THE SHIRE OF LEIGH.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR CHARLES HENRY DARLING, Knight
Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath,
Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Victoria, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Local Government Act, 1863, it is amongst other things enacted, that if at any time in any district, whether single or united, which shall contain an area of not less than one hundred square miles, the total amount actually paid in respect of the general rate then last made shall have amounted to One thousand pounds, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to proclaim, if it shall seem fit, such district, by such name as in and by such Order in Council may be assigned thereto, to be a shire within the meaning of the said Act, and such district shall thereupon be and be called such shire accordingly; and no district, after the proclamation thereof as such shire, save as herein provided with regard to the adjustment of boundaries to those of electoral districts, shall be united with any other shire or district, or with any borough or municipal district: And whereas the area of the district herein-after named, and the amount of the last general rate therein, are not less than the area and amount in the said Act mentioned, and it seemed fit to make an Order in Council this day to proclaim the said district to be a shire accordingly: Now therefore I, Sir Charles Henry Darling, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby proclaim the district heretofore proclaimed and called the Shelford Road District to be a shire within the meaning of the said Act, by the name in and by such Order in Council assigned thereto, that is to say:—

THE SHIRE OF LEIGH.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this fourteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and in the twenty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

THE COLAC ROAD DISTRICT ADDED TO.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR CHARLES HENRY DARLING, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Victoria, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Local Government Act, 1863, it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time, if it shall seem fit, to add to any district not divided into subdivisions, or to any subdivision, or separately to two or more subdivisions of a district so divided, any portion of the colony actually adjoining to such district or subdivision, as the case may be, and not lying within the limits of the city of Melbourne or town of Geelong, or of any municipal or road district; and every such portion so added shall thereupon become and be part of such first-mentioned district to all intents and purposes, and of the subdivision, if any, to which the same shall have been added: And whereas by a Proclamation under the hand of the Governor and the seal of the colony, bearing date the twenty-second day of June, 1863, the boundaries of the Colac road district were altered as therein mentioned: And whereas it has seemed fit to the Governor in Council to make an addition to the said road district by the extension of the southern boundary thereof: Now therefore I, Sir Charles Henry Darling, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby proclaim the said addition to the Colac road district by the extension of its southern boundary, in accordance with the above-recited provisions of the said Act; and do hereby re-define the whole of the said road district added to as aforesaid, in manner following, that is to say:—

Commencing at a point on the boundary of the electoral district of Polwarth and South Grenville, at the south-western angle of section xv, parish of Pirron Yaloak, in the county of Polwarth; thence by the said electoral boundary southerly to the sea-coast; thence by the coast line south-easterly and north-easterly to a point due south of the south-western angle of the Winchelsea road district; thence due north to the south-western angle of the Winchelsea road district and the centre of the River Barwon; thence northerly by the centre of the River Barwon and the western boundary of the Winchelsea road district to the south-eastern angle of allotment N, section 28, in the parish of Birregurra; thence westwards to the south-west angle of the last-named allotment; thence northwards to the south boundary of allotment A of section 22 in the last-named parish; thence south-east along the south boundary of the last-named allotment to its south-east angle; thence due north along the eastern boundaries of allotments A, B, C, D, and E of said section 22 to the north-east angle of said allotment E; thence westwards to the south-east side line of a Government road (bounding the last-named section on the north-west); thence north-east along the side line of the said road, and of allotment E of section 19, in the last-named parish, to a point due south of the dividing line of allotments B and C of the last-named section; and thence northerly by the said dividing line (crossing the Birregurra Creek into the county of Grenville) and the dividing line of allotments B and C of section 12, in the last-named parish, to the Colac road; thence north-east along the said Colac road to a point due south of the east side line of allotments 50 and 57 of the last-named parish, and onwards to the south side of section 104, in the parish of Gellibrand; thence further north by the western boundary of the said parish, and along the dividing line between the parishes of Hesse and War-racharunah to the north-east angle of the last-named parish; thence westward to the west boundary of the parish of Hesse; and thence north again by the west boundaries of the parishes of Hesse and Winesel to the Geelong and Cressy road; thence westerly by the said road to the centre of the Woody Yaloak River; thence southerly and westerly by the Woody Yaloak and the borders of the Shallow Salt Lake and the inlet thereto from the Lake Corangamite to the eastern shore of the said lake; thence southerly by the eastern shores of Lake Corangamite, the Pirron Yaloak Creek, and Tirrangover Morass, home to the commencing point.—(64,957.)

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this fourteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and in the twenty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

ROYAL ASSENT TO THE GOVERNOR'S SALARY REDUCTION ACT.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR CHARLES HENRY DARLING, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Victoria, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by the Constitution Statute it is amongst other things enacted, that the provisions of the Act of the fourteenth year of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-nine, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-six, For the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, which relate to the giving and withholding of Her Majesty's assent to Bills, and the reservation of Bills for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, and the instructions to be conveyed to governors for their guidance in relation to the matters aforesaid, and the disallowance of Bills by Her Majesty, shall apply to Bills to be passed by the Legislative Council and Assembly constituted under the Constitution Act of Victoria and the now-revoked Statute, and by any other legislative body or bodies which may at any time hereafter be substituted for the present Legislative Council and Assembly: And whereas the Bill hereinafter mentioned was reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon: And whereas by an Order of the Queen in Council, made on the seventh day of January in the present year, a copy whereof is hereunto appended, Her Majesty has been pleased to assent to the said Bill: Now therefore I, Sir Charles Henry Darling, the Governor of Victoria, in pursuance of the provisions of the aforesaid Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, do by this my proclamation signify that the Bill, intitled, An Act to repeal the appropriation of the Sum provided for the payment of the Salaries of the Governor's Staff and of the Governor's Travelling and other Expenses, reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, upon the second day of September, in the year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and that Her Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this twenty-second day of March, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and in the twenty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

C. H. DARLING.

By His Excellency's Command,

GEO. HIGINBOTHAM,

Attorney General.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the seventh day of January, 1864.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty

Lord President

Sir George Grey, Bart.

Mr. Charles Villiers

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, it is amongst other things enacted, that no Bill which shall be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, shall have any force or authority within the colony of New South Wales until the Governor of the said colony shall signify, either by speech or message to the Legislative Council of the said colony, or by proclamation as therein aforesaid, that such Bill has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and that Her Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same: And whereas by another Act passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies, it was provided among other things, that the provisions of the said former Act, concerning the reservation of Bills for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, should apply to and be in force in the colony of Victoria: And whereas the said provisions were maintained in force as regards Bills passed by the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the said colony by a subsequent Act passed in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of the reign of Her said Majesty, entitled, An Act to enable Her Majesty to assent to a Bill as amended of the Legislature of Victoria to establish a Constitution in and for the colony of Victoria: And whereas in the month of September, 1863, the Governor of the said colony of Victoria reserved a certain Bill passed by the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the said colony, entitled, An Act to repeal the appropriation of the Sum provided for the payment of the Salaries of the Governor's Staff and of the Governor's Travelling and other Expenses, for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon: And whereas the said Bill so reserved as aforesaid has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and it is expedient that the said Bill should be assented to by Her Majesty: Now therefore Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said Acts, and in exercise of the powers thereby reserved to Her Majesty as aforesaid, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, declare Her assent to the said Bill.

And the Most Noble the Duke of Newcastle, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

EDMUND HARRISON.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

THE Governor has directed the subjoined Despatch and Regulations to be published.

By His Excellency's Command,
J. McCULLOCH.

Chief Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 16th March, 1864.

Downing street,
18th January, 1864.

SIR,—I have the honor to transmit to you, at the request of the Civil Service Commissioners, the enclosed Regulations for an examination of candidates for the Civil Service of India, to be held in London, in the month of June or July, 1864 and 1865.

I have, &c.,
NEWCASTLE.

(Signed)
Governor Sir Charles Darling, K.C.B.,
&c., &c., &c.

REGULATIONS

For the Open Competition of 1864, and the Further Examination of 1865.*

1. In June or July, 1864, an examination of candidates will be held in London. Not less than candidates will be selected, if so many shall be found duly qualified. Of these, will be selected for the Presidency of Bengal, [for the Upper Provinces, and for the Lower Provinces,] for that of Madras, and for that of Bombay.†—Notice will hereafter be given of the days and place of examination.

2. Any natural-born subject of Her Majesty, who shall be desirous of entering the Civil Service of India, will be entitled to be examined at such examination, provided he shall, on or before the 1st May, 1864, have transmitted to the Civil Service Commissioners, Dean's Yard, London, S.W.—

(a) A certificate of his birth, showing that his age on the 1st May, 1864, will be above eighteen years and under twenty-two years;

(b) A certificate, signed by a physician or surgeon, of his having no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity, unfitting him for the Civil Service of India;

(c) Satisfactory proof, of good moral character;

(d) A statement, of those of the branches of knowledge hereinafter enumerated in which he desires to be examined.

3. In any case in which a doubt may arise as to the eligibility of a candidate in respect of age, health, or character, such inquiries as may be necessary will be instituted by the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. The examination will take place only in the following branches of knowledge:—

	Marks.

3. The General Principles of Jurisprudence and the Elements of Hindu and Mohammedan Law	1,200
4. Political Economy	350

In this, as in the preceding examination, the merit of the candidates examined will be estimated by marks, and the number set opposite to each subject denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it. The examination will be conducted by means of printed questions and written answers, and by vidé voce examination, as may be deemed necessary.

10. No candidate will be permitted to proceed to India until he shall have passed the further examination, or after he shall have attained the age of twenty-four years.

11. The selected candidates who at the further examination shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 9 shall be adjudged to have passed, and to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India.

12. The seniority in the Civil Service of India of the selected candidates shall be determined according to the order in which they stand on the list resulting from the further examination.

13. No person will, even after passing the further examination, be allowed to proceed to India unless he shall comply with the regulations in force at the time for the Civil Service of India, and shall be of sound bodily health and good moral character. The Civil Service Commissioners will require such further evidence on these points as they may deem necessary before granting their certificate of qualification.

14. Applications from persons desirous to be admitted as candidates are to be addressed to the Secretary to the Civil Service Commissioners, Deau's Yard, London, S.W.

NOTE.—(1.) All persons appointed to the Civil Service will be required to attend at the India Office, to make the necessary arrangements for entering into covenant, and for giving a bond for £1000, jointly with two sureties, for the due fulfilment of the same. The stamps payable by civilians on their appointment amount to £3 10s.

(2.) The Secretary of State for India in Council has authorised the Civil Service Commissioners to state that, with the view of meeting the expenses to be incurred by selected candidates during the interval which must elapse before they can proceed to India, it is his intention to allow the sum of £100 to each selected candidate who shall have passed the further examination in 1865 to the satisfaction of the commissioners, and shall have complied with such rules as may be laid down for the guidance of selected candidates.

(3.) Candidates are at liberty to send in their names and evidence of age as soon as they think fit to do so; but evidence of health and character must bear date not earlier than the 1st March, 1864.

(4.) Candidates rejected at the further examination of 1865 will in no case be allowed to present themselves for re-examination in 1866.

Old Treasury, Queen street,
Melbourne, 15th March, 1864.

CONDITIONS.

The conditions under which the premiums for wine of the vintage of 1864 will be awarded, are as follow, viz.:

1. Name.
2. Mottos used.
3. Locality.
4. Nature of the soil where grown.
5. Names of grapes.
6. Age of vines.
7. Distance the rows are planted.
8. Trenched by hand or plough.
9. Average yield per acre.
10. Aspect.
11. Distance from seaboard.
12. Altitude of vineyard.

Each sample to consist of six bottles from a bulk of not less than fifty gallons; but the owners of those to whom premiums or honorary certificates shall be awarded, will be required to furnish six additional bottles of the same wines after they have undergone a second fermentation, so that the judges may each year fast a bottle, to prove their comparative and progressive merits.

The samples sent in for competition to be the property of the Board, and to be accompanied by a declaration that they have been made from grapes of the bona fide growth of the competitors.

The conditions under which the premiums for wines of the vintage of 1862 will be awarded are as follows, viz.:

The same information to be furnished as required for wines of the vintage of 1864, and, in addition, the following conditions must be complied with, viz.:

The samples to consist of twelve bottles from a bulk of not less than fifty gallons, which shall become the property of the Board, and shall be forwarded to England under its auspices.

These premiums are to be competed for in July, 1865, and shall be awarded, if considered worthy, by the judges.

TOBACCO CULTURE.

The same information to be supplied by the competitor as that provided for as regards wines, Nos. 5 and 6 excepted.

SILK CULTURE.

Competitors for the premium for best sample of silk, in reel or cocoon, produced in the colony by themselves, will be required to furnish information as to quantity produced, when and under what circumstances, and such further particulars as to culture as may be important to the public. The locality, aspect, distance from seaboard, altitude, &c., &c.; the rearing of the worms from which the silk was obtained; and, also, the general mode of treatment pursued; to be furnished by the competitors.

SILK CULTURE.

Full particulars to be given by competitors for this premium; and, when mulberries have been planted, the same conditions as attached to the other premiums with reference to soil, locality, &c., &c., to be complied with.

WHITE MULBERRY CULTURE.

Full particulars as to soil, locality, &c., &c., as required by the above conditions, must also be furnished by competitors for this premium.

COTTON CULTURE.

The conditions for these premiums to be the same as those required for mulberry, wine, tobacco, and silk culture. Each sample to consist of not less than half cwt., which shall become the property of the Board, to be sent to England under its auspices.

HEMP CULTURE.

Full particulars to be furnished by competitors for these premiums, of the growth, locality, soil, yield, &c., as required in other conditions. The quantity grown to be not less than one acre, and a sample of one cwt. of the produce shall be delivered at the offices and become the property of the Board.

The conditions for second premium for hemp culture to be the same as for the first premium.

HOP CULTURE.

Competitors for first premium for the best acre of hops in 1865 will be required to state full particulars of growth, locality, soil, yield, &c., as required under the conditions for other premiums.

The conditions for second premium for hops to be the same as for the first premium.

The several samples to be accompanied by a declaration, signed by the competitor before a justice of the peace, that the conditions under which the premiums are to be awarded have been strictly complied with.

The above-mentioned premiums to be awarded under the supervision of the Council of the Board of Agriculture.

By Order of the Council,

J. M. MATSON,
Secretary.
