The mortality during April was higher than in the same month of the five preceding years. The readings of the thermometer show that the month was nearly two degrees warmer than the average. The temperature, however, was nearly as high in April, 1864, notwithstanding which the mortality was then considerably below the average.

Males and females died in the respective proportions of 55 and 45 per cent. 60 per cent. of the deaths were of children who had not reached their fifth year, against 62, 57, 58, 65, and 61 per cent. in the month of February of the five previous years respectively.

Nineteen deaths occurred on the 13th and 20th, eighteen on the 1st and 3rd, and seventeen on the 19th and 23rd. These were the days of highest mortality. Those of the lowest were the 8th and 18th, the returns of each of which only show four deaths.

A male, aged 85 years, died of paralysis. This is the only death recorded during the month of a person more than 75 years old.

Twenty-one violent deaths occurred during the month. Of these eight were from drowning, viz., four male and two female adults and two children under 5 years of age. The death of a girl, aged 14, resulted from burns; that of a child, aged 22 months, of a scald. A laborer, aged 29, was crushed to death by a fall of earth; a carter, aged 51, died from the effects of a fractured ankle; a boy, aged 9, of fractured ribs; a girl, aged 9, and a boy, aged 2, of fractured skulls; a clerk, aged 48, was accidentally shot; a male, aged 36, died of sunstroke; a child, aged 7, of alcoholic poisoning; another, aged 26 weeks, of accidental suffocation; a goldminer, aged 33, committed self-destruction by poisoning; a male, aged 31, was hanged judicially.

Seventy deaths, or 18 per cent. of the whole number recorded, occurred in public institutions, viz:—40 in the Melbourne Hospital; 4 in the Benevolent Asylum; 13 in the Yarra Bend Lunatic Asylum; 3 in the Immigrants' Home; 7 in the Industrial Schools; 1 in the Melbourne Gaol; 1 in the Collingwood Stockade, and 1 in the Hulk Success.

The following table shows the number of persons of all ages according to the last census, the number of deaths of persons under and over five years of age, the total at all ages, and the number of deaths to every 1000 of the population during the month of April, in the Statistical District of Melbourne and suburbs, and in each of the sub-districts of which it is composed:—

Security will be required to the extent of Three hundred pounds.

Tenderers must state the security proposed, whether in debentures, bank deposit receipt, cash receipt, guarantee society's bond, or sureties. If the latter, the tender must be accompanied by a certificate from two responsible persons, that they are willing to become bound in the sum specified, for the due fulfilment of the contract, and such security must be completed within ten days of acceptance of the tender, failing which the contract may be again advertised, or another tender accepted.

The Government may elect to require money surety. Tenders, sealed and marked "Tender for Forms and Books for Victorian Railways," to be addressed to the Chairman of Tender Board, Stores and Transport Office, King street.

The Tender Board will not necessarily accept the lowest tender.

2. All orders for supplies must be issued from the Secretary of Railways, and all goods must be delivered free of charge to Railway Stores, Williamstown, unless otherwise directed by the secretary.

3. Delivery as a rule is to be of the full quantity ordered at one time, but all deliveries must be accompanied with detail invoice, or bill of parcels, showing quantity, rate, and value; also, the number of the order, otherwise the goods will not be received.

4. Fourteen days will be allowed to execute orders for printed forms, and twenty-one days for books.

5. Any irregularity in the quantity or quality of the supplies, or of delay in delivery, will subject the contractor, upon report from the Railway Storekeeper, to such mulct, not exceeding one-fourth the amount of the monthly account, as the Government may direct.

6. The Railway Storekeeper will have the power to reject such supplies as he may consider not according to contract, and the contractor may claim a survey to be held, provided he gives the Railway Storekeeper notice thereof within twenty-four hours after the goods have been rejected. The Commissioner of Railways will appoint the Board of Survey, and his decision will be final.

7. On completion of an order the contractor will furnish his account to the Railway Storekeeper, and payment will be made at the Treasury. The orders are to be sent in with the account to which they relate.

8. The contract may be terminated by three months' notice from either party—the contractor on his own behalf, and the Secretary of Railways on behalf of the Government.
