PROCLAIMED (SEPARATE SINGLE) ROAD DISTRICTS.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Honorable SIR JOHN HENRY THOMAS MANNERS SUTTON, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Local Government Act 1863 it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, if he shall have received a petition signed by not less than twenty persons, each of whose names shall appear upon some voters' roll for a single district or any one or more subdivisions thereof, setting forth that by reason of the great extent of such district, or remoteness of the part wherein such petitioners reside from other parts thereof, and of the diversity of the industry and interests of such part from those of the remainder thereof (of the truth of which allegations, and the grounds thereof, the Governor in Council alone shall judge), it is expedient to constitute the two parts of such district so differently affected, two separate districts, to constitute accordingly such parts with such boundaries and under such names as shall seem fit, two separate single districts, called proclaimed districts under the said Act; and all subdivisions of the district so separated shall cease to exist: And whereas by a Proclamation under the hand of the Governor and the seal of the Colony, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of October, 1860, a road district was proclaimed under the designation of "The Mount Eliza Road District." And whereas by another Proclamation, bearing date the fourth day of February, 1861, the boundaries of the said district were altered as therein mentioned: And whereas the Governor in Council has received a petition, signed by not less than twenty persons, each of whose names appears on the voters' roll for the said district, setting forth the matters and things required by the above-recited Act: And whereas, for the reasons stated in the said petition, it is deemed expedient to sever the said district into two separate single districts: Now therefore I, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby sever into two parts the said Mount Eliza Road District, and do constitute such parts two separate single districts, called "Proclaimed Districts," under the said Act, with the boundaries and under the names hereinafter assigned to the same respectively, that is to say:

MOUNT ELIZA ROAD DISTRICT.—Starting on the shore of Port Phillip Bay in line with blocks one and four, section six of Frankston parish; by that line and southwardly by the boundary of Langwarrin parish, and by the boundaries of, and including the parishes of Tyabb and Moorooduc, and by the shore of Port Phillip Bay to the starting point.

FLINDERS ROAD DISTRICT.—Starting on the shore of Western Port, by the creek forming the southern boundary of J. Hann's pre-emptive right to its junction with the western boundary of that right; thence direct to the south-east angle of section one (formerly approximately 10A of later lithograph), Kangerong parish as far as the boundary of Kangerong parish; thence northwardly by that last boundary, eastwardly by the boundary of Moorooduc parish, and by the boundary of and including Bittern parish to the starting point.

The mortality in October was above an average extending over nine years, but not excessively so if the increase of population during the period be taken into account. The mean temperature was higher by half a degree than the average.

Fifty-seven per cent. of those who died were males and 43 per cent. were females. Forty-five per cent. had not attained their fifth year against 40 per cent. in October, 1867; 51 per cent. in October, 1866; 52 per cent. in October, 1865; 41 per cent. in October, 1864; 37 per cent. in October, 1863; 40 per cent. in October, 1862; 51 per cent. in October, 1861; and 63 per cent. in October, 1860.

Eighteen deaths took place on the 28th, and 16 on the 7th. These were the days of highest mortality. Only 4 deaths occurred on the 6th, 10th, 11th, and 17th, which were the days of the lowest.

A male, said to have reached the advanced age of 92 years, died of bronchitis. This is the only person over 75 years of age whose death was reported during the month.

Thirteen violent deaths took place in the month, of which 8 were referred to accident, 2 to murder or manslaughter, and 3 suicide. The following are the particulars:—A carter aged 22 died from being passed over by a cart wheel, a male aged 68 died from injuries caused by a horse running away, a boy aged 10 was accidentally drowned in the Yarra, a seaman aged 22 was drowned in the Yarra whilst drunk, a clerk aged 24 was drowned in the Yarra by the upsetting of a boat, a seaman aged 35 was drowned at St. Kilda, a male aged 38 was found drowned in the Yarra, a gardener aged 65 was drowned at St. Kilda, a new-born infant was wilfully suffocated, a schoolboy aged 10 died from the effects of a blow, a tinsmith aged 45 died from the effects of a self-inflicted wound in the abdomen, a plumber aged 40 drowned himself in the Yarra whilst laboring under insanity, an actress aged 20 poisoned herself with laudanum.

Forty-seven deaths or nearly 18 per cent. of the whole occurred in charitable institutions, viz.: 31 in Melbourne Hospital, 2 in the Lying-in Hospital, 4 in the Benevolent Asylum, 4 in the Immigrants' Home, 1 in the Industrial Schools, 1 in the Carlton Lunatic Asylum, and 4 in the Yarra Bend Lunatic Asylum.

The following table shows the number of persons of all ages according to the last census, the number of deaths of persons under and over five years of age, the total at all ages, and the number of deaths to every 1,000 of the population, during the month of October, in the Statistical District of Melbourne and suburbs, and in each of the sub-districts of which it is composed:—

NOTE.—The Melbourne Hospital is in Melbourne Proper, the Benevolent Asylum in North Melbourne and Carlton, the Yarra Bend Lunatic Asylum in Jika-jika parish (remainder of), and the Industrial Schools in South Yarra and Prahran.

* This calculation is made upon the population at the last census, instead of the present population, as there are no means of estimating the changes which have taken place in the different sub-districts since the census was taken. It is believed that the present population of the whole district of Melbourne and suburbs amounts to 170,000. If this be correct, the mortality of the month under review would indicate a proportion of 1.55 deaths to every 1,000 persons living.

The deaths of children under five years of age numbered 120, of which 68, or nearly 57 per cent., were of males, and 52, or about 43 per cent., were of females. Of those dying, 67 were under one year of age, 16 were between one and two years, 18 were between two and three, 11 were between three and four, and 8 were between four and five.

The persons dying at a more advanced age than five years numbered 144, of which 83, or nearly 58 per cent., were males, and 61, or about 42 per cent., were females; 12 were between five and ten, 6 were between ten and fifteen, 6 were between fifteen and twenty, 10 were between twenty and twenty-five, 12 were between twenty-five and thirty, 15 were between thirty and thirty-five, 15 were between thirty-five and forty, 14 were between forty and forty-five, 18 were between forty-five and fifty, 9 were between fifty and fifty-five, 8 were between fifty-five and sixty, 8 were between sixty and sixty-five, 6 were between sixty-five and seventy, 4 were between seventy and seventy-five, and 1 was eighty and upwards.

The following table shows the causes of the deaths of persons of both sexes under and over five years of age, and the proportions per cent. of deaths from each cause, in Melbourne and suburbs, during the month of October, 1868:—

| Classes. | Causes of Death. | Under five years. | Over five years. | Total. | Proportions per cent. |

Zymotic diseases caused 68 deaths in September, and 69 in the month under review. This increase is easily accounted for by the fact that scarlatina and diphtheria resulted fatally in 17 instances in the former month, and in no less than 33 instances in the latter. Phthisis caused only 25 deaths in October, which is the smallest number recorded for any month since last April in respect to that disease.

Tenderers are requested to describe by their numbers as below the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Acting Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by successful tenderers will be returned to them upon application, on the bond and contract being completed.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service; but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender either at the General Post Office or at any Post Office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used Members of Parliament shall be conveyed free of charge between the districts they represent and their private residences and Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

NOTICE is hereby given that an action has been commenced in this court by the above-named plaintiffs against the above-named defendants, for that on the twenty-ninth day of April, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in consideration that the plaintiffs, at the request of the defendants, would buy and accept of the defendants three hundred tons of two thousand pounds of Duffield's silk-dressed flour, at the price of Twenty-three pounds per ton of two thousand pounds, to be delivered by the defendants to the plaintiffs alongside Melbourne Wharf, in this colony, within eight weeks then next following; and the said price to be paid by the plaintiffs to the defendants on such delivery as aforesaid, by a bill of exchange to be made by the defendants, and directed to and accepted by the plaintiffs, and payable at thirty days after sight; and the bills of lading for the said flour were to be hypothecated; the defendants promised the plaintiffs that the said flour should be merchantable and saleable as Duffield's silk-dressed flour; yet the defendants have broken their said promise in this, to wit, that the flour delivered by the defendants to the plaintiffs, as and for the flour so promised to be delivered as aforesaid was not merchantable and saleable as Duffield's silk-dressed flour, and a writ of foreign attachment has been issued, directed to Henry Lawman Sharpe, of Kew, in the county of Bourke, and of Elizabeth street, in the city of Melbourne, merchant; and the Bank of New South Wales, Collins street, in the city of Melbourne; John Badcock of Collins street, Melbourne aforesaid, manager of such bank, and Henry Pownall Sawell of Gardiner's Creek road, in the said county, for the purpose of attaching in the hands of the said Henry Lawman Sharpe, the Bank of New South Wales, John Badcock, and Henry Pownall Sawell, all and singular the lands and other hereditaments, moneys and chattels, bills, bonds, and other property of whatsoever nature in the custody or under the control of the said Henry Lawman Sharpe, the Bank of New South Wales, John Badcock, and Henry Pownall Sawell, or either of them, at the time of the service of the said writ, belonging to the above-named Walter Duffield and John Mitchell, or to or in which such defendants shall at the time be legally or equitably entitled, or otherwise beneficially interested
