On certificate that the contract has been completed to the satisfaction of the Engineer-in-Chief of Railways, the amount will be repaid to the contractor.

BYE-LAWS.

THE first business at each meeting of the board shall be to read the minutes of the preceding meeting, and when confirmed and signed by the chairman, no further discussion shall be permitted thereon.

2. At all meetings of the board the reading of correspondence, the presentation of petitions, and the bringing up of reports of committees, shall have precedence of all motions.

3. On the presentation of petitions, the only question that may be entertained shall be that the petition be received, and, if necessary, be referred to a committee.

4. Every petition addressed to the board must be presented by a member of the board, who shall be responsible for its being in form and respectfully worded.

5. The orders of the day shall include all matters arising out of the proceedings of forming meetings of the board, and any business which the chairman might think fit to bring under consideration. Any member of the board may, however, bring forward such business as he may consider advisable, in the form of notice of motion. No such motion, however, shall be decided on at any meeting of the board, unless notice thereof shall have been given to the clerk in writing by the member bringing it forward at the meeting previous to that in which the same shall be taken into consideration: motions involving expenditure of sums under Ten pounds, and the payment of salaries, alone excepted.

6. No motion entered on the notice paper shall be proceeded with unless the member giving notice, or some member authorised by him, be present. Notices not proceeded with shall be struck off the paper.

7. The mover of any motion which may be referred to a committee, shall be a member of such committee.

8. Any rule may be suspended pro tem, in case of emergency, with the consent of the majority of the members present at any meeting of the board.

ORDER OF DEBATE.

10. The presiding chairman's ruling shall be final on all matters of order of practice, and he shall state the same without comment or argument.

11. Every motion and amendment, whether carried or lost, shall be entered on the minutes with the name of the mover and seconder, if any, and on a division thereon the votes shall be recorded.

12. One amendment only shall be discussed at a time, but all amendments shall be put and discussed before the original motion.

13. No discussion shall be allowed on any motion for adjournment of the board, but if, on the question being put, the motion be negatived, the subject then under discussion and the next on the notice paper shall be discussed before the question of adjournment be again entertained; but if the motion of adjournment be carried, the business then undisposed of shall have precedence at the next meeting of the board.

14. No member shall speak twice on the same question, except by way of explanation, or in reply as the mover of any motion or amendment, and after such explanation or reply the question shall be put to the vote.

15. If more than one member rise at one time to address the board, the chairman shall decide which is entitled to precedence.

16. No member addressing the board on any question under discussion shall digress from such question or impute improper motives to any other member.

17. Any member who shall use any expression capable of being applied offensively to any other member shall, if required by the board, withdraw such expression, and make a satisfactory apology to the board.

CONTRACTS.

18. When any tender is accepted, the tenderer shall immediately pay a preliminary deposit of five per cent. on all contracts under Fifty pounds, and ten per cent. on all contracts over Fifty pounds; and within one week, he, with two sufficient sureties, shall enter into a bond for the due and faithful performance of the work, or, in lieu of sureties, allow the deposit to remain in the hands of the treasurer of the board, until the completion of the contract.
