ARARAT MINING DISTRICT.

BYE-LAW SUPPLEMENTARY TO BYE-LAW No. 2, REGULATING ALLUVIAL MINING IN THE ARARAT MINING DISTRICT.— [Gazetted 15th February, 1867.]

AT a meeting of the Mining Board of the Mining District of Ararat, begun and holden at the Mining Board Room, Ararat, in the said district, on the twenty-fifth day of August, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, it is ordained by the said board as follows, that is to say:—

1. Marking off and shepherding claims.—On the day on which any claim shall be taken possession of one of the shareholders must remain thereon for two consecutive hours between Nine a.m. and Noon, and on every succeeding day each shareholder in such claim must be present thereon during the time above mentioned, until work is commenced and continued in a bona fide manner; but where a claim has been marked out at such an hour as to render it impossible to shepherd during the hours named, then the person shall, if marking out before Twelve o'clock at noon, shepherd the proportion of time that is practicable, and if subsequent to the hour of noon he shall not be compelled to shepherd on that day: provided always that in the case of any such shareholder being a female, or male under fourteen years of age, the same must be represented by a competent miner. No share or interest in any claim being shepherded shall under any circumstances become liable to forfeiture unless through absence from such claim during the hours specified above. But no person holding a share or interest in a claim under this clause can hold any other share or interest at the same time, unless such share or interest be represented by a miner other than himself, and in all respects in accordance with the provisions of this bye-law.

2. Repeal clause.—Clause No. 12 of bye-law No. 2, gazetted 15th February, 1867, regulating mining in the Ararat Mining District, is hereby repealed, saving as affects the rights obtained previous to and held at the time of this bye-law coming into operation.

The undersigned members of the said mining board concurred in making the foregoing bye-law.

JOHN ANDREWS,
ALEXANDER MILLER,
J. H. WHELAN,
J. Y. WAKELIAM,
JAMES CAMERON,
JONATHAN WATTS BROWNE,
JAMES LYTH,
EDWD. SALISBURY,

Chairman.

I hereby certify that this bye-law is not contrary to law.

GEO. PATON SMITH,
Attorney-General.

Crown Law Offices,
Melbourne, 11th September, 1868.

MARYBOROUGH MINING DISTRICT.

STANDING ORDERS BYE-LAW.—[27th August, 1868.]

AT a Meeting of the Mining Board of the Mining District of Maryborough, begun and holden at Maryborough, in the said district, on the twenty-seventh day of August, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, it is ordained by the said board, as follows, that is to say:—

1. Repealing clause.—The bye-law of the 17th day of October, 1859, with reference to the standing orders of the Mining Board of the Mining District of Maryborough, shall be and the same is hereby repealed and rescinded, and the following enacted instead thereof.

2. Business conducted with open doors.—Strangers may be excluded.—That the business of the board shall be conducted on all ordinary occasions with open doors, but any one member present may require the exclusion of strangers during the discussion of any question, and any person not being a member of said board who shall refuse to retire from the board-room when requested to do so by the chairman of any meeting of said board, shall be guilty of a breach of this bye-law.

3. Minutes shall be taken.—That minutes of the proceedings of each meeting of the board shall be taken regularly and entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and an attendance book shall also be kept, in which the names of all members who attend any meeting of said board within half an hour after any such meeting shall have commenced, shall be entered; and after the expiration of the said half-hour no member, except as hereinafter provided, shall be entitled to have his name entered in such book as being present at a meeting of said board on the day for which such meeting has been convened; and the entries in such book may be revised before the close or adjournment of any meeting, and the name of any member entered therein may, by resolution of said board, be expunged therefrom, and the name of any member not present at any meeting before the expiration of the said half-hour, but who may afterwards attend such meeting, may, with the sanction of the board, be entered in such book, and the members whose names are so entered shall alone be considered to have been present at such meeting.

4. When there is not a quorum, names recorded.—At any time appointed for the board to meet, when there is not a quorum of the members present, or when the board is counted out, such circumstance, together with the names of the members then present, shall be recorded in the minute-book and attendance-book.

5. Minutes of preceding meeting first business.—The minutes of any preceding meeting not previously confirmed shall be read as the first business at all meetings of the board, in order to their confirmation; and no discussion shall be permitted thereupon, except as to their accuracy as a record of the proceedings of the board, and upon their being confirmed, or amended and confirmed, as the case may be, they shall be signed by the chairman.

6. Order of business.—That the following shall be the order of business:—1. Confirmation of minutes; 2. Correspondence and incidental business; 3. Motions of which notice has been given; 4. Fresh notices of motion.

ATTENDANCE OF MEMBERS.

7. Calls of the board.—Calls of the board may be made by the chairman, on a written application signed by at least two members of the board, and stating the business for which such call is requested.

8. Fine for non-attendance.—Should a call for a full meeting of the members of the board be made, any member who does not attend such meeting shall be deemed to be guilty of a breach of this bye-law, unless he shall furnish to the board a satisfactory reason for his absence.

9. Seven days' notice for a call of the board.—No order for a call of the board shall be made for any day earlier than seven days from the date of such order, inclusive of the day of such order.

10. Copy of order shall be sent to each member.—A copy of the order for a call of the board shall be forwarded to each member of the board, signed by the chairman or clerk.

11. Breach of order No. 8.—At every call of the board, so soon as the minutes of the previous meeting have been read and confirmed, the names of the members shall be called over, and any member not being present before the expiration of the half hour provided by the Act shall be considered to have broken standing order No. 8.

NOTICES AND MOTIONS.

12. Notices of motion, motions and amendments to motions, to be written and signed.—That all notices of motion, motions and amendments to motions, must be in writing, and signed by the mover and seconder; and no resolution of the board shall be rescinded except notice thereof be given at the meeting next preceding.

13. One member may give notice of motion for an absent member.—A member may give notice of motion for any other member not then present, by putting the name of the member for whom the notice is signed on the notice of motion.

14. Members who have given notice shall be present.—No motion entered on the notice paper shall be proceeded with unless the member who has given such notice, or some one authorized by him, be present when the business is called in order. Notices not so proceeded with shall be struck out of the paper.

15. Motions not seconded shall lapse.—Any motion not seconded shall not be further debated, but shall lapse.

16. Motions proposed and seconded.—When a motion has been proposed and seconded, a question thereon shall be proposed to the board by the chairman.

17. Motions may be withdrawn.—A member who has proposed a motion may withdraw the same by leave of the board; but should such motion be seconded, such leave can only be granted provided there be no negative voice.

18. Questions may be superseded.—A question may be superseded—1st, by the adjournment of the board on the motion of a member "That the board do now adjourn;" 2nd, by the previous question, viz., "That the question be now put," being proposed and negatived.

19. Questions shall be put.—So soon as the debate upon a question shall be concluded, the chairman shall put the question to the board in a distinct and audible manner.

20. Votings.—The question being put, shall be resolved in the affirmative or negative by the majority of voices "aye" or "no."

21. Chairman shall give his opinion.—The chairman shall state whether in his opinion the "ayes" or the "noes" have it, and unless his opinion be acquiesced in by the minority the question shall be resolved by a division.

22. Questions once carried cannot be questioned again.—A question being once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, cannot be questioned again at the same sitting during which it has been so resolved.

AMENDMENTS.

23. Questions may be amended.—A question having been proposed, may be amended by leaving out certain words or by inserting or adding words.

24. Amendments not seconded.—An amendment proposed but not seconded will not be entertained by the board nor entered in the minutes.

25. Amendment to leave out words.—When the proposed amendment is to leave out certain words the chairman shall put a question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the question," which shall be resolved by the board in the affirmative or negative, as the case may be.

26. Amendment to substitute words.—When the proposed amendment is to leave out certain words in order to insert or add other words, the chairman shall put a question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the question," which, if resolved in the affirmative, will dispose of the amendment; but if in the negative, and there is no motion before the board for amending the proposed amendment, another question shall be put "That the words of the amendment be inserted or added instead thereof," which shall be resolved in the affirmative or negative, as the case may be.

27. Amendment to insert or add words.—When the proposed amendment is to insert or add certain words, the chairman shall put a question, "That such words be inserted or added," which shall be resolved in the affirmative or negative, as the case may be.

28. Amendment may be withdrawn.—A proposed amendment may be by leave of the board withdrawn.

29. Amendments may be amended.—Amendments may be proposed to a proposed amendment as if such proposed amendment were an original question.

30. Amended questions.—When amendments have been made, the main question as amended shall be put.

31. Amendments not carried.—When amendments have been proposed but not carried, the question is put as originally proposed.

DEBATE.

32. Members shall rise to speak.—Every member desiring to speak shall rise in his place uncovered, and address himself to the chairman.

33. Members may not speak during a division.—Members can only speak while the board is dividing by permission of the chairman, and then only to a point of order.

34. Members may not speak to a question after the votes have been taken.—No member may speak to any question after the same has been put by the chairman, and the voices have been given in the affirmative and negative thereon.

35. When two members rise to speak.—When two or more members rise to speak, the chairman shall call upon the member who in his opinion first rose in his place.

36. Members may speak.—A member may speak to any question before the board, or upon any amendment proposed thereto, or upon a question or amendment to be proposed by himself, or upon a question of order arising out of the debate, but not otherwise.

37. Members may explain matters of a personal nature.—By the indulgence of the board, a member may explain matters of a personal nature, although there be no question before the board, but such matters may not be debated.

38. Members may not speak twice.—No member may speak twice to a question before the board, except in explanation or reply, or in committee of the whole board.

39. A member who has spoken may again be heard.—A member who has spoken to a question may again be heard to explain himself in regard to some material part of his speech, but shall not introduce any new matter.

40. A member may reply.—A reply shall be allowed to a mover of a resolution or amendment.

41. A point of order.—That any member rising to a point of order shall be allowed simply to direct attention to the point complained of, and submit it to the decision of the chairman.

42. Members may not reflect on any vote of the board.—No member shall reflect on any vote of the board, except for the purpose of moving that such vote be rescinded.

43. Members may not refer to another member by name.—No member shall refer to any other member by name, except for the purpose of distinguishing him from other members proposed for the same division.

44. Members may not apply offensive words to any member.—No member shall use offensive or unbecoming words in reference to any member of the board.

45. Words objected to in debate.—When any member shall object to words used in debate, and shall desire them to be taken down, the chairman, if it be the pleasure of the board, will direct them to be taken down.

46. Words objected to in committee.—In a committee of the whole board, the chairman, if it be the pleasure of the committee, will direct words objected to to be taken down, in order that the same may be reported to the board.

47. Words objected to shall be taken down.—Every such objection shall be taken down at the time when such words are used, and not after any other member has spoken.

48. Members using objectionable words shall apologise.—Any member having used objectionable words, and not explaining or retracting the same, or offering an apology for the use thereof to the satisfaction of the board, will be censured by the board, and shall not be allowed to hold his seat or vote on any question before the board until the offensive words have been retracted by him and an apology rendered to the satisfaction of the board.

49. When the chairman rises during a debate.—Whenever the chairman rises during a debate, any member then speaking or offering to speak shall sit down, so that the chairman may be heard without interruption.

50. Charges against members.—Any member against whom any charge has been made, having been heard in his place, shall withdraw while such charge shall be under debate.

DIVISIONS.

51. Members must vote.—Every member present at the board when the question is put will be required to vote.

52. Divisions—Votes recorded.—In every case of division the votes of both the ayes and noes shall be recorded.

53. Divisions may be demanded in a committee of the whole.—Divisions may be demanded in a committee of the whole board in the same way as hereinbefore described.

COMMITTEES OF THE WHOLE.

54. Committee appointed by resolution.—A committee of the whole board will be appointed by resolution, "That the board do now resolve itself into a committee."

55. Quorum of committees.—The quorum of the committees of the whole shall be the same number as required for a quorum of the board.

56. Matters to be considered.—Committees shall consider such matters only as have been referred to them by the board.

57. Members may speak more than once.—In committee members may speak more than once to one question.

58. Chairman's casting vote.—Every question in committee shall be decided by a majority of votes, and in case of an equality of votes the chairman of committee shall give the casting vote.

59. Request to report progress.—At any stage of a measure in committee, the chairman may be requested to report progress and ask leave to sit again at a future day.

60. Business disposed of.—When matters referred to a committee of the whole have been considered, the chairman of committees shall report the same to the board.

61. Motion to report progress.—A motion may be made during the sitting of a committee, "That the chairman do now report progress and ask leave to sit again."

62. Reports of committees.—Every report of a committee of the whole board shall be brought up without any question being put.

63. Lists of divisions.—Lists of divisions in committee shall be recorded.

64. Resolutions in committee may be recommitted.—Resolutions agreed to by a committee of the whole may be affirmed or negatived by the board; if negatived, they must be recommitted for further consideration in committee.

65. Motions introducing new regulations.—All motions which if carried would introduce new regulations into this district, shall not be resolutions of the board until they shall have been read at three sittings of the board.

66. Motions respecting bye-laws ordered into committee.—That all motions respecting bye-laws be ordered into committee after the second and previous to the third reading.

PETITIONS.

67. Member to acquaint himself with contents.—It shall be incumbent on every member presenting a petition to acquaint himself with the contents thereof, and to ascertain that it does not contain language disrespectful to the board.

68. Member shall prefix his name.—Every member presenting a petition to the board shall write his name at the beginning thereof.

69. Petitions must be in conformity with rules.—Every member presenting a petition shall take care that the same is in conformity with the rules and orders of the board.

70. Petitions shall be respectful.—Every petition shall be respectful, decorous and temperate in its language.

71. Petitions shall be presented by a member.—Petitions can only be presented to the board by a member.

72. Petitioner shall not present petition from himself.—A member cannot present a petition from himself.

SUSPENSION OF STANDING ORDERS.

73. Standing orders may be suspended.—It shall be competent, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, for the board to suspend any standing order herein contained, provided the effect of such suspension shall not be the rescinding of any resolution previously adopted by the board.

The undersigned members of the said mining board concurred in making the foregoing bye-law.

LANDS OPEN FOR LEASING.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Honorable SIR JOHN HENRY THOMAS MANNERS SUTTON, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria, &c., &c., &c.

IN pursuance of the authority vested in the Governor in Council by The Amending Land Act 1865, I do hereby with the advice of the Executive Council, proclaim that, on and after the day hereinafter specified, the lands situated in the agricultural areas of and hereinafter more particularly described, will be open for leasing under and subject to the provisions of The Amending Land Act 1865; and that applications for lands in the said areas, and payments on account of the same, may be made to the Land Officer and at the Land Office hereinafter mentioned.

FRANKLIN,

To be open for leasing on and after Wednesday, the twenty-third day of September, 1868, at the Land Office, Melbourne.
 ARTHUR MORRAH, Esq., Land Officer.

Agricultural area of Franklin, county of Hampden, parish of Pircarra, near the township of Darlington; containing for leasing the allotments numbered or lettered as follow:—

PARISH OF PIRCARRA.

Allotments 25ab, 30ab.

And delineated on maps deposited and open for inspection at the Crown Lands Office, La Trobe street west, Melbourne; and the District Survey Office, Camperdown.

Agricultural area of Tatyoan, county of Ripon, parish of Tatyoan, lying south of Ararat, containing for leasing the allotments numbered as follow:—

PARISH OF TATYOON.

Allotments 145, 146, 148, 149. Valuation for improvements, 230l.

And delineated on maps deposited and open for inspection at the Crown Lands Office, La Trobe street west, Melbourne, and the District Survey Office, Ararat.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this twenty-first day of September, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and in the thirty-second year of Her Majesty's reign.

(L.S.) J. H. T. MANNERS SUTTON,
 By His Excellency's Command,
 J. M. GRANT,
 Commissioner of Crown Lands and Survey.
 GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

THE PYALONG UNITED TOWN AND FARMERS COMMON.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Honorable SIR JOHN HENRY THOMAS MANNERS SUTTON, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Land Act 1862 it is amongst other things enacted, that when any Crown land remains unsold in or within five miles of any municipal district, or upon or within five miles of any gold-field, or in or within five miles of any town not contained in any municipal district, or within any agricultural area of which at least one-fourth part has been selected, the Governor in Council may proclaim such land to be a municipal common, or a gold-fields common, or a town common, or a farmers' common respectively, as the case may be; and it is also enacted that the Governor in Council may at any time increase, diminish, alter, or abolish any common proclaimed before or after the passing of the said Act: Now therefore I, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby alter the common hereinafter mentioned, in accordance with the above-recited provisions of the said Act, that is to say:—

THE UNITED TOWN AND FARMERS' COMMON OF PYALONG, described in a Proclamation bearing date the 16th day of April, 1866, is hereby increased by adding thereto the unappropriated Crown land comprised within the boundaries described as follow, viz.:—Commencing on the left bank of Mollison's Creek, at the point where the eastern boundary of the existing common abuts thereon; thence by the said boundary of that common, bearing north one hundred and twenty chains, more or less; thence by the north boundary thereof, bearing west one hundred and twenty chains, more or less, to the road from Pyalong to Heathcote; thence by that road bearing north-westerly eighty chains, more or less; thence by lines bearing respectively N. 60° E. two hundred and forty chains, S. 17° E. two hundred chains, and south one hundred and twenty chains, more or less, to the aforesaid creek; and thence by that creek bearing north-westerly to the point of commencement; as shown on the plan deposited at the Crown Lands Office, Melbourne. The bearings are from the true meridian.—Area, 4000 acres, more or less.—(68.Q.12984.)

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this fourteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and in the thirty-second year of Her Majesty's reign.

(L.S.) J. H. T. MANNERS SUTTON,
 By His Excellency's Command,
 J. M. GRANT,
 Commissioner of Crown Lands and Survey.
 GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

LEASES.

THE following Leases having been executed by the Board of Land and Works, under the provisions of the 12th, 13th, and 14th sections of The Amending Land Act 1865, the same and counterparts thereof, respectively, have been forwarded to, and are now lying at, the respective Revenue and Land Offices undermentioned, for execution by the lessees, and the said lessees are hereby required to execute the same forthwith.

LANDS FOR PASTORAL OCCUPATION.

TENDERS will be received (under the 39th section of The Amending Land Act 1865) by the Board of Land and Works, up to Noon of Friday, the 9th October, 1868, at this office, at Melbourne, for the occupation (for pastoral purposes only) of the portions of land hereunder described, subject to the following terms, conditions, limitations, and provisions contained in The Land Act 1862 and The Amending Land Act 1865, relating to the ordinary pastoral occupation of Crown lands, and to the provisions of the 78th section of the first-named Act, defining the privileges of travellers.

1. The period of occupation will be one year from the date of the acceptance of the tender.

2. The minimum fee in each case will be £5, in accordance with the Regulations of the 16th May, 1865.

3. The license fee must be paid every year in advance; the first fee must accompany the tender or be paid by the successful tenderer or his agent immediately on the declaration of the tenders, otherwise the offer of the next highest tenderer who may be prepared to comply with this condition will be accepted.

4. The licensees will be subject to the granting of licenses under the 42nd section of The Amending Land Act 1865, without any reduction of the license fee or allowance for compensation during the current year of occupancy.

5. If the land be not required for sale or for other appropriation, the license will be renewable at the option of the said Board, on the same terms and conditions, provided application be made by licensee two months prior to the expiry of the current license, and payment of license fee for the ensuing year be made on the approval of the Board being signified.

6. If any error whatsoever be made to appear in the description or area of the portions of land to be licensed hereunder, the same shall be rectified, and a compensation, or equivalent in satisfaction thereof, shall be determined by the Board of Land and Works, and accepted by the licensee in full claim for loss or damage sustained thereby, or in the event of the licensee being dissatisfied with the amount so determined, the Board may cancel such license, and return to the licensee the proportionate part of the license fee for the unexpired term of such license.

7. Any improvements made upon the land will be so made at the risk of the licensee, as no compensation will be made for such improvements, neither will any time after the expiration of this license be allowed to remove any improvements so made.

8. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

Plans and information may be obtained in this office, and at the District Survey Offices at Warrnambool and Geelong.

J. M. GRANT,

President of the Board of Land and Works.

Tenders for the Service of 1869.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS, 1869.

TENDERS are hereby invited, and will be received until Noon of Wednesday, the 14th October, 1868, for the Conveyance of Post Office Mails as undermentioned, for one year, from the 1st January, 1869, to 31st December, 1869.

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, prepaid), addressed to the Honorable the Postmaster-General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenderers are requested to describe by their numbers as below the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Every tender must bear the bond fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Acting Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by successful tenderers will be returned to them upon application, on the bond and contract being completed.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service; but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any Post Office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used Members of Parliament shall be conveyed free of charge between the districts they represent and the districts in which they reside and Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

General Post Office,
Melbourne, 12th August, 1868.

G. V. SMITH,
Postmaster-General.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS, 1869.

TENDERS are hereby invited, and will be received until Noon of Wednesday, the 23rd October, 1868, for the Conveyance of Post Office Mails as undermentioned, for one year, from the 1st January, 1869, to 31st December, 1869.

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, prepaid), addressed to the Honorable the Postmaster-General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenders are requested to describe by their numbers as below the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Every tender must bear the bond fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Acting Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by successful tenderers will be returned to them upon application, on the bond and contract being completed.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.
A separate tender must be sent in for each service; but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any Post Office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used, Members of Parliament shall be conveyed free of charge between the districts they represent and the districts in which they reside and Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.
