of February in the present year, declaring Her Majesty's assent to the said Bill so reserved as aforesaid.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this third day of June, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and in the nineteenth year of Her Majesty's Reign.

(Ls.)

EDWARD MACARTHUR.

By His Excellency's Command.

WILLIAM C. HAINES.

T.4566.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of February, 1856.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty,
His Royal Highness Prince Albert,

Lord President,
Duke of Argyll,
Duke of Wellington,
Lord Chamberlain,
Viscount Palmerston,
Lord Panmure,
Sir George Grey, Bart.,
Mr. Vernon Smith,
Mr. Baines.

Whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land," it is amongst other things enacted, that "No Bill which shall be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon shall have any force or authority within the Colony of New South Wales until the Governor of the said Colony shall signify either by Speech or Message to the Legislative Council of the said Colony or by Proclamation as therein aforesaid that such Bill has been laid before Her Majesty in Council and that Her Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same;" And whereas by another Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies," it was provided, amongst other things, that the provisions of the said former Act, concerning the reservation of Bills for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure, should apply to and be in force in the Colony of Victoria; And whereas on the 30th of November, 1854, the Governor of the said Colony of Victoria reserved a certain Bill passed by the Legislative Council of the said Colony, intituled, "An Act to enable the Bishops, Clergy and Laity of the United Church of England and Ireland in Victoria to provide for the regulation of the affairs of the said Church," for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon; And whereas the said Bill so reserved as aforesaid has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and it is expedient that the said Bill should be assented to by Her Majesty: Now therefore Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said Acts, and in exercise of the powers thereby reserved to Her Majesty as aforesaid, doth by this present order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, declare Her assent to the said Bill.

And the Right Honorable Henry Labouchere, one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WM. L. BATHURST.

SHOAL IN DAMPIER'S STRAITS.

THE annexed description of a Shoal in the Straits of Dampier, reported by the Master of the Catherine Apear, and published in the Hongkong Gazette by the Government of that Colony, is republished for general information.

By His Excellency's Command,
WILLIAM C. HAINES.

“Catherine Apear, 3rd March, 1856.

“A shoal seen by me in Straits of Dampier nearly square with the water's edge East and West, with the following bearings:—

Pigeon Island—West a little Southerly.
Augusta Island—Just open to the N. of Pigeon Island.
Foul Island—S.S.E.
Mansfield Island—E. by S. $\frac{1}{2}$ S.
Button Island—A small Island to the East of King William's Island N. $\frac{1}{2}$ E.

“I think this must be the shoal that the Sophia Fraser struck on, as there is no shoal square with the water's edge six or seven miles E. by N. from Pigeon Island.
(Signed) R. FOWLER.”
