(Copy of Order in Council referred to.)

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December, 1866.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Foreign Deserters Act 1852, it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering or apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of any foreign power, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to such power, when within Her Majesty's dominions, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient; and whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of the United States of Colombia:

Provided, always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions he may be detained until he has been tried by a competent court, and until his sentence, if any, has been fully carried into effect.

And the Right Honorable the Earl of Carnarvon, the Right Honorable the Viscount Cranborne, and the Right Honorable Spencer Horatio Walpole, three of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions accordingly.

ANCHORAGES AMONG THE SOUTH SEA ISLANDS.

THE following Hydrographic notice, relating to various anchorages among the South Sea Islands, is published for general information.

J. G. FRANCIS,

Commissioner of Trade and Customs.

Department of Trade and Customs,
Melbourne, 25th March, 1867.

1298.

The information in this notice is to be carefully considered, and compared with the chart when the ship is navigating the parts to which it refers.

Hydrographic Notice.

(No. 11.)

SOUTH PACIFIC OCEAN.

THE following remarks on various anchorages among the South Sea Islands have been received from Captain Charles W. Hope, R.N., commanding H.M.S. Brisk. (All bearings are magnetic. Variation at Rotumah 9° 30' E. in 1866).

SAMOAN OR NAVIGATOR ISLANDS.

Manua or Manua-tele Island.—While the trade wind is blowing vessels may anchor off the village of Peleasau, in a small bay just east of the north-west point of the island. The Brisk anchored here in 15 fathoms and found it tolerably sheltered, but a vessel should be prepared to weigh on any change of wind. The landing place is a very narrow passage through the reef, only wide enough for a whale boat, and is dangerous if there is much swell on.

Otosinga Island.—The Brisk visited this island and hove to on the north side where no anchorage could be found. The landing place is difficult at low water on account of the fringing coral reef.

Savaii Island.—Matautu Roadstead. Vessels intending to anchor off Matautu should give the reef which projects from the point a berth of half a mile, as there is shoal water off it, perhaps a continuation of the reef: the Brisk rounding the reef at the distance of two cables, had 5 fathoms water, and there is said to be less. The plan from the United States survey shows no indication of this shoal patch, which however is well known to the residents.

WALLIS ISLAND OR UVEA.

Captain Hope confirms the account given of the harbor off the south end of this island by Captain Sir Everard Home in 1844, in Findley's South Pacific Directory, pages 499 and 500, and adds, "The channel up to the inner anchorage is very tortuous between patches of coral, but in favorable weather they are easily seen and present no difficulty to a steam vessel; a ship should not, however, proceed to the upper anchorage without a pilot if one can be procured."

ROTUMAH ISLAND.

There are two anchorages on the north of Rotumah Island. Lee Harbor, as it is called.—An open bay about a mile and a half from the west end of the island. This bay is well marked by a high wooded bluff on its western side, with a precipitous red sandstone face to the water's edge. The Brisk anchored here in 15 fathoms, with the east point of the bay bearing N.E. ½ E., and the centre of Emery Island W. by N. ½ N. Emery Island is the easternmost of a chain of islets lying to the north-west of Rotumah, and is high, wooded, and inhabited. There is a clear channel between these islets and Rotumah, but the passages between them are said to be unsafe. The westernmost islet of this chain has a remarkable perpendicular cliff right across it through which the sea passes.

North-east Roadstead is about 5 miles to the eastward of Lee Harbor, at the north-east point of the island, and is close to the westward of two islets lying off the point, which are connected to each other and to the main island by a coral reef; this anchorage is sheltered during the trade wind season, but a nasty sea sets round the island, and Lee Harbor is a much superior roadstead. The Brisk anchored at the north-east roadstead in 11 fathoms, sand, with the outer extreme of the outer islet E. by N.; but two cables further in would be a better berth, as there would be more shelter if the trade wind were blowing strong, which it frequently does.

CURTIS ISLAND.

The Brisk did not sight this island in the position assigned to it in the Admiralty chart. Captain Hope obtained information from the master of an American whale ship that it was in 178° 38' west; this agrees nearly with the longitude given by D'Entrecasteaux in 1793 (178° 43' 20"), as also by D'Urville in 1827, 178° 37' 20" west of Greenwich. Applying to the position of Raoul or Sunday Island, as determined by Captain Denham in 1854, the distance stated by D'Entrecasteaux, it would place Curtis Island in lat. 30° 36' S., and long. 178° 37' W.; this last position cannot therefore be far from the truth.

TENDERS FOR OCCUPATION OF LAND UNDER 39TH SECTION OF THE AMENDING LAND ACT.

TENDERS will be received (under the 39th section of The Amending Land Act 1865) by the Board of Land and Works up to Noon of Thursday, the 18th day of April next, for the occupation (for pastoral purposes only) of the portions of land hereunder described, subject to the following terms, conditions, limitations and provisions contained in The Land Act 1862 and The Amending Land Act 1865, relating to the ordinary pastoral occupation of Crown lands, and to the provisions of the 78th section of the first-named Act defining the privileges of travellers.

1. The period of occupation will be one year from the date of the acceptance of the tender.
 2. The minimum fee in each case will be £5, in accordance with the Regulations of the 16th May, 1865.
 3. The license fee must be paid every year in advance; the first fee must accompany the tender or be paid by the successful tenderer or his agent immediately on the declaration of the tenders, otherwise the offer of the next highest tenderer who may be prepared to comply with this condition will be accepted.
 4. The licenses will be subject to the granting of licenses under the 42nd section of The Amending Land Act 1865, without any reduction of the license fee or allowance for compensation during the current year of occupancy.
 5. If the land be not required for sale or for other appropriation, the license will be renewable at the option of the said Board, on the same terms and conditions, provided application be made by licensee two months prior to the expiry of the current license, and payment of license fee for the ensuing year be made on approval of the Board being signified.
 6. If any error whatsoever be made to appear in the description or area of the portions of land to be licensed hereunder, the same shall be rectified, and a compensation, or equivalent in satisfaction thereof, shall be determined by the Board of Land and Works, and accepted by the licensee in full of claim for loss or damage sustained thereby, or in the event of the licensee being dissatisfied with the amount so determined, the Board may cancel such license and return to the licensee the proportionate part of the license fee for the unexpired term of such license.
 7. Any improvements made upon the land will be so made at the risk of the licensee, as no compensation will be made for such improvements, neither will any time after the expiration of this license be allowed to remove any improvement so made.
