By His Excellency SIR HENRY BARKLY, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of Victoria, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Lieutenant Governor and Legislative Council of the Colony of Victoria, passed in the sixteenth year of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for making and improving Roads in the Colony of Victoria," it was amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor, from time to time, by notice in the Government Gazette, to proclaim and declare any such portion of the said colony as to him should seem meet, as and to be a road district for the purposes in the said Act contained, and also to define the boundaries of every road district thereby proclaimed and declared, and to give a specific name or designation to every such road district: Now therefore I, Sir Henry Barkly, the Governor of Victoria, in pursuance of the power so vested in me by the said Act, and of every other power and authority enabling me in this behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the district hereinafter defined shall be a road district for the purposes in the said Act contained, that is to say:—

No. 40.—APRIL 17TH, 1857.—1.

No. 487.

Head Quarters,
Melbourne, 9th April, 1857.

GENERAL ORDER.

IT has been represented to the Major General commanding the Troops in Australia and New Zealand that there are, at this juncture, very many deluded men in these colonies who bitterly repent of their folly in having, on their first arrival, and as young soldiers, deserted from their regiments, but who are afraid of surrendering themselves on account of the severe penalties which are the just and inevitable awards of desertion:

Moved by these considerations, the Major General ventures so far to interfere in their behalf, that he engages to remit the imprisonment with or without hard labor which, in this command, is the usual punishment of desertion for a first offence, when unattended with aggravated circumstances; provided, however, that offenders of this class, who have now an opportunity of surrendering themselves, shall do so before the celebration of Her most gracious Majesty's Birthday, on the 24th May next ensuing.

The once ill-advised men who so give themselves up to the authorities will again be received into their respective corps, with no other penalty than the forfeiture of the advantage of past services, which the Major General has no power to remit.

They will be restored to the companionship of those true soldiers who faithfully perform their engagements. But should they fatally for themselves otherwise determine, many such deserters may for a while, it is true, continue to elude the untiring and ever-renewing search that at all times places them in danger of being apprehended.

In this condition the consciousness of guilt, the dread of detection, and the certainty that whenever brought before a military tribunal they will assuredly incur the punishment for desertion prescribed by the Articles of War, are circumstances more than sufficient to render life a burthen.

By Command,

J. M. B. NEILL, Lt. Col.,
Deputy Adjutant General.
