MUNICIPAL INSTITUTIONS.

CRESWICK PETITION.

IN pursuance of the Act of Council 18 Victoria No. 15, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has directed the publication of the substance and prayer of a petition addressed to His Excellency as hereinafter set forth, signed by one hundred and sixty-six householders and landholders resident at Creswick, in the county of Talbot, praying for the erection of their locality into a municipal district.

By His Excellency's Command,
JOHN O'SHANASSY.

H.7617.

The petitioners state that a public meeting was held at Creswick, on the 30th of June last, whereat it was agreed that the erection of Creswick into a municipality was desirable, the meeting being impressed with the conviction that such a step was advisable for the better government and improvement of the township and its vicinity.

They further state that the area which they propose for a municipal district does not exceed nine square miles, that it contains three hundred householders, and that no point therein is distant more than six miles from any other point.

And the petitioners pray as follows.—
"Your petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Excellency may declare the district a municipal district, under the name of the 'Municipality of Creswick,' pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Council 18 Victoria No. 15, &c."

SUSPECTED MURDER.

FIFTY POUNDS REWARD.—FREE PARDON TO AN ACCESSORY.
WHEREAS on or about Thursday, the 23rd day of September last, the remains of a human body were discovered in a hollow tree, at a spot near the Carngham Gold Fields, and about two miles distant from the Smythe's Creek road: And whereas divers circumstances raise a suspicion that the deceased was murdered: Notice is hereby given that a reward of Fifty pounds will be paid to any person giving information which will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who murdered the deceased, should it appear that the deceased was murdered.

His Excellency the Governor will also extend Her Majesty's free pardon to any person implicated in the murder who will give the information required, provided such person was not the actual murderer.

By His Excellency's Command,
 JOHN O'SHANASSY.

G.8382.

PARTICULARS.

The remains were found in a hollow tree, about four feet from the ground, and in a sitting posture. When first discovered, the head was bound up in a cotton handkerchief with red marks upon it, and under the handkerchief appeared a quantity of blood. The bones were mostly denuded of flesh, but a considerable quantity of black hair remained. There are marks of violence on the skull. The following articles were found with the corpse, viz:—An opossum rug, two shirts which apparently had been saturated with blood, a shooting-jacket; a light canvas coat (in the pockets of which were a piece of ribbon, portions of a newspaper, and a purse resembling a Chinese purse), a pair of tweed trousers, two or three blankets bearing marks of blood, sixty or seventy small skewers, several of which were stuck in the skin of the corpse, some comforters tied in a knot, a piece of dark calico, a pouch, a billy, and a panican. An aperture on the other side of the tree had been carefully covered over with bark which had been nailed over it. A few paces from the tree were found portions of blanket corresponding with those found in the tree, and also several strips of female dress tied in a knot. An attempt appears to have been made to burn the tree. There were also found ten rafters of a frame tent, with nails, hidden among portions of decayed trees. The corpse is supposed to have been deposited in the place where it was found five or six months ago, and appears to have been that of a middle-aged man, not of European origin.

His Excellency the Governor will also extend Her Majesty's free pardon to any person implicated in the murder who will give the required information, provided such person was not the actual murderer.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS, 1859.

TENDERS are hereby invited, and will be received until Noon of Tuesday, the 16th November, 1858, for the conveyance of Post Office Mails, and other transport services, as undermentioned, for one year, from the 1st January to the 31st December, 1859.

All tenders are required to be written on the prescribed form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and must be forwarded (if by post prepaid) addressed to the Honorable the Postmaster General, with the words "Tender for conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover.

Tenderers are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender.

Persons are invited, besides tendering in accordance with the detailed list of services, to propose for any special times and arrangements or combination of services, or any route not specified, that would afford advantage to the public.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound with him in double the amount of the contract for the due performance of the service.

Persons tendering are requested to state whether they propose to convey the mails on horseback or in a carriage; in the latter case they are to state the description of vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

In the performance of the services numbered 13, 25, and 45, contractors will be required to provide free conveyance, by every journey, for a mail guard—an officer of the Post Office—who will have special custody of the mails in course of transit.

In cases where it may at any time be practicable to convey mails by railway, a rateable deduction will be made in the amount of the contract, according to the proportion of the service so performed; and contractors will be required to take up the mails at any part of the road thus rendered necessary.

The mails to Castlemaine, Sandhurst, and Ballarat will be required to be conveyed by night.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.
