MUNICIPALITY OF SMYTHESDALE.

BYE-LAW No. 5.—A BYE-LAW FOR CONDUCTING PUBLIC MEETINGS OF THE RATEPAYERS AND ELECTIONS OF MEMBERS OF COUNCIL, AND ALSO FOR REGULATING THE PROCEEDINGS AT THE ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN.

At all public meetings of the ratepayers, in the absence of the chairman, the senior councillor then present shall preside.

2. In any polling place, no person other than the chairman, the town clerk or his deputy, the scrutineers, or electors who shall for the time being be tendering their votes, shall be entitled to be present; and it is hereby provided that it shall always be lawful for the chairman, the town clerk or his deputy, to summon to his assistance in such compartment or room any member or members of the police force, for the purpose of preserving the public peace, quelling any breach thereof that may have arisen, and for removing out of such room any person or persons who may in his opinion be obstructing the polling or wilfully violating any of the provisions of this section of this bye-law.

3. The chairman shall cause to be provided for the purpose of such election a locked-up box, of which he shall keep the key, with a cleft or opening therein capable of receiving the voting-papers, and which box shall stand in front of the chairman, and each elector shall receive from the chairman a voting-paper in the form in the schedule hereunto annexed, and shall thereupon retire to a stall or compartment provided for that purpose and there strike out the name or names of such candidates as he does not intend to vote for, and deposit the same in the ballot-box, in the presence of the chairman, town clerk or his deputy, and scrutineers; and in case such elector shall be unable to read, or be blind, he shall signify the same to the chairman, who shall thereupon mark or strike out the names of such candidates as such elector shall designate; and no elector shall take out of such polling place any such voting-paper either before or after he has marked the same.

4. Each ~~candidate~~ shall be entitled to appoint by writing under his hand, to be delivered to the chairman at any time before Eight o'clock in the morning of the day of polling, one scrutineer to be present on his behalf in the polling place.

5. The chairman may put to any person, before he shall have received his voting-paper, the following questions:—

First. What is your name and surname?

Second. Are you twenty-one years of age?

Third. Are you a ratepayer on the ratepayers' roll of the municipal district of Smythesdale?

Fourth. Have you paid all rates levied upon you except such as shall have become payable by you within six months before this election?

6. At every election it shall be the duty of the town clerk or his deputy to provide himself with the ratepayers' roll, and as each elector comes forward to demand his voting-paper, to see whether the name of such elector appears upon the roll as a ratepayer within the meaning of the Municipal Act, and as each elector deposits his voting-paper within the ballot-box to mark off such elector's name as having voted at such election.

7. In case the voting-paper as of any person shall have been received, and any other person shall afterwards demand his voting-paper as of the same person, the chairman, when such person shall propose to deposit his voting-paper in the ballot-box, shall refuse to allow the same to be put therein, but shall receive and keep the same apart, and at the close of the election decide whether such person has already voted or not, and his decision shall be final and conclusive on all parties; and if it shall appear to the chairman that such person has not already voted at such election, such vote shall be added to the number already polled, but if otherwise such vote shall not be allowed.

8. At the close of the poll, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the chairman, in the presence of the scrutineers, shall count the number of votes polled for each candidate; and if, on the state of the poll being announced, the number of votes shall have been found to have been equal for any two or more candidates, one or more of whom, but not all, shall, by the state of the poll and the number of members to be elected, be entitled to be declared elected, the chairman shall by a casting vote or votes, as the case may be, decide which of the candidates for whom the votes may be equal shall be elected; and the chairman shall then, in the presence of the scrutineers, seal up all the voting-papers given during the election, and safely preserve them amongst the records of the council.

9. The chairman of the council shall be annually elected in the following manner:—At the first meeting of the council after the annual election, which meeting shall be convened by the retiring chairman, or the person presiding at the annual election, the senior councillor then present shall take the chair at the hour mentioned in the notice calling the meeting, provided the whole council be present, otherwise at the expiry of half an hour thereafter, and the council shall proceed, by open voting on motion as usual, to elect a chairman for the current year, and the councillor in whose favor the show of hands shall be, shall be declared by the acting chairman to be chairman of the council for the current year, and shall take the chair accordingly.

10. If the result of voting for chairman should be that the highest number of votes is held equally by more than two councillors, then another voting shall take place for those councillors only having such equality of votes, until a majority is recorded.

11. Upon the resignation or disqualification of the chairman of the council, at the next meeting of the council thereafter the senior councillor then present shall take the chair pro tem, and immediately after the confirmation of the minutes of the preceding meeting, shall proceed to the election of a chairman of council for the residue of the municipal year, in manner prescribed by this bye-law.

12. In determining the seniority of councillors for the purpose of this bye-law, it shall be understood to mean those councillors who shall have held office for the longest period without re-election, and having the greatest number of votes when elected.

13. Any person neglecting or refusing to comply with, or infringing any of the provisions of this bye-law, on conviction before two or more justices of the peace, shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds.

2. The regular meetings of the board shall be held at the office of the board, on every fourth Saturday, at Ten o'clock a.m. The business to commence as soon as a quorum of three is present; but should a quorum not be present at the expiration of half an hour after the said time appointed for meeting, the same shall be entered, with a note of the members present, in the minute book, and the meeting shall lapse.

3. Special meetings shall be summoned at any time by the secretary, upon receiving a written requisition signed by two members, stating the matter to be discussed at such meeting; such summons to be posted five clear days before such meeting.

4. The minutes of any preceding meeting not previously confirmed shall be read as the first business at all meetings of the board, in order to their confirmation; and no discussion shall be permitted thereupon, except as to their accuracy.

5. At all meetings the reading of correspondence unconnected with the business of the meeting, the presentation of petitions, and the bringing up of reports, shall have the precedence of all motions.

6. Every communication addressed to the board shall be in proper form, and presented by one of its members, who shall be responsible for its being respectfully worded.

7. On the presentation of a petition, or the bringing up of a report, no debate shall take place thereon, until notice has been given in the usual manner, unless two-thirds of the board be present; and the only question that shall be entertained shall

8. The orders of the day shall include all matters arising out of the proceedings of former meetings of the board, and any business which the chairman may think fit to bring under consideration. Any member of the board may, however, bring forward such business as he may consider advisable, in the form of notice of motion. No such motion, however, shall be decided on at any meeting of the board, unless notice thereof shall have been given to the secretary, in writing, by the member bringing it forward seven clear days before such meeting.

16. Any member may, of right, require the production of any of the documents of the board relating to the question or matter in discussion.

17. One amendment only shall be discussed at one time; but, if lost, another may be moved before the original motion is put to the vote.

18. All questions before the board shall be decided by open voting.

19. No discussion will be allowed on any motion for adjournment of the board; but if, on the question being put, the motion be negative, the subject then under consideration, or the next on the notice paper, shall be discussed, or any other that may be allowed precedence, before any subsequent motion for adjournment shall be entertained; but if the motion for adjournment be carried, the business then undisposed of shall have precedence at the next meeting of the board.

20. No motion, the effect of which if carried would be to rescind any motion which has already passed the board, shall be entertained during the same year, unless a call of the whole board has been duly made for that purpose; and no such motion for rescinding any resolution of the board which shall have been negatived by the board, shall be again entertained during the same year.
